Tax Payers Association Will Start Active Campaign For Members On June 8

Purposes of Organization Explained—Newton Residents Are Urged To Join

The formation of the Newton Tax Payers Association as announced recently has created considerable interest among Newton residents. The next step will be a campaign for members which is expected to be inaugurated about June 8th. In preparation for this the GRAPHIC has been asked to publish the following statement in regard to the purposes of the organization:

"Within a short time the residents of Newton will be asked to become members of the Newton Taxpayers Association, Inc., the organization of which has been reported in the GRAPHIC. A brief statement of the purposes of the organization may be of interest to those who will be asked to join.

"It should be understood from the beginning that the Association is absolutely non-partisan and non-political. It is not its purpose to advance the interests of any party or of any candidates for office. It hopes, if it receives the public support, which is expected, that it will be able to lay before the people of Newton information in regard to local, county and state tax matters which will assist in the creation and exercise of an intelligent, informed interest in public affairs. It is recognized that upon such an interest among a large portion of the people depends good government.

In short, the function of the Association will be that of finding facts and making them known. "The City of Newton has been and is today conspicuous among the municipalities in the state for the excellent character of its local government. Therefore, at this time those interested in the Association are not so much concerned with local affairs as with those of the Commonwealth. On the other hand Newton is growing very rapidly and it will be helpful to the maintenance of Newton standards to interest the new-comers in its affairs and to secure their co-operation. As time goes on, it is expected that considerable information as to the sources of revenue and the disposition of the fund at the disposal of the city government will be made available. This need not be in any critical spirit, but simply to acquaint all the people with their common affairs. There is always a danger that those interested in some particular (Continued on Page 2)

Parker To Run For State Senate

Announcement was made this week that former Representative Bartol Parker of Framingham will be a candidate for Senator in the First Middlesex Senatorial District. Endorsement of his candidacy has been made by the Republican Town Committee of Framingham in a statement stressing his qualifications and his experience. The statement recalls his service as a public servant, his activity in advancement of the cause of the Republican party and his active support of candidates from other towns when they have sought support in Framingham. The statement also expresses a demand for recognition of the western end of the district stating that it has been eighteen years since Framingham has had a Senator.

The seat which Mr. Parker seeks is now held by Senator Arthur Hollis of Newton who will be a candidate for re-election.

New Pastor At Immanuel Church

Rev. Earle C. Hochwald has been unanimously called as pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church of Newton. The call was made last evening at a meeting of the church. WOMAN PLANNED—WOMAN SUPERVISED—BRODRICK BUILT
ON AN ACRE-SIZE LOT

Where Peirce Road bends to meet Monadnock Road, you'll find this stately new brick-and-Colonial with its multi-paned windows accented by blinds of Della Robbia blue.

Set far in from the street and shaded by fine old trees, it harks back to an era when gracious living and unbounded hospitality were the rule.

Developed in the best New England tradition; planned and supervised by a woman and Brodrick-built, it suggests in all its fine appointments, the perfect background for some priceless collection of Colonial antiques, either inherited or acquired.

The interior finish of soft ivory is complemented by papers that duplicate the sheen and beauty of rare old damask, or portray as they do in the dining room, a scenic mural which might have graced the home of some Pilgrim of the past.

Knotty pine panels the library and also the Colonial Tavern in the basement, while on the 3rd floor is Grandmother's Garret, very much glorified by modern planning and with built-in bunks which increase the facilities for overnight or week-end hospitality.

The details are typically "Brodrick"—spacious modern kitchen, fully equipped; 3 tiled baths; 2 lavatories; General Electric Oil Furnace, rock wool insulation, 2-car garage.

It's open house today and daily thereafter. Do come!

A RECORD GRADUATING CLASS

Tomorrow evening the largest graduating class in the history of the Newton High School will conclude its secondary education with appropriate exercises. During the past decade we have witnessed the number of members of the senior class increase steadily until this year it reached a total of six hundred and seventy-one. With but one or two exceptions there has been an increase every year. Such an occurrence is but natural and is coincident with the growth in population of the city. Many of these graduates will seek further education in schools and colleges of one kind or another. Characteristic of Newton is the high ratio of those who matriculate in higher institutions of learning to the number of graduates. These students have yet some time before they face many of the problems of the world. There are, however, many of their classmates who are not so fortunate and who must enter the workaday world almost immediately. They are as well-equipped as Newton can make them in accordance with their own willingness and endeavor to fit themselves. Those who have graduated in past years and have gone through the "mill" know the problems they will face and the feelings that will come to them. They will endeavor to help the newer generation in every way. Some of the advice may fall on fertile soil, much of it will go unheeded, for it seems to be a trait of human nature that youth must learn for itself by experience or by trial and error. In considering the future that lies ahead of these young graduates we paint no dismal picture nor one of rosy hue. Youth will find its way.

phase of the city's activities may push the projects and services in which they are especially interested without due regard to all the requirements of the city. Each of these special interests may be admirable standing by itself; but in order that there shall be a proper balance resulting in the most efficient government obtainable, it is necessary that the picture be seen as a whole.

"Newton people are vitally interested in the expenditures of the Commonwealth and in the taxes levied to meet them. It is expected that the Newton Taxpayers Association will become a member of the Massachusetts Federation of Taxpayers' Association and from it will make available to the people of Newton information as to state budget expenditures and taxes. In the Federation there are now over two hundred local associations and their combined influence on the Legislature is undoubtedly great. The Federation like the local associations is a fact finding body, non-partisan and non-political in its activities.

Our wanderings this week take us into a number of the college campuses where Newton young men and women are receiving their diplomas and other honors. For the first time in several years a Newton youth graduates from the United States Military Academy at West Point. He is Cadet Lieutenant Robert McCabe, son of Alderman and Mrs. Frank T. McCabe of Lewis st. Alderman McCabe is a retired major in the United States Army. Cadet McCabe won a competitive examination while a member of the Kansas National Guard and received his appointment to West Point after attending the Newton High School and Immaculate High School in Leavenworth, Kansas. He had been a member of the Mass. National Guard previous to joining the Kansas National Guard. During his career at West Point he attained the rank of Cadet Lieutenant because of his military efficiency. He will be commissioned in the infantry at the graduation exercises to be held on June 12th. Following the graduation the 27th members of the class will be granted a three-months furlough before reporting to their first station.

Another graduate with military training will be William H. Barba who is a 2nd Lieutenant at Norwich University, the oldest military-scientific institution in the country. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Barba of Willard st. He will be commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in the U. S. Cavalry Reserve. While at Norwich he majored in chemistry and will receive his degree in the field of Science in Chemistry with high honors. He has been an outstanding student, a member of the academic honorary society of Epsilon Tau Sigma, which corresponds to Phi Beta Kappa in other colleges. His extracurricular activities have been varied. As a sophomore he was elected to the Marron Key Society, secretary of his class, manager of varsity track in 1935, and a member of the football and fencing teams. As a senior he was captain-manager of fencing and a regular end on the varsity football team. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

From Ohio Wesleyan University comes word that Miss Hazel Moore of Hunnewell ave. is a member of the graduating class of two hundred and fifty-five. She will receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

At Amherst next Monday two members of the graduating class of Massachusetts State College are Chester I. Babcock of Newtonville and Ellen E. Guion of Oakleigh rd., Newton. They will receive degrees of bachelor of science at the commencement exercises. Babcock is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and majored in chemistry. Miss Guion has majored in landscape architecture and has been a member of the college orchestra, landscape club, and of Sigma Beta Chi Sorority.

At the commencement exercises of the Erskine School for Girls last Friday morning at Boston the formal Erskine certificate was presented to Miss Peggy Lamson, daughter of Mrs. Frank Lamson of Waterston rd. During her course Miss Lamson specialized in secretarial work.

Robert Ehrlich of 25 Lancaster rd., Newton, received his degree of Doctor of Osteopathy last Friday after completing four years of professional college work at the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy. Dr. Ehrlich was one of ninety-five seniors graduating. While at college he was a member of the orchestra and the Bacteriological and Genito-Urinary Societies.

Governor Dummer Academy at South Byfield, Mass., graduates two Newton youths at commencement exercises today. This boys' boarding school is the oldest of its kind in the United States. Charles W. Earnshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Earnshaw of 216 Highland st., West Newton, who plans to enter Brown University in the fall, is one of the two local youths. He has been active in school affairs as a member of the tracks and wrestling teams, a member of the glee club, a member of the dance committee, the Commencement Committee, and of the staff of Papyrus, a new school paper which he helped to found. John C. Wells, son of Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Wells of Bowdoin st., Newton Highlands, the other local youth to graduate, will enter Harvard University in the fall. He received the Moody Kent Prize for excellence in English in addition to his diploma. He was a member of the cross-country and track teams, the glee club, and the staff of both the school paper and the school yearbook.

Miss Virginia Furlong Hanscom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Winslow Hanscom of 246 Waban ave., Waban, is a member of this year's graduating class at Portia Law School, and will receive her degree of LL.B. at the graduating exercises on June 10th. Miss Hanscom is a graduate of The Misses Allen's School in West Newton, and has also attended the University of Vermont. While a student at Portia she has been unusually active in student affairs, having been a member of the Student Council for the entire four years, and its secretary in her sophomore and junior years and president during her senior year. Other activities include the Dramatic club for four years, the Junior Prom committee in her junior year, and the inter-society dance committee in her senior year. She was Social Editor of the Prattier, the student publication at Portia, and Literary Editor of the Legacy, the yearbook. She was president of her class in her freshman and sophomore years. She has been an active member of Sigma Beta Kappa, scholastic legal society, having been elected in her freshman year, and has held the offices of Keeper of Scrolls, and Vice Chancellor.

The officers of Temple Emanuel of Newton will formally break ground for their Community and Educational Center on Sunday morning, June 7, at 11 o'clock at Ward st. and Ashford rd., Newton Centre. Dr. A. C. Diefenbach, transcript Editor of the "Church of Today" and Pastor of the Unitarian Church at Newton Centre, will bring the greetings of the Christian Churches and Mayor Edwin O. Childs will present the shovel for the ceremony.

Rotary Club

Monday the Newton Rotary Club became acquainted with another Newton institution which everyone knows but few know about. The Rotarians were guests of Mr. Frederick J. Fessenden, himself a Rotarian. They enjoyed luncheon in the school's dining hall with the instructors and such of the boys as are waiting about for examinations and then divided into small groups to inspect the school. It was a distinct surprise to most of the men to find such an extensive and well-equipped private school right here in Newton and to learn that it receives its pupils from numerous foreign countries as well as from every state in the Union. Although a private school, it is very evidently another educational institution of which Newton can be proud.

NEWTON CHAPTER, ORDER OF DeMOLAY

Newton Republican, June 5, 1874

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday afternoon a petition was received from H. J. Preston, architect, for a permit to erect a wooden block for ex-Governor Claflin at the corner of Washington and Walnut sts., Newtonville. It will be three stories high, 113 feet long and 53 feet deep. License was given to C. B. Frost to move a stable on Elmwood st., Newton. A petition was received from H. O. Rider of Auburnville for permission to collect birds' eggs and nests for scientific purposes.

At the meeting of the joint standing committee of Aldermen and Councilmen on Monday it was voted to instruct each former member of Engine 1 of Lower Falls that if the property taken by them from the engine house at the time of their disbandment is not returned within two weeks, legal proceedings against them will be taken by the city solicitor.

The foundation laid for Eliot Block, Newton is a solid one. It gives promise of a most substantial building. Work on Cole's Block is being rushed.

Elmwood st. really needs widening. The city fathers talked over this matter on Monday but as it was in executive session, we are unable to announce the decision.

Work on the new city hall at West Newton is proceeding as fast as possible. The carpenters are delayed by the non-appearance of the movers.

The May training of the Clafin Guards this year under command of Captain Brown has been the most successful since its organization. After being photographed in front of the armory by Black, the company marched to a vacant lot off Cabot st., Newtonville where the forenoon was spent in drill and target practice.

Newton Graphic, June 5, 1886

The Newton and Nonantum Bicycle Clubs took a run to Salem on Monday where they had dinner at the Essex House and afterwards attended the Lynn races.

Some 150 wheelmen visited the headquarters of the Nonantum Bicycle Club last Friday afternoon and caused about a barrel of ginger ale to disappear.

Work has begun on the construction of the new parsonage for Our Lady's parish. Isaac F. Jones is the contractor and the building will cost about $13,000. It will be of brick and three stories high.

Henry E. Cobb and the party that accompanied him on his tally-ho coaching trip arrived home Tuesday morning, having had favorable weather and a delightful trip. The party included Mr. Cobb and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Sturges Potter, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Field, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ellison. The first night they stopped in Concord, the second in Lancaster, and on Friday arrived at Wauchusett. Saturday they drove around the mountain, on Sunday they rested. On Monday they drove to Westboro and the next morning arrived in Newton. The party made a great sensation along the route.

E. P. Burnham won the two mile tricycle race in Lynn on Monday in 7 minutes, 42 seconds. He defeated Hendee of Springfield who took a header.

Attention is called to the prospectus of Mr. Allen's swimming pool at West Newton for 1936. Hereafter no resident of Newton need plead want of opportunity as an excuse for inability to swim. Ample accommodations for dressing are now afforded, and arrangements can now be made to leave bathing suits in charge of the attendants; a great convenience for the ladies.

The Newton Cottage Hospital will be formally opened at 3:30 p. m., Sunday, June 5. Hon. R. M. Pulsifer will deliver the address and Rev. George W. Shinn will offer the prayer of dedication. The trustees will show the various parts of the building to visitors. All trains on the Circuit railroad will stop at the Woodland station this afternoon.

The Public Property Committee of Aldermen is considering the plan of building a drill shed near the High School for military drills and other occasions when a large hall is needed. The necessity for such a building is apparent if drills are to be continued through the winter months.

The Newtonville Cricket Club, which had the assistance of Chambers and Hildale, the professionals of the Longwood and Fall River clubs, played the Longwood Club at its grounds on Saturday and was defeated 69 to 63.

Powers' Paragraphs

Hugh Boyd of this city, Assistant District Attorney for Middlesex County, is receiving commendations for his able prosecution of the case against Anthony DiStasio, who was convicted on Tuesday of the heinous murder of Daniel Crowley at Hudson on May 6, 1935. Arraigned against Boyd in the case as counsel for DiStasio was William Scharton, one of the most resourceful criminal lawyers in this State. The jury returned a verdict of guilty after having deliberated only 35 minutes; one of the quickest verdicts in the history of Massachusetts in a case where capital punishment was involved.

The action of a majority of the Supreme Court on Monday in ruling that the New York minimum wage law is illegal will serve to hasten the day when legislation will be passed, either through Congressional action or by a Constitutional amendment which will overcome recent decisions of the Supreme Court nullifying humanitarian laws. The excellent minority report presented by Chief Justice Hughes, who cannot be classed as a radical, stressed the right of legislative bodies to enact laws for the protection of society. Those who place property rights above human rights and who have been profuse in their laudations of those Supreme Court decisions which outlawed laws passed to prevent the exploitation of working women and children will do well to remember that American standards of living will prevail, depression or no depression, and even if the con-juring of Constitutional sacrosanctity must be dispensed.

The other day four young women, one of them a Newtonville resident, were thrown from horses and injured when a smart boy sounded a siren on a bicycle he was riding as he passed the horses. This occurrence calls attention to one type of noise nuisance which should be prohibited.

According to news items in the press on June 1st Miller McClintock, head of the Bureau of Traffic Research at Harvard University, told the Greater Philadelphia Safety Conference on that day that speeding is a small factor in automobile accidents, that the most dangerous speed is between 15 and 25 miles, and that less than 10% of accidents occur at high speeds. He recommended, according to the news despatches, that campaigns devoted to the education of pedestrians and drivers of automobiles to curb speeding of automobiles. Registrar of Motor Vehicles Goodwin at once took issue with McClintock and stated that speeding is the principle cause of automobile accidents. He also was quoted as saying that McClintock had sometime ago made a similar statement out West minimizing the hazard of speeding, and that the traffic expert from Harvard is partial toward automobile manufacturers.

This year the Travelers Insurance Company of Hartford published and distributed a booklet entitled "LIVE AND LET LIVE." The purpose of this booklet was to aid in the campaign for highway safety. Carefully compiled statistics were given. Facts which had been gathered by experts of this outstanding insurance company. These facts showed that last year 31% of the automobile accidents in the United States were caused by speeding, and that 14% of the accidents were caused by cars running off roadways (very likely because of too much speed).

Mr. McClintock, despite the fact that he bears the title of "Doctor," and theoretically, therefore, is quite erudite, won't impress the great majority of persons with his contention regarding speeding. In 1935 in this speedmad U. S. A. 36,100 persons were killed in automobile accidents and 895,280 persons injured. There has been a steady increase each year in the number of automobile casualties. While this increase must be attributed in part to more and more automobiles in use on highways, it can be attributed to a much greater degree to increase in speed of automobiles from year to year. Pedestrians, whether they be children, aged, and infirm people or men and women in the prime of life, can never be educated either by "Doctor" McClintock or anyone else to move with sufficient celerity to escape being run down by autists who drive cars at speeds of 50, 60 and more miles per hour, even through the darkness of nights. In contrast with McClintock's alleged assertion, it is interesting to note that this week Trooper James Hayes of the Mass. State Police was awarded a $1200 scholarship by Harvard to enable him to study at the Harvard Bureau of Traffic Research. He received this award because of a 25 page thesis he wrote on automobile traffic. In this thesis Hayes said: "Speed is the chief cause of automobile accidents."

Before one can legally erect a garage in Newton one must file an application with the Public Buildings Department. Then the applicant must send notices by registered mail to all abutters and to the owners of property across the street. Then the application must be referred to the Board of Aldermen and be investigated by the License Committee of the Board. Strict requirements as to location on lots, proximity to other buildings and safeguards against fire must be met. If the Aldermen act favorably on the application the Public Buildings Department can issue a permit for the erection of the garage. Most persons who have erected garages in this city have conformed to the specified requirements. Many have had to change their plans and go to extra expense before receiving a permit. Others have been refused permits. In view of these facts why should anyone be allowed to ignore the rules and build a garage in Newton without having first obeyed the regulations and legally obtained a permit. A number of such cases have occurred in this city in the past. Instead of the offenders being haled into court, or forced to raise the illegally constructed garages, they have been permitted to subsequently apply for permits. The latest case of this type is a garage erected at Newton Centre by a man who because he has held public office in this city, cannot reasonably plead ignorance of the law.

It's June All Right

When it's June I think of roses,
Moonlight walks and sweet romance,
Wedding bells and orange blossoms,
Joyous thoughts our lives enhance.

When it's June I think of school days,
Boys and girls who say goodbye
To the books they need no longer—
So they think, I don't know why.

When it's June I think of poison,
Magnesium arsenate mixed in jugs
With the right amount of water,
Sprayed with care to kill the bugs.

When it's June come class reunions,
Grads in autos, trains and planes,
Noisy greetings, banquets, ball games,
Gaudy hatbands, blazers, canes.

When it's June they call conventions,
Scrap all night, no thought of bed,
Talk, tobacco-smoke and trading,
Finally choose a party head.

Not Wanted

It may sound snobbish and yet it is the truth that Newton is happily free from certain problems that beset many other cities. This came forcibly to mind Memorial Day when I was not only in our own but in certain neighboring municipalities and had an opportunity to compare conditions. Such a sacred anniversary should be free from exploitation and yet in places other than Newton I witnessed things that aroused my indignation. Legal enough, I suppose, but extremely inappropriate and in bad taste to sell articles in streets as if it were some jubilant holiday celebration. In Boston it was frowned upon emphatically and ambitiously sidewalk vendors were considerably restrained. I was glad to see the capital city of our State start the movement. I hope other cities will join in prohibiting the activities of those who would make trading posts of cemetery gates.

Just My Luck

It stands to reason that whatever I have said or may have to say about the Boston Elevated, the management thereof would never strive to get back at me except in an open and above-board fashion, if at all. What happened to me last week did not represent the sweet revenge of any individual or group. Nevertheless, if they learn of it, I doubt if they display grief. I had a business card in my pocket of Boston served by the elevated structure and for several blocks I was underneath the great steel trestle. I can't say how many minutes the trains roared above my head but long enough to have a quantity of lubricating oil drop on my nice new hat and light overcoat. It made a messy experience even if the cleaner's bill was moderate. Possibly it was a warning to keep my mouth shut not only while under the elevated but at all other times.

Keeping Up To Date

Seldom if ever is anybody heard to express a desire to preserve, much less display a sentimental attachment for an out-of-date telephone directory. For that reason no protest is offered and no regret heard when the telephone company's employees ask you for your old copy in exchange for a new one. I have often wondered what earthly use these old books were to the company and if they represented any value. I even went to the trouble of trying to figure out if the diligent rounding-up and subsequent handling, which always takes place when a new copy of the directory is issued and which must constitute an expense, produces a worth while profit. Last week my worries were ended. Seems the company doesn't want the old books in circulation for fear somebody may get hold of one and demand a number contained therein. Means trouble both for subscribers and operators and makes nobody happy. I think the company has the right idea and am willing to acknowledge a moral. Changes are as important to subscribers as to the company and they should co-operate.

You're apt to look upon an amateur gardener as optimistic, patient and philosophical. I don't know what to call a friend I joined as we walked through his small orchard. He paused at one of the flourishing fruit trees and I asked, "What are you doing there?" He smiled and replied, "Just counting the peaches I know are going to drop off pretty soon."

NEWTON TWI LEAGUE

Teams of both circuits with the exception of the Ramblers and the Nonantum Boys' Club got underway this week. The inability of the Nonantum Boys' Club manager to get resident players has resulted in their withdrawal from the League leaving only five teams in the new circuit.

The Cubs have been outstanding in the older group defeating Garden City Club and the West Newton Giants although the second game will be recorded as a loss due to the violation of the late starting rule.

Garden City is the only upper circuit team to lose both games and will probably be placed in the lower circuit if they fail to win during the second week.

The Ramblers, composed of the "tick" of last year's Aces and the Silver Lake team, are in line to move to the older circuit.

The Cabot Associates, a combination of old men and boys, dominated the Junior group with two wins and lead all teams in both leagues in home runs—with six.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

ENOCH'S TEAM WINS 9TH STRAIGHT MEET

Newton High's great track team won their ninth consecutive championship in interscholastic competition last Saturday by a blazing 52-point victory in the Amherst College interscholastic games. Rising to peak performances in several events, the Newton boys were winners in seven of the fourteen events listed, and failed to score points only in the javelin and hammer throw. Don Enoch's talented athletes so completely dominated the situation that Westminster School, the runner-up, scored only 29½ points.

Warren Wittens closed a brilliant high school career by winning both his favorite events, the broad jump and the hurdles. His time in the 220-yard low hurdles, 24.7, not only set a new record for the meet, breaking the record Wittens made there last year, but it was one of the fastest marks made in the East in the event last week. In the 880-yard relay, the same Wittens ran the anchor leg on the winning Newton four, which made a new record of 1m 33.7s.

Heard Also a Double Winner

Nathaniel Heard was another double winner for Newton, who put the 12-lb. shot 50 ft. 8 in., and scaled the discus 119 ft. 8 in. Paul Forte closed his first brilliant season on the cinders with a cool 10-second victory in the 100-yard dash, making the fourth consecutive blue ribbon for Paul in interscholastic open meets.

In the high jump, Mark Messier, a sophomore, won a surprise victory at 5 ft. 6 in. Paul Dussossoi ran second to Weedon Loomis in the 120-yard high hurdles, and James "Mike" Regan placed second to Trudeau of Westminster in the mile, won in 4:39.2. Elmer Ross did a lot of running for his two points, placing fifth in the fast 440 and 880 finishes, and Mike Regan also doubled, landing fourth in the high jump. A Newtonian unplaced in earlier meets came through when Kelly ran fourth in the 880-yard run.

Johnson Quick, post-graduate student at Newton High and an active middle-distance runner, manages to keep up his interest in running pretty well. During the Harvard interscholastics, he had to be carefully detained at the start of the prep school mile, an event for which he had made every preparation except getting a number pinned to his jersey. And now it seems the A. A. U. wants to take away the handsome trophy Johnny got for his fourth place in the Norfolk novice 3-mile run on Patriots Day. They insist that he was no novice.

Newton High has a last fling at track in the Fitchburg Relay Carnival, which is to be held tomorrow at Brookline High field. The meet was moved from its home field after floods washed out part of the track. Although it comes decidedly as an anti-climax at the end of their long string of interscholastic triumphs, it will be surprising if Newton does not win again, considering their excellent showing in the so-called Eastern Seaboard relays last winter.

Warren Wittens, due to graduate tomorrow night in the Dickinson Stadium exercises, holds the Newton High records in the low hurdles at 45 and 30 yards indoors, 130 and 220 yards outdoors, the 300-yard run indoors, and the running broad jump.

Milton Green, former Newton High track captain, ran his last races for Harvard in the ICA games at Philadelphia last week. Although handicapped by a bandaged right leg, Milt was still a valuable captain for the Crimson, running second to Dartmouth's Donovan in the high hurdles and winning the broad jump with the fine distance of 24 ft. 9½ in. Incidentally, his friend Stan Johnson, also once captain at Newton, was runner-up in the broad jump at 24 ft. even, which certainly speaks well for Don Enoch's ability to turn out jumpers with seven-league boots. Green and Johnson will be almost sure to compete in the Olympic trials at Randall's Island stadium in New York next month.

OUR LADY'S ALUMNI BASEBALL TEAM

Our Lady's Alumni Baseball team, recently organized, and composed entirely of former O. L. H. S. ball players, plan to make its competitors in the Newton Twilight League sit up and take notice. Under the management of Jim "Porky" Murphy, ex-Villanova Star and Russell "Nails" Lane, former B. C. centerfielder, who is acting as Coach, this outfit may well go far in the process of completion, and has a gala array of college and high school stars in its ranks. Among those who have made impressive records are: Charlie Gallagher, Providence College; Leo Cannon and Bill O'Connell, Holy Cross; Tony Lombardi, Joe Herlihy and Jim "Gully" Manning, all of B. C.; Nick Chianano, Catholic; George; Clovis Choquette, All-Catholic Pitcher; Jim Moran also former All-Catholic pitcher; Ed Gallagher; Joe McCarthy, Wally Watkins, semi-pro star; and Len Cummings, All-Catholic catcher, 1931 and 1932.

Two games have been played to date, the Alumni losing to the Newton Y. M. C. A. 6-4, but defeating the Garden City A. C. decisively 12-7. On Wednesday evening, June 10th, at Clafin Field, Newtonville, they will stack up against the fast Newton Independents, coached by "Jeff" Jones, Newton High Coach and ex Big League. On Friday, June 12th, the Alumni will meet the Newton Cubs at Cabot Park. The Newton Cubs are a fast team composed mainly of Newton High 1936 players. All games start at 8 P. M. Further schedule announcements will be made shortly.

MRS. WHITEMORE WINS STATE GOLF LAURELS

Mrs. Brad Whittemore of Brae Burn last Friday won the state women's golf championship at the Salem Country Club, defeating Priscilla Dennett of the Country Club by 5 and 4. The former Dorothy Hunter, at 22, is one of the youngest players ever to win the title. She is a graduate of Newton High School and of Boston University, formerly women's golf champion of Hawaii, and the only player rated at scratch in the W. G. A. M. handicap list.

In their meeting for the championship, Mrs. Whittemore was playing a rival her own age who had twice beaten her this season. Discarding the conventional caution of championship play, the two girls led a large gallery briskly through the fourteen holes of their match in a little over an hour and a half.

Two Under Par

Mrs. Whittemore lost the first and third holes, but squared the match on the fifth and was never in danger thereafter. Beginning with the eighth hole, she had a string of par and sub-par holes that brought the match to a finish at the fourteenth. She was two under par for the last six holes of the match.

The new champion had a birdie three on the ninth when she dropped a 12-foot putt, and another birdie with a four at the tenth. Then taking advantage of her rival's uncertain putting, she went five up on the twelfth. Miss Dennett conceded the match on the fourteenth green, when Mrs. Whittemore's ball lay within inches of the cup for a sure four.

Mrs. Whittemore and her opponent were among the seventeen women named to the Gracem Cup team, who will meet invading teams from New York and Philadelphia at Winchester Country Club June 12-13.

Roy Merchant, Newton High School golf captain, was third best man in the New England interscholastic golf championship last Friday at Blue Hill C. C. Roy posted rounds of 79 and 81 for a 36-hole total of 160, which included a pair of sevens, the first hole in the morning round and team, who will meet invading teams from New York and Philadelphia at Winchester Country Club June 12-13.

INDEPENDENTS LEAD IN TWIN-COUNTY LEAGUE

SCORES OF THE WEEK

Independents 3, Wellesley T. T. 2.
*Independents 5, Newton Y. M. C. A. 3.
Independents 19, Needham 6.

*Newton Twi-League.

Jeff Jones, Newton Independents, are setting a hot pace for the other teams in the Twin-County League, having dropped only one game in their first seven. On Wednesday and Thursday of next week they will play at the high school field, Newtonville, meeting the Bemis Cardinals of the Twin-County League on Thursday and filling their Newton League engagement Wednesday. All games are free to the public, and begin at six p. m.

Bev Wilson continues to pitch good ball for the Independents. Tuesday evening he allowed the Wellesley T. T. Team only four hits in seven innings, while his teammates took an early-inning lead to win the game and take over the league lead. Penny DeMille singled, stole second and tallied on Pete Morrison's hit. In the second inning Howard Ferguson's three-bagger scored Phil Green, who had singled, and John Marrazzo scored Ferguson on a squeeze play with the winning run.

Needham took a four-run lead over the Jonesmen last night, but a big sixth inning saw the lead reversed. Howard Ferguson singled and rode in on Phil Green's home run in the first inning. In the second, Phil Andres reached on an error, advanced on Pete Morrison's single and came home on Marrazzo's sacrifice fly. In the sixth Dyer doubled, Ferguson, Green and Berry singled, Jones fled out. DeMille, Andres and Marrazzo singled in order for a total of six runs in one inning. Brad Dyer had two doubles and Phil Green a home run and a single.

Newton Man Has Fingers Crushed

Francis E. Frost, 31, of 152 East Side Parkway, Newton, employed as a gardener by the city had three fingers on his right hand badly crushed by a Boston & Albany train this morning. Frost was observed walking along Washington st. near Richardson st. by a neighbor, John McHugh of 27 Clarendon st., about 12:45 a. m. bleeding from the injury to his hand. McHugh assisted Frost to the quarters of Elm 1 at Washington st. and Centre ave. From there the injured man was taken to Newton Hospital in the police ambulance.

Backing Auto Breaks Man's Leg

Roy Schwenzel of 44 Kittredge st., Boston, had his left leg fractured Wednesday afternoon about 5 when a car driven by Francis McNeil of 8 Prospect st., West Newton backed into him. Schwenzel was kneeling on the ground inflating a tire on his car when the accident occurred. He was taken to Newton Hospital.

Aldermen Meet

A regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held on Monday night. In the absence of President Floyd, Vice-President Hill presided. Others absent were Aldermen Bowen, Cronin and Hutchinson. Alderman Brocklesby informed the Board that Alderman Cronin was confined to his home by illness.

The first business on the docket were hearings on the petitions of the Edison Co. for pole locations on Tudor ter, Auburndale, Melrose Brothers for a permit to conduct a garage repair shop at 255 Auburn st., and William J. Gibson for a permit to increase the storage capacity at the gasoline station, 2056 Commonwealth ave., by 2000 gallons, and to install an additional pump there. No opposition developed against these petitions and all were granted.

James H. Cronin of 61 Sheridan st., West Newton, was given a hearing on his petition for a permit to establish a gasoline filling station at 1229 Washington st., West Newton. He said he is a life-long resident of this city and intends to operate the station with his brother, William Cronin, well-known professional ball player. Cronin told the Aldermen that he proposes to erect a Priggen steel building which will be attractive, not detrimental to the neighborhood, and which will cause no hazard. He gave a list of names of persons owning properties in the vicinity who favor his petition.

Walter Hartstone of Newton Centre, appearing as attorney for Edward Bean, owner of abutting property, objected to the petition. Hartstone argued that there are eight gas stations within a quarter of a mile of the locus, and four within a stone's throw. He said that because of lack of business his client has had to reduce the rental of his property occupied by the filling station by 50 per cent. According to Hartstone another filling station alongside that on Bean's property would cause a hazard. He read a letter from Louis Bachrach objecting to Cronin's petition. Bachrach is one of the owners of property at Chestnut and Washington sts. where another gasoline station is located. Frederick Potter, owner of the West Newton Motor Mat at 1203 Washington st. also objected to the Cronin petition because of economic reasons. He said a tenant had to vacate the building because of lack of business, and he must pay heavy taxes on it.

G. Henry Dath of Newton who operates the Atlantic Gas Company Filling Station on Bean's property at 1235 Washington st. objected to Cronin's petition. Dath said he is not doing enough business now to make a living, and there is already too much competition with his station within the city's throw of another. He reminded the Aldermen that they had recently refused a permit for a gasoline station at the corner of Washington and Cross sts. In rebuttal Cronin argued that none of the nearby stations have an inside lubricatorium, and with this facility he knows he and his brother would do twice as much business as the other gasoline stations. The petition was referred to the Licenses Committee.

Philip C. Scott as attorney for the Paul estate asked the Aldermen to act favorably on a petition to discontinue a portion of Browning rd. Newton Centre from Oxford rd. to the Weeks School playground. He explained that the land where Browning rd. is located was deeded to the city by Luther Paul in 1894 in conjunction with the then planned development of the Paul farm. The road was to have run to Clark st. but when the city purchased the Paul property several years ago as the site of the Weeks School, the playground was laid out where it had been planned to build part of Browning rd. Scott explained that the city would retain title to 20 feet of the land in question as an easement and appurtenant to the playground. Most of the strip which the city is asked to relinquish to the Paul estate, 110 feet in length, and 30 feet wide, would be given Mrs. Daisy Coss of 71 Oxford rd., owner of abutting property, and whose garage is now on city owned land. Irving Paul concurred with Mr. Scott in asking for the gift of the land by the city to its former owners.

Appropriations made by the Aldermen included—$5800 for furnishings for the new Oak Hill School; $2000 for furnishings for the Angier School addition; $3720 for water mains in Adams and other streets; $680 for wood-working machinery for the Trade School; $320 for a stereotype outfit for the Trade School. Alderman Temperley voted against the last item. He said that while theoretically boys who will be trained at the Trade School can take their places in big newspaper plants as qualified to do stereotyping work, in reality whatever equipment can be purchased for $320 will be so inadequate, that the students will receive no practical training from it. He also said there will be danger of the boys receiving burns. He argued that the plan to train the students on the limited equipment is merely an experiment.

The Board rejected the application of Moses Berger of Chelsea for a license to sell second-hand clothing in Newton. Alderman Colby said no such license has ever been granted in this city. A petition was received from the Newton Centre Business Men's Association protesting against changing land along the turnpike from residence to business zones.

Car Hits Bus At West Newton

A car driven by Bertha Potter of 704 Centre st., Newton collided Friday evening about 8 at Washington and Elm sts., West Newton, with a car driven by Mildred Gay at 38 White Oak ave., Waban. Mrs. Potter's car then swerved across the street and hit a Middlesex & Boston bus which had stopped to take on passengers. Mrs. Potter received injuries to her head and legs and was taken to the Newton Hospital for treatment.

Many Speeders in Newton Court

Newton police summoned many autoists into court for speeding the past week. Most of those arraigned paid $5 fines but a number were treated with leniency and their cases filed. In court on Tuesday the case of Bernice Campbell of 188 Chestnut st., Waltham, was filed. So was that of Vincent Hayes, also of Waltham. In court on Wednesday Judge Allen fined Vincent Pugliallo of 229 River st., West Newton; Thomas Hunter, Wigglesworth House, Cambridge; Carleton Prince, Arlington; Harry Freedman, 71 Tolman st., West Newton, $5 each. Pugliallo and Freedman's fines were suspended. The judge filed charges for speeding against Douglas Kitchell, Lowell House, Cambridge, and Vera Van Nes Czetwertynski, 51 Brattle st., Cambridge. He fined Sidney Strickland of Brookline $5 for speeding and $3 for driving past a red traffic signal.

In court on Wednesday Judge Quinn ordered issuance of complaints for driving so as to endanger lives and safety against Benjamin Schaffer of Lynn. Schaffer was the driver of a car which on May 18 went out of control on the turnpike, swerved across the dividing line and caused collisions between several cars.

In court yesterday Judge Allen fined Martha Guild, Needham; Saul Hurvitz, Dorchester; Paul McDonald, Dorchester; Edgar Parsons, Natick, $5 each for speeding. He filed similar charges against Allen Sherman, Carleton st., Newton; Harold Drew, Saxon rd., Newton Highlands; Millard Hurd, Wellesley; Guilli Miller, Cambridge. Myron Liegass, 288 Cabot st., Newtonville, was fined $3 for not stopping before entering a through way. On a similar charge William Martell of Pond st., Watertown, the case was placed on file.

Pay $5 Fines For Disturbing Peace

John Holden of 31 Middle st., Newton, and Thomas Holden, of the same address, each was fined $5 in the Newton court on Monday for disturbing the peace. They were arrested in front of their home about midnight Saturday by Patrolmen Murphy, Smith, Goddard and O'Donnell.

John Boyle O'Reilly Literary Association

The John Boyle O'Reilly Literary Association had a memorial mass for deceased members at St. Bernard's Church, West Newton, on Memorial Day morning. The celebrant of the mass was Rev. Joseph H. Casey, pastor of the church. Arrangements for the memorial service were in charge of Timothy J. O'Connell of West Newton, for the past 19 years president of the organization. Among those present was Edward J. Burke of Richmond rd., Newton, the only surviving charter member. The John Boyle O'Reilly Association was formed in Newton 40 years ago to aid in the struggle for the freedom of Ireland, and its members contributed liberally to that cause.

75th Anniversary Of North Church Sunday School

The North Church Sunday School, which is celebrating its 75th anniversary, and out of which developed the North Congregational Church, was the fruitage of the thought and effort of Samuel E. Lowry, a young man born in Raffrey, Ireland, in 1840, who came to the States and settled in Newton in the latter part of the fifties.

His knowledge of the Bible and his earnest desire to guide young folks spiritually led him to gather about him on the platform of the old railroad station at Bemis on June 2, 1861, an interesting group of children.

Mr. Lowry, with his friend, Henry Breck, and one Stafford, held several services of the school on succeeding Sundays out of doors, later moving to the kitchen of Mrs. Ritchie's farm house on the hill across the road, and thence to a small wooden chapel on the site of the present North Church, the land having been donated by Thomas Dalby, owner of the Nonantum Mills, and funds for the erection of which were donated largely by friends in Eliot Church of which Mr. Lowry was a member.

This was burned in 1872 and the present structure dedicated in 1873.

The church was organized five years after the Sunday School and Mr. Lowry, who had studied under the direction of Dr. Welman, pastor of Eliot Church, was licensed to preach, became its first pastor and continued as such until his death in 1884 in Belfast, Ireland, near his old home town, whither he had gone on a vacation trip for the benefit of his health.

Mr. Lowry's wife and sons returned to Newton and have had a vital part ever since in carrying on the work so well begun—William E. Lowry having been Superintendent of the Sunday School almost continuously for 36 years.

The influence of that Sunday School founded just after the opening of the Civil War has travelled far and wide. One pupil, Thomas Scotton, studied in the ministry and served as a Home Missionary under the Presbyterian Board, and has organized over 250 Sunday Schools in the West out of which have developed nearly 150 churches.

The law, medicine, the ministry, teaching, in fact almost every trade and calling in life have attracted those who have been trained in that Sunday School and who in turn have given themselves in service to others in the true spirit of the founder, who now rests from his labors but whose works follow him.

The anniversary program on Sunday, June 7th, will include an anniversary sermon at 10:45 a. m., by Rev. Nathan R. Wood, President of Gordon College, and exercises at 12 noon by the Sunday School. The evening section of the program will start at 7:30. Rev. Ray A. Eusden will bring greetings from Eliot Church; Rev. Henry E. Oxnard of Southbridge, a former pastor of the church, will address the gathering, and Mayor Edwin O. Childs for many years an active worker at the church, will talk on the early days of the Sunday School.

Day Jr. High School

Members of all the ninth grade social studies classes were fundamentally responsible for the Memorial Day assembly on Friday because they had written down exceedingly provocative questions for the speaker of the day, Mr. Elmer Ellsworth, to answer. Those submitting the questions, which had to do largely with the causes of war and the means of preserving peace, represented all the ninth grade classes. They were: June Nesbitt, Phyllis Petrie, Howard Thomas and Jack Holter. John Fairfield was chairman of the assembly. Mr. F. Tanner led the band in commemorative music and the school in group singing. At the end of the exercises Daniel Needham played taps on his cornet, with Vernon Nateson providing the echo. It was a moving close to a meaningful and worthwhile Memorial Day ceremony.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Manning took members of her home room on a tour of Boston. A special bus was chartered. Among buildings visited were the Museum of Natural History, the Story House, the Aquarium, and the Christian Science building. Each week we have been printing lists of names of those students taking a prominent part in the Day Spring Festival which was held Thursday evening. This week we take especial pleasure in printing the names of our successful orchestra, which is under the leadership of Mr. F. Tanner. The members of the orchestra are: Gilbert Calvagno, leader; Miriam Cronan, Blanche Kennedy, Gloria Finelli, Elizabeth Sherman, Virginia Kyle, John Kelley, George Piccirillo, Caroline Battista, Haig Nargisian, Arthur Hughes, Daniel Needham, Herbert Packard, Dominic Antonellis, Hannah Sherman, Marilyn Pickett, Winifred Mergandahl, Donald Abbott, Philip Birmingham, Daniel DeRubeis, Katherine Williams, Curtis Dewey, Edmund Miller, Vernon Mattson, Joe Mascia and Paul Harri-man.

On Friday and Saturday, June 5 and 6, the Fourth Annual Junior High School Tennis Tournament will be held at the High School Courts. The four junior high schools will participate under the direction of Mr. Walter Taylor. Each school will send a team of four boys. Day, last year's winner, will be represented by Albert Everts, Ernest Johnson, Philip Scanlon, and either Edward Saunier or William Harber.

Bigelow Junior H. S.

Rev. Ray Eusden was the speaker at the assembly May 28, which was devoted to the observance of Memorial Day. Genevieve Hansen was the student chairman; George Mathewson read the proclamation for Memorial Day; Margaret Dwight and Mary L. Underwood gave poems, and Leon Kruger recited the Gettysburg Address.

The ninth grade is planning its annual trip to Provincetown for Thursday, June 11th. Pupils will leave the school by bus which will take them to the boat.

Girls from all the junior high schools of the city met at the Bus Playground Wednesday for the annual Play Day. Color teams representing all schools played baseball, volleyball, soccer ball and tennis. Rain forced the players inside where they played volleyball.

The faculty won the baseball series with the varsity team. A tennis match between faculty and students is now being planned.

Room 207 entertained the seventh grade home rooms at a special assembly last Friday. Richard Davenport, Stanley Myers, Herbert Smith, and Richard Bolin presented a skit. Randall Brownrigg played a piano selection, and Herbert Smith conducted a riddle program.

Our Lady H. S.

Assembly
On Friday, May 29, the High and Grammar School classes of Our Lady's assembled in the auditorium to observe Memorial Day.

The program consisted of the reading of essays by Leo Riley, Edmund Rogers and Elizabeth McCarthy, an address by Mr. Julius Ramm of the American Legion and the presenting of the award in the American Legion Essay contest to Miss Margaret McDade of the class of 1936 with Edward Callahan of the class of 1937 receiving honorable mention, the program ending with the salute to the Flag and the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner."

During the assembly, Mr. Leo Norton, acting as proxy for Mr. James Patrick, president of the Class of 1935, presented to the High School, a metal dictionary stand and four Bibles, the gift of the class of 1935. Mr. Paul O'Brien, president of the class of 1936, accepted the gift in the name of the school.

Scholarship Award

Miss Margaret McDade, of the Class of 1936, has been awarded a four year scholarship to Regis College, Weston, for the highest scholastic standing in the senior class. Miss McDade has led her class during her high school years and has been outstanding in her oratorical and literary endeavors. She was awarded the first prize in the annual Fiac Essay Contest and has been made Valedictorian of the senior class.

Our Lady's Graduation

On Sunday, June 7th, the graduates of Our Lady's High and Grammar Schools will receive Holy Communion, in a body, at the nine o'clock mass. In the evening, the graduation exercises will be held in the high school auditorium. The Salutatory will be delivered by Leo H. Riley; the Prize Essay, by Gail Neffinger; the Valedictory by Margaret K. McDade. Diplomas will be conferred by the Pastor, Rev. John A. Sheridan. The address to the graduates will be given by the Rev. Richard J. Quinlan, S.T.L., Diocesan Supervisor of Schools. Several musical selections, including the chorals, Geibel's "Summer Roses" and Behr's "Au Revoir" will be rendered by the students, with Our Lady's orchestra accompanying.

On Wednesday, June 10, Class Day Exercises will be held. During the evening banquet in the high school auditorium, the class will be read by Mr. John Fitzgerald; the history by Miss Margaret Gogan; and the prophecy by Miss Irma Stubbart. Mr. Joseph O'Grady will preside as toastmaster.

The officers of the Class of 1936 are: Mr. Paul O'Brien, president; Miss Mary McNamara, vice-president; Miss Margaret Magee, secretary; and Mr. Russell Harney, treasurer.

Weeks Jr. High

Thirty-eight boys from Weeks, representing a team for each grade, took part in the junior high school trade meet held at the Newton High School stadium on Tuesday, May 26. In the ninth grade meet, Weeks placed second; in the eighth grade, third; and in the seventh, first. In total number of points, Weeks placed first with 38½; Day, second with 26½; and Warren and Bigelow tied with 23 points each.

On Wednesday, May 27, thirty-three girls from Weeks went over to the Bigelow School to take part in the "Play Day."

The intramural activities are rapidly coming to a close with the grade championships being decided in the various sports. In tennis, Room 212, as previously announced, won the seventh grade championship; Room 307 won the eighth; and 213, the ninth. In boys' baseball, Room 213 added another title for the ninth grade. The eighth grade girls' baseball honors were taken by Room 313.

Coach MacConnell reports that "one of the finest baseball games in the Weeks' School athletic history" was played by our boys at the Warren School on Thursday, May 28. The field leadership of Tersino DeEugenio and the outstanding four-hit pitching of Tom Burkhard were particularly commended. Weeks won the game 6 to 1, while the Junior Varsity also came through with a 14 to 3 victory.

On Wednesday, May 27, several pupils of the Publications Club journeyed to Cambridge to visit the Barta Press and The Ginn Publishing Company. Through the courtesy of Mr. Ralph Greiner of Newton Highlands, the creative work and the processes in connection with catalogue and circular printing were explained. As time was short, the only phase of the work at the Athenaeum Press, Ginn and Company, that was observed was the book binding. Those making the trip included Dick Warren, Victor Leber, Frances Anzino, Frances Morgan, Mary Healey, Nancy Favorite, Diana Voss, Cynthia Voss, Betty Keesler, and Reldun Bockman. They were accompanied by Mrs. Favorite and Mr. Peterson.

At the May 29th assembly, held in observance of Memorial Day, Arnold Toftas, who presided, led the school in the Flag Salute and the Star-Spangled Banner, following which he introduced Mr. Murray of the Weeks faculty as a veteran of the World War. Mr. Murray in turn introduced the Honorable Edwin O. Childs, Mayor of Newton, who spoke on "The Meaning of Memorial Day." In his talk, Mayor Childs made a plea for the reverent observation of the day for universal peace, and for loyalty to the home, school, church, and government. The program was concluded by singing of patriotic songs, a recitation by Shirley Green, and the playing of Taps, effectively staged, by Jane Hickox.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"God the Only Cause and Creator" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 7.

The Golden Text is: "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth" (Psalms 121:1, 2).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "But now thus saith the Lord that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. . . I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth; Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him" (Isaiah 43:1, 6, 7).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is the creator of man, and the divine Principle of man remaining perfect, the divine idea or reflection, man, remains perfect. Man is the expression of God's being" (p. 470).

Mrs. Fulton Makes Claim Against City

Mrs. Marcia Fulton of 13 Chesley ave., Newtonville, widow of Graham Fulton, has filed a claim against the City of Newton because of the electrocution of her husband on February 21. Her claim charges that her husband's death was caused by negligence of the city or its agents or servants in allowing a dangerous condition to exist of which he had not been informed. Fulton was working on a pole near the skating area at Crystal Lake repairing a flood light, when he came in contact with a live wire. Mrs. Fulton's claim states:

"I understand that the pole on which this light was placed and the wires leading to it belong to the City of Newton and in addition to the low voltage wires on the pole there were certain other wires on it which, although supposed to be 'dead,' were, in fact, carrying a high tension current."

"Heck" and "Gosh." Swear Words

Since gosh and heck are euphemistic forms of God and hell, they may be regarded as "swear words." Usage, however, has taken the sting out of them, and they are often used when a person's emotions are not strong enough to prompt the use of profanity.

Commencement
At Hospital
Nurses School

Commencement festivities were ushered in by a picnic at Camp Resolute in Bolton, Massachusetts, on Friday, May 29, at which the graduating class were guests of the Alumnae Association of the Newton Hospital School of Nursing. Water sports followed by a bounteous picnic supper were enjoyed to the utmost.

On Sunday, May 31, at 8:30 p. m., the Senior Class, together with friends and relatives gathered in the Nurses Home for the Baccalaureate Service. The Reverend Randolph Merrill of the Central Congregational Church, Newtonville, was the guest speaker. The student chorus under the direction of Dr. Ralph MacLean sang several selections including Gounod's Lovely Appearance.

Graduation Exercises were held June 4, at 4 o'clock in a large tent on the hospital grounds. The tent was beautifully decorated with flowers sent in by friends of the class. Dr. Alfred E. Stearns, Emeritus of the Andover Academy, delivered the address and the Invocation was given by the Reverend Harold E. Hallett of The Church of the Messiah, Auburndale.

The Diplomas were conferred by Mr. Herbert M. Cole, President of the Board of Trustees, and the School Pins were presented by Grace M. Russell, R. N., Acting Principal of the School of Nursing, to the following nurses:

Freda R. Barrett, Newtonville, Mass.; Claire Bergeron, Rochester, New Hampshire; Genevieve Blancy, Peabody, Mass.; Beatrice E. Eastman, Brighton, Mass.; Margaret E. Fuller, Nova Scotia; Barbara C. Hall, Wellesley, Mass.; Alice Barbara Hardy, Newtonville, Mass.; Shirley Inez Keet, Claremont, New Hampshire; Janet Kendall, Newton Centre, Mass.; Elizabeth Ann Lane, Springfield, Mass.; Norma Larson, West Newton, Mass.; Marion E. Mortagne, Cambridge, Mass.; Esther L. Nelson, Braintree, Mass.; Helen Ricketson, Waltham, Mass.; Ruth Regena Robinson, South Natick, Mass.; Ellen A. Seavey, Portland, Maine; Charlotte M. Stearns, Newton, Mass.; Mary E. Thatcher, Gardner, Mass.

The Scholarships given by the Newton Hospital Aid Association to the Nurses who have shown the greatest improvement in theory and practice were awarded by Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson, President of the Association.

The Senior Formal Dance was held at Woodland Golf Club on Thursday evening.

Mr. Cole in addressing the graduating class gave a history of the hospital saying in part:

On June 12, 1886 a Mrs. C. P. Powell was admitted as the first patient of what was then known as the Newton Cottage Hospital, a small 15-room wooden building on our present location. Four weeks later, the doctor's record which he inscribed in longhand in a book kept for that purpose, noted that on the following July 12 she was "discharged, cured." Incorporation of the hospital was on January 11, 1881, or five years earlier. It required the intervening period, devoted to publicity and education, to sell the hospital idea to our citizens. Finally, twenty pledges of $500 each were secured with which to start the new project on its way. From June 12, 1886 to the end of that year the patients paid for their care $394, the cost of this service was five times that amount and the resulting deficit was $1495.

How we have since expanded is seen in the $295,000 of gross receipts in 1935, operating expenses of $369,000, and a deficit of $74,000, which latter item is of course practically extinguished by income from our annual fund of $650,000, gifts from miscellaneous sources including the people of Wellesley (our junior partners since 1930), and most important of all, the Community Chest.

In the fifty years of service to the sick and suffering, the hospital has received $1,615,000 for the care of patients. The cost of this service was $2,167,000, with the result that we have been compelled yearly to ask our citizens for contributions to meet deficits which in fifty years have aggregated $550,000. Stated differently, well over a half million dollars of free hospitalization has been given to our people in this period of time. Included in these figures is the cost of operating the out-patient department which, with its thirteen clinics, serves those of very limited means who cannot afford a physician and who pay only a nominal sum, for the service given. In the twenty-five years during which this department has operated, the visits it has totaled 137,432, and the visits in 1935 exceeded 15,900.

In 1888 our School of Nurses was organized, and its record constitutes one of the brilliant achievements of the Institution. We have fitted no less than 331 young women to be self-supporting nurses, a profession honored everywhere. Several of our graduates have held the office of President of the Massachusetts State Nurses Association, which has held the high office of President of the New England Hospital Association. Three years ago the State Association of Nurses of Vermont, Maine and Massachusetts, had a Newton nurse as President. Eighty-seven of our graduates served in the World War. In 31 states they are now carrying on over 80 are engaged in service in Canada, England, India, British West Indies and Africa.

It is of interest to note that after the War, Czechoslovakia appealed to the Red Cross for nurses to found a school of nursing in one of the large hospitals in Prague. A Newton nurse, May Lentell, was chosen as one of the two sent. Previous to the entry of the United States into the War, she went across with the first Harvard Unit. When it disbanded she remained abroad at the request of the Queen of Belgium by whom she was decorated.

The much beloved Mary M. Riddle, whose fame spread far and wide, came to us as hospital superintendent and superintendent of nurses in 1904 and served in that dual capacity for 17 years. Miss Bertha W. Allen, our present superintendent, who has given abundant proof of her high qualifications for the position and who at one time served also as Superintendent of Nurses, followed Miss Riddle and has been with us ever since.

Over 100,000, or to be exact, 100,759 patients, have been admitted during the half century and as evidence of the activities of the maternity department it may be added that in this period 13,233 babies have first voiced their howls of approval in the Newton Hospital. To carry the statistical record a bit further over 90% of the babies born in Newton last year chose our hospital as their birthplace.

Of the original medical staff of 20 men, two—Dr. F. E. Porter and Dr. W. O. Hunt—are still living and in contact with the hospital not infrequently. In the 50 years under review 172 doctors have served on the medical and surgical staff. In 1906 our staff of doctors numbered 29; today it numbers 82. The worth of their service skillfully given to uncounted thousands of our patients, and without monetary compensation, cannot be measured in other than words of highest praise.

We also must not ignore reference to those who in the earlier, pioneering days contributed generously of time and money to lay the foundations of our institution. The name of Bray of course comes immediately to mind and among other names which stand out prominently are: Converse, Day, Dennison, Eldredge, Emerson, George, Haskell, Leeson, Pratt, Stanley. A dozen others could be mentioned but space forbids.

There must be no omission of reference even in this very brief sketch to the Hospital Aid Association, composed of a group of Newton women untiring in their devotion to the hospital and through whose efforts over these many years no less than $75,000 has been from time to time provided for equipment of every nature and description.

The cordial and sympathetic attitude of the Community Chest of which the Hospital has been a charter member since organization in 1932 must also be mentioned. Something over 35% of the funds raised by the Chest is allocated to the Newton Hospital. Thus we are relieved of financial anxiety. The Chest, through your contributions, is doing a great job for us and other social agencies in our City, and we desire to pay grateful tribute to it.

Thirty years ago resort to hospital treatment was only in case of extreme emergency. In our 1906 report occurs the following:

"One mission of the Newton Hospital has been to prepare the way for the small hospitals in towns and cities and to popularize hospital treatment by removing old prejudices and by showing the admirable results of such treatment. About 90% of the 10,354 patients admitted to the institution during the 20 years of its existence have been discharged as cured or improved. The percentage might have been still larger had not people been kept away from the hospital until diseases had gone too far to be treated, and accident cases rendered more difficult by delay."

Just as a matter of contrast, between then and now: Our first ambulance was the gift of Mrs. Elizabeth Eldredge in 1890. It was horse drawn and was kept in a stable at Newton Corner. The patients were handled by two stable men smelling of horses and in other respects lacking in any aesthetic qualifications. The equipment consisted of two coarse red blankets. Would it were possible to place this conveyance beside the new Packard motor ambulance just purchased, equipped with hot and cold running water, a chair for the doctor or nurse, electric lights, mirrors, air-conditioning apparatus and other gadgets too numerous to mention—a marvel of mechanical skill, all designed for the safety and comfort of the patient.

Seven years ago the new building was added to our plant. This fine structure, equipped with the latest apparatus known to science, stands a monument to the public spirit and generosity of Newton's citizens. The structure cost, together with equipment, was approximately $1,500,000. The new building added 140 beds to the former capacity of 100 beds, but such is the constantly growing demand for hospitalization that we must soon give serious consideration to a second wing which will double the capacity of the main building. The rapid increase in our population will make added facilities very soon an imperative problem. Only this month, for the first time since the new building was constructed, we were compelled to turn away a private patient for lack of accommodation.

The urgent need of adequate living quarters for our nurses is also one of our pressing problems. We are not providing proper housing facilities for them, and we will not be satisfied until we have built a home for these young women which will give them the privacy, quiet and relaxation so necessary in maintaining their strength and efficiency at the proper level.

Ruins of Pompeii

When the fury of the volcanic conflagration which destroyed Pompeii 79 A. D. was past, the site of the city was a sea of ashes, the upper parts of buildings not destroyed sticking out and serving as a guide-post to those who returned to dig among the ruins. By the Third century a number of buildings had been erected to the north of the city. This second Pompeii was, however, abandoned in the Eleventh century on account of the frequent earthquakes, eruptions of Vesuvius and incursions of Saracens.

Women's Club Activities

Edited by EMMA D. COOLIDGE

Activities of the Garden Clubs

Newton Centre Garden Club

The June meeting of the Newton Centre Garden Club will be a three-ring horticultural circus, and will be held on Tuesday, June 9th, from 10.45 a. m. to 3.30 p. m., in the garden of Dr. and Mrs. John W. Cooke, 188 Arnold road.

Demonstration on care of the lawn, on making a garden, and on treatment of disease on trees and shrubs will be on the program.

There will be a plant sale, and box lunch.

Guests may be invited; the fee being 35 cents.

The chairman for this meeting is Mrs. D. J. Macpherson.

Newtonville Garden Club

The Newtonville Garden Club has been unusually active during May. Mrs. Winfield West was hostess on May 14th, at which meeting Miss Grace Andrews read a very comprehensive paper on "Bees."

On May 28th the second meeting was held at Waltham in Mrs. C. M. Dunham's garden which was at its best. Mrs. George A. Edmonds' paper on "Roses" was most interesting and instructive.

A picnic-lunch was enjoyed out of doors. Mrs. Dunham also served delicious refreshments.

The Annual Meeting will take place at 10 a. m. on Thursday, June 11th, at Mrs. A. M. Ziegler's, 580 Walnut street. There will be flower arrangements of iris by members.

The Club is proud to report that Mrs. Edmonds won a second prize for a "buffet supper arrangement" at the recent Newton Centre Flower Show, and Mrs. Dunham's small garden at the Wellesley Flower Show won much favorable comment.

Club Celebrates Red-Letter Day

A Red-Letter Day was observed by the members and guests of the Newtonville Women's Club, Inc., on the afternoon of Thursday, May 25th, when two charter members burned the mortgage on the Club property. The exercises were opened with selections played by the All-Newton Music School Trio composed of the Misses Anna and Dorothy Kovitz and Norma Olson. On the platform, which was attractively decorated with spring flowers, were seated Mrs. J. Earle Parker, president of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. Robert C. Bridgman and Mrs. Joseph H. Willey, two charter members of the Newtonville Club; Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden, and Mrs. H. Clayton Pearson, the president. A beautiful bouquet in a lovely grey stone container, was presented for the occasion by a daughter of the late Mrs. Henry V. Jones, a former president, in memory of Mrs. Jones and of her sister, Mrs. Robinson.

Mrs. Parker's brief address consisted principally of greetings to the Club from invited guests who were unable to be present, and for whom Mrs. Parker summarized her interpretations of their congratulations and wishes. His Honor, Mayor Childs, Mrs. John Kimball, president of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. John F. Capron, and Mrs. Benjamin D. Miller, past and present directors of the Twelfth District, were in this way represented by Mrs. Parker. A letter was also read from Mayor Childs by Mrs. Pearson.

"Memory Lane," a paper compiled by Mrs. Boyden and Mrs. John V. Byers, comprising some interesting incidents of the Club's (originally the Guild's) history was read by Mrs. Boyden. In this, accomplishments during the terms of presidents now deceased were recalled from the time of the founding of the Guild in 1884 by Mrs. John W. Dickinson, at Hull House, the home of Mrs. John L. Roberts. The Club motto "Let us serve and promote good will" was emphasized by Mrs. Boyden.

Mrs. Pearson read notes from Mrs. Henry H. Carter, Mrs. Arthur H. Soden, and Miss Margaret C. Worcester, charter members who were unable to attend, and she presented Mrs. Bridgman and Mrs. Willey to the audience. Mrs. Willey reading a poem which she had composed for the occasion.

The following past presidents of the Club gave brief résumés of the important features or innovations during their terms, and in some instances gave credit to Club members who had been instrumental in the advancement of the Club's usefulness: Mrs. Wallace C. Boyden, Mrs. Irving O. Palmer, Mrs. Willard S. Higgins, Mrs. Austin H. Deatur, Mrs. Gorham W. Harris, Mrs. Albert D. Auryansen, Mrs. Herbert F. Blair, and Mrs. Edwin P. Crave.

It was during Mrs. Auryansen's term that Miss Susy A. Dickinson, a charter member and daughter of the founder, left to the Club the legacy which made possible the recent cancellation of the mortgage of the property which was purchased during the term of Mrs. Blair.

Mrs. Blair, a member of the Executive Board of the State Federation, brought messages from that body, and in speaking of the acquisition of the Club House, particularly lauded the assistance of Miss Lisette F. Henderson, a member who is a lawyer, and of Mrs. Clifford B. Whitney, the treasurer, whom the Newtonville Executive Board has frequently consulted for advice, and whose ability and efforts have played a great part in the successful purchase and management of the Club's home.

After the addresses, while Mrs. Pearson held the documents over a brazier, Mrs. Bridgman and Mrs. Willey, each with a taper, lighted the papers, the burning of which symbolized the complete ownership by the Club of the Club House and grounds at 61 Washington park. Enthusiastic applause lasted throughout the ritual of the burning of the papers.

The celebration was concluded with selections by the Central Sextette, an ensemble of singers directed by Mrs. Ernest L. Nichols, consisting of Leta-Will Cowell, Marion Brickett, Ann Nichols, Mary Cox, Beulah Bell, and Rebecca Reed with Helen Ross as accompanist. Their program included "O Night of Dreams," by Cadman; "In the Luxembourg Gardens," by Manning-Baldwin, and "Dark Eyes," by MacDowell.

Tea was served in the Social Hall under the direction of Mrs. Fred M. Blanchard, chairman of the Hospitality committee.

Photographs of Mrs. Dickinson and Miss Dickinson were displayed on the wall of the main Auditorium beside the platform.

Aside from the regular activities in the educational, social, and community work of the Club, the philanthropies last year amounted to over $500.00, and the sale of Christmas Health Seals, conducted in Newtonville by the Club, amounted to $884.00. With the annual running expenses substantially decreased, and with the pride which comes from ownership of the home, the Club looks forward to a still more useful position in the community.

What They Did And Said at Swampscott

Mrs. Kimball, the new president, proved the words of Mrs. Walker concerning her, that the State Federation was to find in their new president, "a dynamic personality, a brilliant woman, fully awake to the great possibilities that lie before women's clubs," on Tuesday morning, when she declared that she was not bringing before the Convention any Resolutions. She stated that she had been reading the records of Resolutions passed during many years, and there many of them had ended. She believed they should be followed up and some effects realized. She also urged study of problems before any action was taken, and then to act. This would indicate that her experience has given her the wisdom to know that much lies behind all political and public problems, and endorsements should be warily made.

One such decisive action she did urge. And Mrs. Poole signified her support. As a result her VOTED unanimously by the delegates to wire to President Roosevelt a request that Mrs. Roberta Campbell Lawson, president of the General Federation, be chosen as the woman representative from the United States to the All-America Conference that is to take place soon in South America. Mrs. Poole also urged that individual clubwomen write to the President asking him to appoint Mrs. Lawson.

Mrs. Thomas J. Walker on Tuesday afternoon, as a result of her address, an account of stewardship that is always enlightening to clubwomen in that it brings out the highlights of an administration as, possibly, they have not given them thought. One of hers might be said to be "Modernizing the Machinery for efficient functioning." She has solved the problem of finances, for, as she said, she had known for years, during her work in Club Institutes and other club fields, that if clubs were worried about how they were going to pay their rent, for instance, they could not be expected to give their undivided attention to world peace!

She has desired to give to the club women in their State meetings "speakers from beyond our borders." Such a program is expensive. Hence the inauguration of registration fees, which solved the financial problem in many ways. To quote her: "It is only fair that those who get the benefit of actual attendance at our meetings should finance them, and that they should not be paid for out of the common treasury which is made up of the dues and other contributions of all clubwomen, many of whom can not spare the time or money to attend such meetings as these. Taxation without representation has always been as obnoxious to me as it was apparently to my Revolutionary ancestors!"

It is timely here to state that the registration fees taken in at Swampscott amounted to $1,614.50, a decidedly goodly sum, and yet the fee was not a burden to the individual, as only $1.00 was asked for the entire sessions of the three days, and tickets were transferable among delegates from one club, provided they wished to attend part of the sessions; and the fee for a single session was only 50 cents. The business acumen shown by the outgoing president, Mrs. Walker, in this inauguration of a fee, following the example set by the General Federation at previous Council Meetings, has been of untold benefit to the State Federation in meeting expenses.

It is timely here, also to give the report of the Credentials committee, as to attendance at the Annual Meeting. Of 2301 clubwomen who attended, 790 were delegates, and 1511 non-delegates. There were also 215 State officers registered. Of 395 clubs, four City Federations, and six affiliated organizations, representing a total membership of over 84,000 women, 277 clubs had delegates present, of which 119 were represented 100 per cent, by their appointed delegates.

Decidedly worthwhile, even amazing, were the Philanthropies assisted by the clubs of the State in the past year, 1935-1936. Mrs. Walker, in her address, gave the following report of their distribution:

To Hospitals, $18,862.33; Scholarships, $25,131.32; Public Welfare, $8,257.84; Local Charities, $17,241.09; Foreign Relief, $165.25; Red Cross, $6,519.60; Disabled Soldiers, $2,953.83; Public Health, $11,343.10; All other Contributions, $6,260.14; Total, $96,734.50.

A delightful event of Tuesday afternoon's program was a dramatic reading, entitled "The Picnic" given by Miss Miriam Cameron, of Saugus, recipient of the Scholarship in the Bishop-Lee School. She was introduced by Adele Hoes Lee, head of this school. This should be a spur to daughters of Clubwomen or Juniors to apply for one of these attractive Scholarships being offered by several schools, through the State Federation. (Detailed information on these opportunities, and how to seek them, will be given later this month in this Women's Clubs Department, when space permits.)

Miss Alberta Johnson, also winner of a last year's Scholarship in the Danforth Dunbar School was presented to the Convention, and she told about her work at this School.

Many clubwomen were greatly interested and entertained on Tuesday when, under the direction of Mrs. J. Verity Smith, of West Roxbury, chairman of the State department of Child Welfare, the film, "The Four Children," owned by the Judge Baker Foundation, was shown.

A new club, whose president was presented to the Convention was the Past Directors Club, which has just joined the State group. It is composed of clubwomen who have served as District directors of the State Federation, and has 57 members. Meetings are held on the first Thursday of November and April at the Boston Young Women's Association, with one-year term of office only. The Club was organized last December, and the officers include Mrs. Harry S. MacNish as president, Mrs. Edward P. Botsford, of Marblehead, vice president, and Mrs. Seldon E. James of Wellesley Hills, known in Newton as a former director of the Twelfth district, secretary-treasurer.

A very beautiful spectacle—perhaps the most thrilling of the Convention—was the Processional of Club Presidents on Wednesday evening. Nearly 2400 clubwomen from all parts of Massachusetts filled the huge auditorium, and delighted in the marchers who rose from the seats at the front of the hall and formed in a parade with State chairmen, directors, and officers, circling the room and passing down the aisles. Over 400 of the clubs of the State were represented by their presidents in this spectacular procession. They were gowned in lovely evening frocks, gay and delicate of hue. They carried gorgeous and fragrant flowers that matched and set off their charming attire. They were beautiful. And they were young. So youthful and happy and gay, indeed, that many a Senior Club president was asked if she was not a Junior!

Gounod's stately and lovely "Marche Romaine" gave the rhythm for their march. At their head were two youthful colorbearers with the beloved flags of State and Nation, fitting leaders for this group of patriotic, loyal, reverent women who serve their homes, their clubs, their communities, their country! Behind them came the Grand Marshal, Mrs. Charles H. Storey, chairman of Meetings. And then by groups of districts, the club presidents followed the District director, who bore on a staff the golden number of that district.

To the audience and to those seated on the platform watching, this seemed, indeed, what the speaker of the evening, Angela Morgan, who later read from her own poems, termed it: "A Pageant of Human Flowers Carrying Flowers."

The inspiring music prior to the opening of the session and for the Processional was given by the Boston Brass Quartet. A chorus of 250 voices, representing 15 clubs, sang under the leadership of George Sawyer Dunham, conductor, with Reginald Boardman, accompanist. This very fine program was given under the chairmanship of Mrs. Moses H. Gulesian, of Chestnut Hill.

A feature that added much to the evening, and one of which Newton women especially were proud, were two songs written by Mrs. Gulesian, "Young April" and "Memories," given by Katherine Follett Mann, Soprano, with the composer at the piano. The latter song won the composer honorable mention in the recent competition sponsored by the National Council, League of American Pen Women. (Continued on Page 8)

All Newton Music School Concert

25th Anniversary Attended By Large Audience

The Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of the Founding of the All Newton Music School was fittingly observed on last Wednesday evening, May 27th, when a large and distinguished audience filled the auditorium of the Newton High School to hear a Jubilee Concert presented by pupils of the music school.

Many guests prominent in music circles throughout Greater Boston were present and a great many birthday messages and greetings were sent from others in distant parts to Miss Elizabeth Fyffe, original founder and director of the school.

An interesting feature of the evening came between the first and second parts of the program when Miss Mabel Eager, President of the Board of Trustees, introduced the guest speakers: Mr. Julius E. Warren, Superintendent of the Newton Public Schools, who spoke warmly of the valuable work of the music school and of the co-operation which had existed for 25 years between the private and public agency; Mr. Roger Preston, Member of the Budget Committee of the Newton Community Chest of which the music school is a charter member, who explained the Charter Building, aspect of the work and Mrs. J. Earle Parker, President of the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, who struck a note of real wisdom in calling attention to the fact that in all music work, what counts most is not what the individual is doing with music but what music is doing with the individual.

As is customary at all final concerts, the names of those pupils receiving special citations were read. Certificates of Achievement were presented to Nellie Frederick and Evelyn Karol of the Piano Department; to Sally Clark, Barbara McCarty, Marvin Perry and Douglas Sears of the Violin Department; Daphne Kenway, Cello Department. Certificates of Promotion from Junior to Intermediate Department were given to Piano to Hope Beach, Betty Berni, Philip Cook, Polly Lewis, Jeanne Loudon, Natalie Needham, and Dorothy Thomsen; in cello, Robert Clark, Marjorie Coughlan, Mary Lou Melcher. Those making double promotions during the year were Hope Beach, Betty Berni, Edna McLean, Nathaniel Merrill, William Caruso, Northwood Kenway, Virginia Kyle and Mary Ruggles.

During the intermission, Miss Lillian West, Head of the Piano Department, presented Miss Fyffe with a beautiful silver tea-kettle as a tribute from the staff of the school. Miss Fyffe also received many lovely flowers and a lot of love letters from pupils and friends.

The season just closing has been one of the busiest and most useful in the history of the music school. Its growth, development, high standards and ideals are due in large measure to the vision and untiring devotion of its founder and director, Miss Fyffe. The season of 1935-1937 will open for registration at the Peirce School, West Newton on Tuesday, Sept. 22, and at the Clifton School, Newtonville, Thursday, Sept. 24. Regular sessions will begin on Tuesday, Sept. 29, at both branches.

Hearing On Nonantum Zoning

A public hearing was held at City Hall on Wednesday evening before the Planning Board and the Claims & Rules Committee of the Aldermen on the proposed change of zoning at Nonantum. About a dozen citizens were present. The hearing was called because when the first hearing on this matter was held some weeks ago it was specified in the notices that it would be on changes from manufacturing to residence zones. As considerable areas are proposed to be changed from manufacturing to business zones, the hearing on Wednesday was called to comply with the strict letter of the law.

It is proposed to include both sides of Watertown st. between Pearl and Hawthorn sts.; both sides of Adams st. between Lincoln rd. and Watertown st.; sections of California st., and the area bounded by Watertown, Bridge, Adams and Chandler sts. in business. Louis Gregorio favored the change as it affects property owned by his father and himself at Watertown and Adams sts. Harold Morrison and Giacomo DeStefano asked that Lincoln rd. be left in manufacturing zone. Michael Kinsella, 109 Bridge st. favored the inclusion of his property on that street in business zone. He opposed the change of a lot he owns at 9 Chandler st. to general residence, and stated that if this is not included in a business zone he will oppose the whole change. He criticized the Planning Board and Aldermen for planning the proposed changes at Nonantum.

John Finelli, as attorney for Alphonse Comeau, agreed to changing land owned by his client on Chapel and California sts. from manufacturing to general residence. He opposed the change as it affects a parcel of land owned by Comeau on the north side of California st. between Chapel and Bridge sts. Finelli said that because of the narrow contour of this land and the probability that a Metropolitan parkway may split it, it should not be changed in zone.

Coast Guard Movies At Necra Centre

The Boston Division of the United States Coast Guard will show the talking picture covering the activities of this branch of the Treasury Department at Necra Centre, home of the New England Canoe Racing Association, Inc., Charles st., Auburndale, this evening.

Lieutenant W. C. Capron will be in charge and the public is invited. No tickets are required. James Gordon Lovell, Social Director, assisted by Miss Emily Hollenbach and Commodore Louis G. Zaboy will be in charge of the social.

Automobile Accidents

The intersection of Beacon and Walnut sts., Newton Highlands, where unobstructed views are afforded motorists approaching from all directions, was the scene of another collision about noontime on Saturday. Cars driven by Bessie Mills of Fall River and Frederick Fisher of Cornell st., Roslindale, crashed. Fisher's car was tipped over and five persons riding in it were reported as having received injuries. They were treated at the Newton Hospital.

Cars driven by George Larsen of Leonard ave., Newtonville, and Henry Armstrong of Needham collided Friday night at Putnam and Margin sts., West Newton. Mrs. Emily Armstrong of Saco st., Upper Falls, received injuries.

Kiwanis Club

A regular meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club was held Tuesday, June 2, 1936, at the Charles River Country Club. President J. Ernest Gibson presided.

The membership welcomed into the ranks of Kiwanis a new member in the person of Dr. Frank A. Jassett of 313 Washington st., Newton.

A communication from the Newton Chamber of Commerce dealing with the activities and responsibilities of hawkers and peddlers came to the attention of the membership, and the organization was recorded as unfavorable to solicitation of business by such itinerants in both business and residential sections of the city.

It was announced the important chairmanship of the Program Committee, handled so long and so well by Rupert Thompson, Jr., had been relinquished by him and assumed by William F. White.

Coming down to the main part of the meeting, Chairman Rupert Thompson introduced Mr. Louis M. Young, Secretary of the Laundry Owners' Bureau of Boston, who virtually took the members on a "Wash Day Tour Around the World." The methods in far-away lands and strange places, the first beginnings of modern laundry methods, and the scientific industry as it exists today were interestingly brought to the attention of those present.

PARAMOUNT THEATRE

Janet Gaynor and Robert Taylor form the striking new screen team coming Sunday to the Newton Paramount Theatre in "Small Town Girl," the picture of the popular novel by Ben Ames Williams. The story of "Small Town Girl" presents Miss Gaynor as a New England girl who rebels at the hum-drum existence of life in a little town and impetuously elopes with Robert Taylor, a sophisticated young city doctor. The elopement precipitates a social and domestic crisis, since Taylor is engaged to a Boston society girl, and Miss Gaynor finds herself ostracized by her husband's smart friends. The story concerns her determined fight to overcome this obstacle and to win the cooling love of her bridegroom. The accompanying cast includes such notables as Binne Barnes, Lewis Stone, Andy Devine, Elizabeth Patterson, Frank Craven and a score of others.

"Boulder Dam," with Ross Alexander, Patricia Ellis and Lyle Talbot in the starring roles, will be the coming Sunday, and is an exciting drama of thrilling action, heroic deeds and glamorous adventure that will be enjoyed by both young and old.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week the Paramount will present the ever-popular Robert Montgomery and Myrna Loy starred in their latest romantic comedy, "Petit-coat Fever." It is a story of a wireless operator in a remote Labrador station. When an airplane runs out of gasoline and lands near his lonely tower he sees a white woman for the first time in a year, and a beautiful woman for the first time since he left England two years before. By refusing to send their distress messages, he holds the couple, who are engaged, virtual prisoners, meanwhile making love to the lady but with such charm and grace that she begins to like it. His future seems rosy until a girl to whom he was engaged two years before appears ready to marry him. The ensuing complication leads to a smashing surprise finish. The co-feature on this program will be Warner Oland, back again in the exciting mystery, "Charlie Chan at the Circus."

Bonus Bonds Will Be Delivered In Newton Monday

Veterans Are Asked To Be At Homes From 5 P.M. On

Carefully prepared plans have been made by officials of the Boston Postal District to facilitate the delivery of bonus bonds to the 87,000 veterans residing in the district. Next Monday evening, June 15, every regular letter carrier in the Boston Postal District will report for duty following his regular day's work. Each veteran who is to receive a bonus bond should be at the address given in the bonus application from 5 p. m. Monday on. When the letter carrier arrives the person eligible to receive the bond, if unknown personally to the postman, must be identified by some member of the family whom the postman does know. The bonds will be mailed in registered letters and only the person to whom the letter is addressed can sign the receipt and be given the letter. The delivery of the bonds will commence at 5 Monday evening.

After the veterans receive the bonds they must have them certified. The certifying station for Newton will be at the State Armory, 1137 Washington st., West Newton. At this place on Tuesday, June 16th from 9 a. m. until 3 p. m. there will be a force of 35 postoffice employees from the various offices in the Newtons under the direction of Martin McDonough and M. John Barry. Commanders of the several veteran organizations in Newton, or officers delegated by them will be present to assist in identifying the veterans. Upon satisfactory identification to the certifying clerks the bond holders can exchange their bond for an interim receipt. The bond will be taken to Boston that night and the next day a check will be mailed to the veteran from whom the bond was received. The check may be cashed through your bank, your place of employment or by a business connection where you are known. If any veteran has a bank account, he may certify his bond at that bank. ## Washington Street Traffic Signals

The traffic signals to protect pedestrians at West Newton Square and at Washington and Adams sts., Newton, for which money was appropriated by the Board of Aldermen some months ago, will soon be installed. Contracts for the installation of these signals were awarded on Monday by Street Commissioner Mahoney. The traffic signal at West Newton will control lights at the intersection of Washington, Watertown and Waltham sts., and at Chestnut st. The contract for its erection was awarded to the Eagle Signal Company of Springfield and the cost will be $4796. The contract for the signal at Washington and Adams sts. was awarded to the Municipal Signal Company of Boston whose bid was $1175. The signals at West Newton can be operated either automatically, by automobiles passing over levers set in the street, by policemen on traffic duty, or by pedestrians. At West Newton a safety island will be placed midway along the long stretch at the confluence of Washington and Watertown sts. The signal at Washington and Adams sts. will be operated by pedestrians pressing a button.

Middlesex County Republicans to the number of 400 assembled on Friday night in Memorial Hall at the municipal building, Newton Centre, to listen to an address by Judge Jacob Asher of Worcester relative to registration of voters in the county. Mr. Asher told of the successful registration campaign conducted in Worcester last year under his direction. A Democratic majority of 7000 was changed to a Republican majority of 2000 and a Republican Mayor elected, William F. Garcelon of Newton presided. A similar meeting will be held later this month at Cambridge. Members of Republican town and city committees from nearly every municipality in Middlesex County were present at the meeting.

Julius Warren Heads Community Chest Division

Will Be Chairman Of Social Agencies Council

The Board of Directors of the Newton Community Chest, Inc., were informed at its regular meeting on June 4th, that Mr. Julius E. Warren, Superintendent of Schools, had accepted Maynard Hutchinson's appointment as Chairman of the Council of Social Agencies, the Community Chest's department of social planning. Mr. Warren has made an outstanding contribution to the educational system of the city during his short time here, and his background of social service and education augur well for the development of the Council of Social Agencies. Mr. Warren was much interested in this work in Lakewood, Ohio, which was tied in with the Community Fund of Cleveland, one of the oldest and most effective of the community chests of the country.

This Council will draw together all Chest agencies, city departments and officials, fraternal and religious and other groups which are interested in developing a proper program of social work for Newton, in line with a changing city and changing times.

Its organization and program will be carefully and slowly developed.

The auditor's report, made gratis by Charles F. Rittenhouse Company, for 1935, was presented by Mr. Frank L. Richardson, Treasurer of the Community Chest. It showed the Chest operating on an economical basis, in the black. Among other remarks, the report from Mr. Rittenhouse stated, "We found the books and reports in their usual excellent condition, giving every evidence of having been carefully and accurately kept. We also found the files for handling the many details of the Chest in good order and with information pertaining thereto easily located."

The Board expressed its deep appreciation for the generous and public spirit in giving at least two weeks' time of one of his staff free for this (Continued on Page 2)

Ask Aldermen To Take Action On Spear Property

Mayor Childs has sent a communication to the Board of Aldermen asking them to take action on the acceptance or rejection of the gift of the estate bequeathed to the city by the late Miss Elizabeth Spear. Miss Spear, who for many years conducted a private school in this city, and who long was noted for her philanthropies to the poor of Newton, bequeathed her home at the corner of Washington st. and Walnut Park, Newton, to the city. She specified that no buildings should be erected on the land other than those now there, and that if the present buildings should be removed, the place be kept as a green spot to help beautify the city. The property contains 14,027 square feet of land, a single dwelling about a century old, and a small barn. During Miss Spear's lifetime the yard at her home was kept very attractive with shrubs and flower gardens.

Building Commissioner Haseman inspected the property. He reports that the dwelling there "is valueless to the city because of its age and obsolescence; that the land is of no use to the city except for resale to private owners, and that the property cannot be profitably rented in its present condition."

Awning Tags Ready Next Week

The official metal tags which must be placed on all awnings in front of stores in this city will be ready for distribution next week. Anyone who has an awning, marquee or shade over a sidewalk in this city must obtain a permit for this privilege from the Street Commissioner before July 1st, or else face the penalty of being haled into court and fined. In the future no awning, marquee or shade can be less than 7 1/2 feet above the sidewalk, and the police will receive orders strictly to enforce this ordinance. Details regarding the new ordinance may be obtained from the City Clerk's office.

Largest Class In History of Newton High School Received Diplomas Last Saturday At Dickinson Memorial Stadium

Nearly 5000 Persons Witness 671 Boys and Girls Graduate—Class Presents Press Stand As Gift To School—Meserve Scholarship Awarded to Norman Whitney—Six Receive Brown Scholarships

The largest senior class in the history of the Newton High School held its commencement program last Saturday evening in the Dickinson Memorial Stadium at Newtonville. The graduates numbered six hundred and seventy and a striking picture was presented to the nearly five thousand relatives and friends who witnessed the exercises. The girls, dressed entirely in white, and the boys in dark suits, in a long line matching four abreast formed a column which stretched from the doors of the gymnasium across the athletic fields to their seats in the stadium. During this procession the high school band played a stirring march, "El Capitan." When the last senior was seated the invocation was offered by Rev. Ralph H. Rogers, Ph.D., minister of the Aurdendale Congregational Church.

There were many highlights of the graduation, the 76th such observance in the school's history. The many scholarship awards, the senior cup awards, the Dickinson Memorial Trophy presentation, and the class gift were all awaited eagerly. Following the invocation the class gift was presented to Principal Paul E. Ellicker by Roy R. Merchant, president of the senior class. The gift was of money to be used for a press stand for the Dickinson stadium. In accepting the gift Mr. Ellicker said that it was symbolic of the desire of the Class of 1936 to be of service. He expressed his opinion that the press box would modernize the stadium and remain a mute but living symbol of the class. The gift is a tribute to the high ideal of Newton High athletics and to the recognition the various teams have earned in competition with other schools. The award of the Meserve Fund Scholarship, established in 1923 in memory of the late Charles D. Meserve, a revered mathematics teacher of a generation ago, was made by Maynard Clark Hutchinson of the Class of 1904. The scholarship is awarded annually to the boy who best typifies the well-rounded character which Mr. Meserve sought so earnestly to develop as a teacher. It is considered the highest scholarship award conferred at the school. Norman Evelyn Whitney, president of the Associates, President of the Newton Chapter of the National Honor Society, chairman of the Junior committee of the Newton Community Forum, and a member of the Executive Council and Social Study Club, was the recipient. He is the son of Mrs. Ruth D. Brown, secretary of the Fessenden School in West Newton.

The first awards from the Lieutenant Stafford Leighton Brown memorial fund established within the last year by Mrs. Eugenia Brown in memory of her son killed in the World War were made by Mr. Ellicker as were the awards of eleven other scholarships and several prizes. Joseph Richard Caruso, Jr., John Arthur Costa, William Alexander Diman, Francis Irving Lindquist (Class of 1935), Robert Carl Ness, and Leslie Rensselaer White received the six scholarships that are already available from the income of the $50,000 fund.

The remainder of the scholarships were announced as follows: Community Club of Newton, Harriet Z. Church; May Scholarship, M. I. T., Stuart R. White; Newton Rotary Club, Admont G. Clark and Douglas H. (Continued on Page 3)

A SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCE

The Republican party has nominated Governor Alfred M. Landon of Kansas as its standard bearer in the presidential campaign this coming fall. It is interesting to compare the present convention sitting in Cleveland with that of 1924. Prior to the convention of that year Leonard Wood, the popular army officer who had endeared himself to many veterans who served in the world war, seemed to be the popular choice. He apparently had a wide margin over favorite sons and other potential nominees. History reveals what happened. A coalition of his opponents, secret meetings in hotel rooms and finally a long-distance telephone call to Senator Reed in Pennsylvania. And the convention chose Warren G. Harding to head the ticket. Since then many events have transpired which have reacted unfavorably to the party cause. The depression ensued and President F. D. Roosevelt swept the country in 1932. The administration of the past four years has given the Republican party many issues of varying magnitude to present to the people. Unity and co-operation can succeed in replacing the "New Deal" with an American Deal as pictured in the keynote speech at Cleveland this week.

Since early in the spring the Landon tide has been rolling along, gathering momentum and force. Opposing forces despite all attempts to form a coalition to stem the avalanche, were literally swept aside. Republicans throughout the country wanted no repetition of 1924. Governor Landon, from his home in Kansas, closely watched developments at Cleveland and directed his managers when necessary to bring about the unity and co-operation that the party must have this fall. For the first time since Theodore Roosevelt was nominated in 1904 there has been no such unanimity of choice. This new attitude is significant, we believe. The Landon popularity, growing by leaps and bounds, seems to be indicative of Republican sentiment everywhere. With nearly five long months to go before election day, one of the greatest dangers to the Republican cause will be to prevent the loss of enthusiasm which is now apparent. So many things may and doubtless will happen which will have a decided bearing upon popular opinion that no sound prediction can be made. The least that can be said is that the Republican party has made a magnificent start.

Better Streets For Newton

The City of Newton is now in process of completing the reconstruction of a number of streets under the PWA program. The following streets have been practically completed: Beacon st., Waban Square to Locke rd.; Ward st., Waverley ave. to Manet rd.; Lowell ave., Washington st. to Commonwealth ave.; Adams st., Watertown st. to Washington st.; Auburndale ave., entire length. In addition to these, work at present is in progress on Centre st., from Commonwealth ave. to Boylston st.; and Waverley ave., from Sargent st. to Elliot Memorial rd. It is expected that within the next few days, reconstruction of Walnut st. between Washington st. and Crafts st. will be started.

The work undertaken under PWA will give the city 5.3 miles of first-class highway. In all cases where suitable material was not available for foundation, the existing material has been excavated and refilled with gravel. Where the cross-section or the contour of the existing road would permit, same was used as a foundation for the new surface. Wherever it was necessary to materially reshape the road, however, and in all cases where new foundation had been provided a base course of bituminous macadam was laid. With the exception of the Ward st. construction, all surfaces have been finished with Type D Bituminous Concrete, giving a smooth, quiet, non-skid riding surface.

It is likely that there will be a material balance left in the total fund made available by the city's appropriation and the Government's grant, and His Honor the Mayor has been advised that, with the approval of the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works, further construction, possibly to the extent of a mile to a mile and a half of additional highway, can be carried out. All work is being done upon the basis of a contribution of 45% by the Federal Government and an appropriation of 55% of the total amount by the city.

Co-operating in the planning and supervision of the excellent resurfacing work which has been done on the streets mentioned have been Director of Public Works Ellis, Street Commissioner Mahoney, City Engineer Harvey, and his assistants; State Administrator Peterson of the PWA, Mr. Linnahan and Mr. Savage, resident engineering inspectors; Mr. Pratt, the city's resident highway engineer; and the contractors—John P. Condon of Watertown and the Simpson Brothers Corporation of Boston.

Sale of Real Estate For Unpaid Taxes

Sales on about 500 parcels of real estate in this city, because of the failure of the owners to pay taxes, were conducted at City Hall on Tuesday and Wednesday by City Collector Francis Newhall. About 1100 parcels of real estate were advertised a four weeks ago for non-payment of taxes. More than half of the owners of these parcels paid the overdue taxes before the sales commenced. On Tuesday 35 parcels were bid in by private purchasers, and on Wednesday 47 parcels. The city assumed titles to over 400 parcels. Owners of the parcels involved in the sales and assumed by the city have two years in which to redeem their properties by paying the taxes due, in addition to interest and charges.

Smoking In Bed Causes Fire

Engine 1 was called out at 5:11 Monday morning to extinguish a fire in a bedroom at the home of Edward Marsh, 21 Crafts st., Newtonville. The fire was apparently caused by a mattress catching fire from a cigarette stub. The fire was discovered by Patrolman Elliot. At 12:30 a. m. Sunday Engine 9 went to 53 Canterbury rd., Chestnut Hill, to pump water out of a cellar after a hot water heater had burst. At 2:44 a. m. Sunday Engine 8 went to 3 Bridge st., Nonantum, to shut off a sprinkler system which had started spraying.

John H. Kent, who has been associated with The Edison Electric Illuminating Company of Boston for the past 30 years, has been named Editor-in-Chief of the Newton-Watertown district, and will take over the duties of his new position on June 15. The position carries the responsibility for all phases of the Edison business in this division of the Edison service area and is a development of the company's policy to decentralize management for the betterment of local service. Mr. Kent is widely known locally, having started his career in the public utility industry with the Newton and Watertown Gas & Electric Company. His record with the local utility company in various districts and in different lines of work, provides him with an excellent background for the new post. A native of South Boston, where he was born 57 years ago, Mr. Kent has been a local resident since his childhood. His home is at 10 Regent st., West Newton. He is married and is the father of three children, two of whom have entered the business world. The third is a student at high school.

Back again to the schools and colleges for our wanderings this week. At Columbia University on June 2nd the degree of Doctor of Philosophy was awarded to Reverend Charles D. Kepner, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kepner of Newtonville. Dr. Kepner is a graduate of Newton High School, Williams College, and Andover-Newton Theological School. He received a master's degree from Harvard in 1917. At Columbia he pursued graduate studies in social legislation and sociology. A dissertation entitled "Social Aspects of the Banana Industry," written by him has just been published by Columbia and Public Law. A few months ago "The Banana Empire," a Case Study in Economic Imperialism, was published of which he is a co-author. For the past six years Dr. Kepner has been pastor of the Stafford Springs Congregational Church. On Easter Sunday he preached his first sermon as minister of Trinity Congregational Church of Cleveland Heights, Ohio. Beginning in September he will also teach in the Schaeffer College of Religious Education and Social Work in Cleveland.

At the sixteenth graduation exercises of the Choate School on June 5th three Newton girls received academic honors. Patty Curtis of West Newton, a member of Class VIII ranked fourth with a mark of 84. Frances Aronson of Waban of Class XI placed seventh with 81.4 and Janice Ringde of Waban, Class XII is thirteenth with 75.9.

Robert A. Fernald, son of Dr. and Mrs. Adelbert Fernald of Elmhurst rd., Newton, graduates June 15 from Dartmouth College. At Dartmouth he majored in economics. Here he belonged to the widely-known Dartmouth Outing Club and participated in skiing activities. He was very active in Publication work as manager of the Dartmouth monthly magazine the "Jack-o-lantern." He was chairman of his Dormitory, Streeter Hall, and was a member of the Dormitory Council, the student governing body for the dormitories. The Freshman tennis team he made, then played on the Varsity Tennis Team and last summer was one of Dartmouth's representatives in the National Intercollegiate Tennis Championship in Evansville, Ill. His clubs are the Dartmouth Club of New York and the Longwood Cricket Club of Chestnut Hill.

Messrs. George Taylor, Fred Alexander and William B. Phelps, of the Trustees of the Newtonville Library Association, Inc., appeared before the Board of Directors to discuss their plans for conducting a campaign in that village for a proposed and much-needed branch library, in order that co-ordination of campaigns would result. Appreciation for this spirit of co-operation was expressed.

Rotary Club

The Rotary Club was entertained this week with anecdotes and reminiscences from Miss "K" Lawrence, a Newton young lady who is a reporter for the Boston "Record." She introduced the group to something of the life of a newspaper office and told of several humorous incidents that befell her the first few days through her ignorance of some of the jargon, such as "the morgue" (reference room), "slug," etc. Her interviews have ranged all the way from the Millen brothers through Professor Pickard and the wives of three Presidents to Billy Sunday, Rudy Vallee, and other popular celebrities. Each assignment has presented its own original interest and excitement and taken all together they have brought her in contact with all varieties of personality.

Kiwanis Club

At the regular weekly meeting of the Newton Kiwanis Club, held Tuesday, June 9, 1936, presided over by President J. Ernest Gibson, the members listened to a most interesting talk on vitamins A through G. The speaker, Dr. Donald S. Bartlett of the Abbott Laboratories of North Chicago, Illinois, a resident of Newton, who was introduced and procured by Jack Wamberg, told in a fascinating way of what has been learned concerning vitamins.

In days gone by, foods were not subject to the highly refining processes as now occurs, with the result people heretofore got their vitamins in a more natural way, and it was unnecessary for them to give consideration to vitamin supplements as is quite important today. The subject matter is overworked via the radio, and other wise, by unprincipled opportunists seizing upon the timeliness of the topic to sell their particular wares, good, bad, or indifferent.

Dr. Bartlett pointed out, what one needs by way of vitamins is fundamentally the concern of the family physician, who, in conjunction with a reputable pharmacist, can supply what is needed. The ordinary diet, according to Dr. Bartlett, which consists in many cases of thirty-three and one-third per cent flour in one form or another, is to this extent minus vitamin qualities, as all flours have been so refined as to eliminate that which formerly supplied vitamins. The other two-thirds of one's diet may or may not contain necessary substances, and to keep in good health and in condition to ward off many and varied illnesses, one should personally study the subject sufficiently to satisfy himself he is taking in to his system that which is very vital.

W. S. Wagner, a member of the Newton Club, was given a warm welcome after a winter spent in California.

Boy Badly Bitten By Shepherd Dog

Donald McLean, 4, who has been residing recently with his grandfather, Daniel McLean, 37 Jefferson st., Newton, was badly bitten on the left side of his face yesterday morning by a German shepherd dog owned by Mrs. Nora Smith, 39 Jefferson st. The dog was tied in his owner's yard and the McLean child went into the Smith yard and apparently started to pat the dog. In rushing to the child's aid, Mrs. Smith stumbled and fell. The child was rushed to the Newton Hospital by Ralph Grassia of 35 Williams st., a neighbor. A number of stitches were required to close the wound.

Edward H. Powers' Paragraphs

One way that some snobs reveal their superiority complex (or inferiority complex) is by their habit of greeting ordinary persons with a gruff or condescending "Hello," and saluting supposedly influential or wealthy individuals with an ingratiating "How do you do?"

Extensive street repairs in this city have necessitated numerous detours recently. Highways now closed to traffic include Ward street between Waverley avenue and Manet road; Centre street between Commonwealth avenue and Homer street; Walnut street between Craft st. and Linwood avenue.

Newton occupies a unique position in Massachusetts politics at the present time. Two of the leading candidates for the highest offices for which nominations will be made at the Republican convention in Springfield next week are residents of this city. Leverett Saltonstall of Chestnut Hill, Speaker of the House of Representatives, is acknowledged to be in the lead as a candidate for nomination for Governor. Sinclair Weeks, former Mayor of Newton, is vying with Henry Cabot Lodge 3rd, for nomination as United States Senator. Robert T. Bushnell of Waban, former District Attorney of Essex County is also a candidate for Governor and has stated he will run for the nomination regardless of the result at the pre-primary convention.

Although the office of Governor and that of Senator are quite distinct, it does not help the chances of either Mr. Saltonstall or Mr. Weeks to have both residing in the same city. This handicap, however, is not serious enough to overcome the chances of either to win the respective nomination each seeks. Both have gained strength in recent weeks. Another argument being offered against both nominations going to these two Newton men is—that both are wealthy, and it would be a disadvantage from the standpoint of practical politics to have the two candidates heading the Republican ticket be men of affluence. Others will contend that this would be an advantage, because such candidates would not be tempted to enrich themselves by holding political office.

Mr. Saltonstall certainly has earned the right to receive political advancement because of years of service in public office and militant loyalty to his party. The fighting spirit he has exhibited the past year has surprised even his most ardent admirers. Mr. Weeks has given generously of his time and means in the interest of the Republican party. He is placing great stress on the advocacy of conservatism in political and economic activities, as opposed to the trend toward socialism which he asserts is characteristic of the Roosevelt administration. Mr. Bushnell is one of the most fluent and convincing speakers among Massachusetts Republicans, and in case of a deadlock between Saltonstall and Haigis, would be a likely recipient of the nomination for Governor. It seems assured that one of the two principal nominations will go to a Newton man, and it is well within the realm of probabilities that both nominations will be obtained by Newton men.

The Republican platform adopted at Cleveland reminds us of the Democratic platform adopted at Chicago four years ago. Both, in large part, castigated the party then in power. And there was ample cause to criticize the Hoover administration, and there is good reason to flay the Roosevelt administration. The Republicans between 1928 and 1932 resorted to Pollyanna stuff while economic conditions in this country were going from bad to worse. President Roosevelt started out right after his inauguration to institute reform and relief measures which caused him to be acclaimed by Democrats and Republicans alike. If you don't believe this read some of the editorials in leading Republican newspapers published in the spring of 1933. But, the application of the laudable relief program instituted by the President soon became affected by the machinations of Democratic politicians (and also Republican politicians who have consorted with distribution of relief funds), and much of the billions of dollars taxed from the people for relief purposes, has been shamefully misspent.

Much of the criticism of the present administration as expressed in the Republican platform is justified. More of it is characteristic political twaddle. Most people will agree that our Constitution and local self-government should be maintained. But, isn't it a little inconsistent to include among the first planks of the platform a pledge to resist all attempts to impair the authority of the Supreme Court, and in a succeeding plank devoted to Labor, state "We support the adoption of State Laws and interstate compacts to abolish sweatshops and child labor, and to protect women and children with respect to maximum hours, minimum wages and working conditions. We believe that this can be done within the constitution as it now stands." Last week a majority of the Supreme Court decided otherwise.

ONE THING AND ANOTHER

By L. D. G. BENTLEY

"Fellow Citizens"

It appears that the celebration of Bunker Hill Day next Wednesday, as in all years, is a geographical response assumed by residents of Charlestown where that historic ground is memorialized by a column of granite famous the world over. No doubt the observance will in every way do credit to those who have the arrangements in hand.

There will be speeches the night before, throughout the night and next day. If the words that are spoken have no blend of politics and patriotism it will be worthy of notice, especially in this, a Presidential year, when there are so many candidates for public office. As eloquent as many of the orators are certain to prove the honors for having made the greatest Bunker Hill oration on record will probably be retained by Daniel Webster in spite of the efforts made to outdo him.

Call For Help

Here is a matter important to men. Having well the natural sympathies of women I hope they, too, will be interested and render what assistance they can to bring about reform. Whenever it is my good fortune to attend a banquet conducted on an elaborate scale I not only accept with earnestness but I look forward to it. Emphasizing my gratitude I always eat with relish, as much from sheer enjoyment as obligation. It pleases me immensely when there is a souvenir menu, and there usually is, because it provides something tangible to assist me in remembering the occasion. Now then, here is where we observe the fly in the ointment.

The token is almost invariably a printed document, neatly bound, sometimes with red, white and blue ribbon. There is often a picture or illustration on the front that is both attractive and worth adding to one's prize collection. Indeed, the souvenir usually has numerous delightful features.

Everything perfect except the size. It's too bulky—at least that's been my experience. I want to take it home but I cannot get it into any pocket of my evening togs, above or below. There is nothing to do but to juggle it. If I leave it on the table it is soon in the waiter's path or certain to be ruined by spilt soup or water. If I put it in my lap it slides to the floor. If I sit on it there is always a possibility it will be crumpled or twisted. If I put it behind me it falls to the floor and somebody walks on it. In short, a good time is often ruined.

Wisecracks of the Week

There is a Newton bachelor whose propensity for doing as he pleases includes the maintenance of a suite of rooms. He finds them comfortable and attractive because they are "every which way and that" as far as furniture, etc., are concerned. His married sister arrived the other day and picked up a pipe on the window sill—no place for it, of course. She asked how many pipes her brother had. He replied, "Possibly a dozen." She smiled, acidly, "Give them to me and I'll decorate the other window sills."

A heavy-eyed, weary stenographer—a young man, if you please—came out of the office of his boss after having "taken" a long string of letters. The task still before him was a grind of several hours. "I'll bet," he muttered, "the old geezer wouldn't have so many letters if he had to typewrite them himself."

"I'll Leave a Note"

Notes intended to call somebody's attention to something are frequently found pinned or weighted down in a place they cannot be easily overlooked. It is a custom as old as the days of stone tablets and a good one. As far as I know, however, there has been little improvement. Well, perhaps some, but the general system is the same.

I recall when you could find on the door of a carpentering or painting shop a slate on which you were privileged to write a message for the absent artisan. In that way he could perform his work wherever the job of that day was located and be fairly certain he had not missed a call at the shop. It was a splendid plan but I don't think it is used much these days.

In domestic circles the notes are still in vogue. Sometimes they are left under the telephone in the front hall, in a milk bottle on the back steps for the milkman, pinned to the draperies in the living room or attached to the pin cushion in one of the chambers—a hundred and one places.

It has occurred to me that possibly cards might be printed and sold at stationers such as "Gone to the movies," "Had an errand to do down town," "Your dinner is in the oven," "Don't forget to let the cat in" or "Am calling on the next door neighbor." These would save much time.

I have many ideas on the subject but my thoughts are scattered, as usual and I shall have to wait until midsummer when I am less occupied. Then I will concentrate, hoping to help humanity by some brilliant suggestion.

How To Get There

The planks of a party platform might well include a spring board from which the candidates could jump into office.

The Dickinson Memorial Cup is another outstanding honor conferred upon a Newton High School boy whose athletic development is outstanding. Scholastic ability and personal characteristics are also contributing factors in the award. The cup is donated annually by the Massachusetts Coaches Association in memory of Alfred W. Dickinson, former teacher and beloved coach for seventeen years until his death in 1927. Ernest Savignano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Savignano of Hale st., Newton Upper Falls, was awarded the trophy. Savignano was captain of the varsity football team last fall and outstanding star, a member of the basketball and baseball teams, vice-president of the Associates and a member of the Legislature.

After the selection, "Pilgrim Chorus" from Tannhauser, by the High School Band, came the graduation address, "American Youth for a New Day," by Cameron Beck, director of the New York Stock Exchange Institute. Mr. Beck, who was introduced by Superintendent of Schools Julius E. Warren, told of speaking first at Newton High School thirteen years ago and on seven other occasions since. He brought the best wishes of Francis Bacon, former principal of Newton High who is now at Evanston, Illinois. In closing he gave these four rules: (1) Have a plan for your life if you would make of your life what God intended. (2) Have a purpose for living. (3) Have perseverance. (4) Have a passion for right living. An organ solo, "Largo," by Dorothy May Gardner of the Class of 36 on the electric portable instrument installed last fall followed the address.

The presentation of the senior cups, always a significant event, were then made to the outstanding girl and boy in the class. These cups are pro-

Roy Merchant, president of the senior class, has been treasurer of the Honor Society chapter, captain of the golf team, a member of the Legislature, "Newtonian" staff, a member of the hockey team and the ski team which was formed last winter.

Diplomas were presented to six girls and six boys representatives of the class by Mayor Edwin O. Childs. The exercises closed with the singing of "America" and the benediction by the Reverend Ralph H. Rogers. The twelve class representatives then formed in a semi-circle and aided by teachers presented the individual members of the class with their diplomas. The special issue of the "Newtonian" and the class year book "The Newtonian" were distributed in the school lunchroom prior to an informal reception on the lawn between the two school buildings on Elm st.

FORD V-8 ECONOMY MEANS HIGH "Dollar Mileage"

(MORE MILES PER DOLLAR)

NO MATTER how you classify your expenditures for car up-keep—it's your total expenditure that counts. How much "dollar mileage" is your car giving you?

Dollars do go farther in the Ford V-8. Modern improved carburetion gives you unusual gasoline mileage with brilliant V-8 performance. Most owners of today's Ford change oil only every 2000 miles and add none between changes.

And after the first few thousand miles you begin to understand what Ford V-8 "dollar mileage" really means.

It gives you more miles per dollar because it gives you all-round economy—low first cost, low up-keep cost, low depreciation and long life—as well as low gasoline and oil consumption. All these are big items if you aim to buy the most economical car.

What Does Backlog Mean?

PERHAPS you've seen the word "backlog" in reports of the United States Steel Corporation. It refers to unfilled orders on the Company's books.

Arthur Brisbane once called the difference between what we Americans earn and what we spend, the "backlog" of prosperity.

Are you building up a "backlog" of ready cash at the Newton Centre Savings Bank?

You'll always have money to spend if you do.

The invocation, prayer and benediction were given by Rabbi Leo Shubow, spiritual leader of Temple Emanuel, and the principal address of the morning was delivered by Mr. Alexander Brin, editor of the Jewish Advocate, who lauded the freedom enjoyed by the peoples of the United States. #### 75th Anniversary Of North Church

Special commemorative exercises of the North Congregational Sunday School, Rev. E. E. Bachelder, pastor, were held last Sunday, June 7th, marking the 75th anniversary of the founding of the organization.

Following the morning service of the church at which President Nathan R. Wood of Gordon College preached the anniversary sermon, the several classes responded to the question, "What has the Sunday School Meant to Me?" Music was furnished by the Junior Choir and the Sunday School orchestra. Plants were distributed to the scholars of the Beginner's and Primary departments, and Bibles to those graduating from the Primary department.

Mrs. L. M. Lowry, widow of the founder, Rev. Samuel E. Lowry, was presented with a huge bouquet of American Beauty roses, and the son, William F. Lowry, superintendent of the school for thirty-six years, was given a beautiful copy of Moffatt's translation of the Bible. Both presentations were made by Mayor Edwin O. Childs, himself a teacher in the Sunday School for thirty-three years, and serving at present as assistant superintendent.

A largely attended service was held in the evening, marking a fitting close to the anniversary observance. Rev. Ray A. Eusden, D.D., brought greetings from Eliot Church, the spiritual mother of the North Sunday School. Rev. H. W. Oxnard of Southboro, the only living ex-pastor, brought a challenging message, and the Hon. E. O. Childs, historian for the society, spoke on "The Early Days."

Nash-Lafayette Sales Increase

For the first four months of this year, the sales and registrations of Nash and LaFayette motor cars show an increase of 40% over the same period last year, which is a better showing by 10% than what the entire industry registered throughout New England in the same period. Continuing good sales activity is expected during June, July and August, in fact August Osterlund, Nash dealer at Newton Centre, says with the amazing results which motorists everywhere are learning are being obtained from Nash, and the increasing recognition of this car's outstanding value, these summer months are sure to produce big new car sales.

Women's Club Activities

What They Did And Said At Miami

In a stirring report that should be broadcast to every woman's club in the United States, Mrs. John L. Whitehurst, chairman of Education, warned members of the General Federation at their Convention in Miami, on Thursday morning, April 30th, against the use of their club platform for the dissemination of "propaganda" by speakers who present their "subversive" government views under thinly cloaked disguises.

In urging the organization's 2,000,000 members to investigate closely speakers coming before their clubs, Mrs. Whitehurst described three types of orators to be avoided.

These speakers, "due to their subtle approach to the subject, are undermining the principles of democracy," she asserted, and are constantly appearing at the Federation's 14,500 clubs in the United States.

The first type of speaker to be guarded against was the one "that tries to impress with the fact that our democracy should be preserved, and then launches into all of its weaknesses or defects, then points out all the good points of Fascism and Communism, leaving his listeners with mixed emotions. Even if the speaker has not convinced them our form of government is bad, he has started them on a trend of thought that is dangerous."

The second type of speaker tells an audience that there is nothing to all this Communist talk. They claim that it is all exaggerated. "He is also dangerous because he is simply closing your eyes to the true conditions which might exist throughout our country today."

The third type, she continued, "tells you that any attempt to combat subversive propaganda would interfere with free speech and liberal thought. We hear a great deal about interfering with free speech, but these advocates should go to one of the countries where a dictator is in power."

To combat such propaganda, Mrs. Whitehurst asked clubwomen to begin in their own homes and schools.

"In the past," she declared, "our schools have been the melting pot of America" where children learned "to respect the flag, the Constitution, and our national heroes, and to gain the knowledge of our struggles for freedom and self-rule."

"Now these sacred ideas and ideals are being challenged. We read of teachers refusing to take the oath of allegiance and of children refusing to salute the flag."

"It is not my purpose to discuss the question as to whether it is best to work for legislation to compel our teachers to take the oath or to compel our children to salute the flag, but I do want to point out that there is something wrong in our homes and schools when individuals show such bitterness when protesting against doing something which in the past every American was proud to do and which only traitors refused to do."

Similar in trend for preservation of all that has been won through the devotion of law-abiding and loyal citizens since the founding of this country upon the highest principles that have ever been formulated into constitution and laws of any nation upon the earth, were the report and recommendation of Mrs. J. D. Atwood, of Lowell, N. M., chairman of the department of American Citizenship. In asking the National Council of the General Federation to urge legislation to strengthen the existing laws covering deportation of criminal aliens, she urged that the Federation petition Congress to pass stronger legislation making it mandatory that those aliens shall be deported who have been convicted of violating the narcotic laws, of illegal smuggling of aliens into this country, or who have been convicted of crimes, including moral turpitude, carrying prison sentences of a year or more, as well as those known to be habitual criminals.

She claimed that existing laws governing the deportation of alien criminals have proven inadequate, and recommended that the Legislative committee of the Federation go to Washington to urge passage of stricter laws at this session of Congress.

Realizing that the knowledge of our Constitution must be the safeguard of all citizens, Mrs. Atwood has prepared what she called a "Quiz" upon its component parts which she will furnish to clubs for study purposes. She aroused her hearers by the truth of her utterance:

"The security of American citizenship depends on keeping intact the six great fundamental principles of the Constitution. These principles are: representative government; Federal and State division of power; inalienable rights of citizens (life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness); independence of the judiciary; balance of power maintained by three different branches of government—executive, legislative and judicial (system of checks and balances); joint power of President and Senate in regulation of foreign policy."

She quoted from a speech of George Washington, given in 1794, (a great man and president, who did not feel it beneath his dignity, loyalty, patriotism, or intellectual attainments, to take the Oath of Allegiance): "But let them (every citizen) preserve in their affectionate vigilance over that precious depository of American happiness, the Constitution of the United States."

A further statement of Mr. J. D. Atwoods', chairman of American Citizenship, that should arouse the thoughtful consideration of clubwomen, was that in which she brought out the important part that women play in forming and maintaining a democracy:

"No government can be wholly effective that is strictly man-made and

Newton Federation Reports On Sale To Help Blind

Miss Rose Trainer, of the Division of the Blind, Department of Education of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, through the Newton Federation of Women's Clubs, would like to express her appreciation of the splendid co-operation and help given by the different Churches and Women's Clubs at the three-day sale held on June 2nd, 3rd, and 4th at 456 Newtonville avenue, Masonic Building, Newtonville. Over one hundred and fifty women, from every village in Newton, gave some time during the three days, and they will be interested to know that the final returns raised by this plan to help the blind are $747.86.

man-made. It is something on which we may well ponder that, although women represent fifty per cent of the voting strength of the nation, there are just six women who sit as Representatives among the 435 members of the lower house of Congress, and two among the 96 members of the Senate."

If clubwomen would heed the wise advice given in the following report they could safeguard their country and make women's influence a power that would give pause to every legislator who now seeks selfish political interest, and who dares to ignore the women as ineffective.

"The greatest demand for information on the part of women concerning legislative measures is in regard to crime prevention and correction, social, and economic trends, neutrality and prevention of war, public welfare, agriculture and farm conditions, conservation of natural resources," declared Mrs. William Dick Sporborg, chairman of the department of Legislation. "Critics of women's organizations state they are conditioned to defeat in legislative halls. We hold they have never yet sufficiently organized their forces for concentrated action. They have not yet become sufficiently trained to the necessity of setting up a regular correspondence with their Representatives to let them know where they stand on issues."

(Account of the Convention will be continued next week.)

What They Did And Said at Swampscott

Grace Morrison Poole made many worthwhile statements at Swampscott. They are arresting to thought. The first of her addresses was to the Juniors on "their right," Monday, May 18th. The second was on Tuesday morning, climaxing the opening session of the Senior clubwomen.

The dining-room of the Hotel was festive when over 500 Juniors dined and sang, paid honor to the officers of the Senior Club who sat at their guests at the long head table that occupied the center of the room, and watched the prize-winning play, "White Iris" which was staged across the front of the dining-room, with a setting representing the interior of a home.

Four Quincy Juniors made up the cast. This is the third time that this Club has won the annual Drama prize, and accordingly, on this gala night was presented the Silver Cup. Most appropriately, it was presented by Miss Sylvia E. Kooser from their district, and the presiding officer over their evening's Convention was another Quincy Junior, Miss Ruth Lothrop, a past president of the Quincy Junior Woman's Club, and now State chairman of Juniors.

The Procession of Juniors to Convention Hall was like a "Rose Garden," so lovely were the brilliant colors in flowers and in the evening gowns of these young women. Miss Lothrop, who is a blonde and "dainty," wore white upon which were patterned red and purple flowers. Miss Kooser wore a crisp white taffeta girdled with clusters of figured violets.

Miss Frances Leison, who presented the prizes for Poetry and Programs, and who is president of the Dorchester Junior Woman's Club, also wore a figured taffeta, with greens and yellows predominating. The Poetry prize was won by Miss Edith M. Parsons, a member of the Junior Woman's Club of Turners Falls. This is the second time that a member of this Club has won the prize for a poem.

To the Junior Ladies' Library Association of Randolph was awarded the prize for having the best Program of the year. Miss Ruth Virginia Griffin, of Medford, was lovely in an ensemble of purple and lavender, as she gave the Report of the Miami Convention. Miss Martha Wright, of Newton Centre, soloist of the evening, wore a dainty blue chiffon.

And Mrs. Poole, speaking on Convention Hall platform, with her usual sense of the fitness of things, made the perfect foil to the color scheme, harmonizing to the brilliant purples and violets in the Juniors' frocks, by wearing a frock gay and festive, and the highest note, in vivid red, setting off her dark hair and eyes, and her equally vivid personality.

Her very first words on her topic, "The Far Horizon" caught and held attention:

"In a recent picture of Charlie Chaplin's its close shows us Charlie and a little street gamin looking off over a little hill to the far horizon. I suppose every generation faces a far horizon, and tonight I want to talk about the one that faces you Juniors of the State Federation of Women's Clubs."

"There are many paths that will lead you to it, and along those paths you will meet all sorts and kinds of people."

"Countries and lives are built upon corner-stones, and one of the firmest of all is that of home-making. Our pioneer ancestors had to create their homes out of the physical wilderness of this country; you must create yours out of the mental and moral wilderness of the twentieth century. They may prove to be the one place where you can take account of yourself, prepare to meet the world, think things through, and fill your souls with the spiritual resistance for facing life."

"Another corner stone of our civilization is the belief in the community of which you are a part. I have no patience with the young or old person who scoffs about his home town. You owe a great deal to that home town. It has protected you physically; it has provided you with an education, and it has a right to ask of you in return your loyalty and co-operation in its development. The patronage of its business."

"With a growing consciousness of our social and economic responsibilities to the peoples of the United States, I am confidently certain that there will be a rebirth of the same desire that motivated the fathers of our country to put into the immortal document, the Declaration of Independence, that, 'all men should be free'."

"Leisure will be a big problem of tomorrow. Someone has said that the greatest unemployment is found between the ears, and some times I think that is true, for along that path of leisure you will find those who madly dash from one thing to the other without any consistent planning or knowledge of what it may mean to them physically, mentally, and spiritually. You will find others whose main objective in the use of leisure is to have a good time."

"I have never been able to understand how anyone can face spring and still declare his unbelief in a higher power than ourselves. I've never been able to understand how anyone can watch a sunrise or a sunset and fail to believe that outside of human limitations nothing exists. Back of it all is a divine plan for this universe of ours."

"All sorts and kinds of people you will meet along life's pathway; there will be those who will prove to be your pleasant-day friends; those who put money first and the true values of everyday living last; those who will accept no responsibility or obligations. It is just as well to pass them by, for they are not worth your friendship or confidence. But here and there, and there are more of them than you realize, you'll find the quiet, dependable, solid person whose main objective in life is to live honestly from day to day, accepting the duties of life, helping when help is needed, and fearlessly meeting its problems as they come along. I earnestly hope that the Juniors of the State Federation of Women's Club will be of this class."

And on Tuesday, Mrs. Poole gave this inspiring message to the Senior clubwomen on the topic "Why I Am Proud To Be An American Citizen."

"In this age of nationalism, for anyone to boast of his nationality possibly labels him as a Fascist or a Nazi, but pride in one's national heritage is as old as the human race, and, properly controlled and directed, is an asset to any country. I am proud of my American citizenship, because of all the countries in the world and their history-making of the past there is not one of them that has such a unique background as our own United States. On my mantel at Stoneleigh College is a reproduction of the Pioneer Mother from the statue in Oklahoma, and I look at her daily to get from her the inspiration and courage she exemplified in those days of uncertain pioneering."

"I have never been able to understand how anyone can fail to thank God that America has been the land of his residence, when he reads the unfolding of that new nation. And so one reason why I am proud of my

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

NEWTON TWI LEAGUE

The feature game of the week was played between the Independents and Our Lady's Alumni at the High School athletic field Wednesday night. The pitching of "Porky" Murphy for Our Lady's and Guido Castoldi for the Independents was outstanding. The Independents lead 1-0 going into the last inning. In the last inning the first batter, Cannon, struck out; the second batter, Lombardi, was passed as was the third hitter; Red Gallagher, the fourth man up in the inning, popped up an infield fly making the second out. Then with "Lenny" Cummings at bat Castoldi uncorked a wild pitch advancing the runners to second and third. On the next pitch Cummings hit a slow roller to Ferguson the short-stop. Ferguson had to hurry the throw and threw the ball in the dirt in front of first base. DeMille misjudged the bounce and the ball struck him in the face breaking his nose and putting him out of the game probably for the rest of the season. On this play Our Lady's scored their two runs which were the final runs of the game. Final results were Our Lady's Alumni 2, Independents 1. Due to the poor showing of the Garden City Club it was voted at the meeting held at the Newton Centre Recreation Building last Tuesday evening to place them in the Junior Circuit. A team will be selected from the Junior Circuit at the end of June to replace the Garden City Club in the upper league.

WIN RELAY MEET—END UNDEFEATED SEASON

Newton High's superior track team won their last meet of the year, the Fitchburg Relay carnival, last Saturday at the Brookline High track. In winning three out of the four races in Class D, Don Enoch's versatile crew completed their season without a single defeat all year in dual or interscholastic open competition.

Newton was Class D champion in the half-mile, two-mile and 440-yard relays, but failed to place in the mile and shuffle relays. Warren Wittens, who got his diploma with the graduating class later in the day at Newton, ran on three teams, turning in his best performance as anchor man for the half-mile quartet. The half-mile team of Paul Forte, Frank Hines, Bob Muth and Wittens ran their race in 1m 32s, lowering the record of 1:33 1/5, established by Mechanic Arts in 1927 and equalled by Brookline three years ago.

Milers Win, Fail to Score
An odd angle to the Newton victory was the failure of the mile relay team to figure in the scoring. The Newton combination of Bob Muth, Jerry Allen, Elmer Ross and Bud Wittens breezed through their heat with a good margin over Lynn English, Melrose, and Medford, but their time, 3m, 36.8s, was not fast enough to beat the first three times in the winning heat, in which Malden, Worcester Commerce and Quincy scored the top three places for the distance.

A triumph as great as it was unexpected gave Newton's two-mile team an edge over Worcester Commerce and Everett, as Mark Corthell, Pot Kelly, James Mike Regan and Elmer Ross turned in an aggregate of 8m, 33.2s, forcing Everett's favored four of Murdock, Schwartz, Piscione and Mascianica into third place. None of the Newton four had won an important 880-yard run during the season, but they combined to give Newton the fastest team in the class.

The Newton quarter-mile team of Paul Forte, Bud Huling, Jerry Allen and Frank Hines had a great fight on their hands to defeat the Brockton entry of Watson, Montgomery, Tamolonia and Kozlowski, but they eked out a victory with Bud Hines' lift at the tape, and were timed in 45s flat. This race was a reversal of the four-lap duel between the same teams last winter in the Eastern Relays, when Brockton won a tight race by holding the lead all the way. Newton's time in this race and in the half-mile was the best in the meet, but the two-mile mark was bettered more than five seconds by a surprising Belmont team in Class C.

The shuffle relay, the final event, did not count in the scoring, but Newton had a chance to capture permanently the Town Talk Trophy, an impressive piece of silverware, which goes to the first team to win the shuffle three times. Newton had won twice, but this time took third in the slower of the two heats, while Lexington, Class B champion, won the event with the time of 10:26.4 for the 2 1/2 miles. Newton's team, home in 11:18.1, was composed of Forte, Huling, Glynn, Corthell, Hines, Dussossoit, Kelly, Regan, Grant and Dolan.

Warren Wittens was deprived not only of a state meet record but a world's interscholastic record for the 120-yard low hurdles, when his time of 13.7 seconds was ruled out because of a favoring breeze.

Graduated last Saturday from high school competition were Warren Wittens, Ray Huling, Nat Heard, Paul Dussossoit, Dick Madfis, Jack Allen, Joel Covington, Steinsieck and Mengendahl, enough track talent to win the state meet. But Don Enoch will still have Paul Forte and Bud Hines, indoor and outdoor sprint kings, Jerry Allen and Bob Muth in the long sprints, Kelly, Corthell and Ross in the distance runs, Mark Messier in the high jump and Forte and Massell in the broad jump. And something will be heard from McKinnon and Pescosolido, sophomores, coming up from the junior high ranks.

A ruling which appears very sensible has been passed by the state headmasters' association, reducing the eligibility code to the simplest form it has ever had. Any boy not yet nineteen years old and passing in fourteen units of work is eligible for interscholastic competition. If a boy becomes nineteen years old during one of the three principal athletic seasons, he is allowed to complete the season with his team.

SPORT NOTES

Jeff Jones' Newton Independents shut out their two opponents in the Twin-County League last week, but dropped an air-tight game to Our Lady's Alumni in the city twi league. Three games in three nights for the Independents results in a 2-0 victory over the Natick All-Stars at Natick, a 2-1 loss to O. L. Alumni and a 7-0 shutout of Bomis Cardinals last night at Newtonville.

The Newton team had a hitting spree at Natick, with 21 safe hits. Phil Andres and Jeff Jones each got four out of five, while Bev Wilson proved a hitting pitcher with three hits in three times at bat, including a three-bagger. Wilson held the Natick batters in hand until Walter Cook, former Tabor Academy pitcher, relieved him for the last two innings.

DeMille Hurt
The Independents had a 1-0 lead over Our Lady's Alumni for five innings. Phil Green got a base on balls, stole second, and scored on Jones' single in the first inning. In the sixth, Guido Castoldi's delivery wobbled after he had struck out the first batter, and he passed two men. With two out, shortstop Howard Ferguson made a hurried throw that broke Penny DeMille's nose, both runners going home on the play to give their team the lead. "Porky" Murphy, pitching for O. L., struck out ten batters in six innings and allowed only three safe hits, two for Jones and one for Ferguson. Guido Castoldi did about as well for the Independents, fanning eight and giving only two hits, scratch singles by Colantonio and Cummings. A large crowd saw the game, one of the best played this year at the Newtonville field.

Manager Jeff Jones and John Marrazzo each hit twice in last night's 7-0 victory over the Cardinals. Newton made four runs in the third inning on a brace of two-base hits by Marrazzo and Herb Berry and singles by Joe Greene and Jones, and they added another run in each of the last three innings. Herb Berry had a fine play to his credit when he stopped a hard grounder off first base and threw to second to nip a base-runner. Jeff Jones played third and made a couple of flossy, not to say spectacular, back-hand catches of hot liners that looked like two-baggers when they left the bat.

The Independents play another three-game series next week, Wednesday, at Newtonville in the Newton Twi-League, Thursday also at home with the Natick All-Stars, and Friday at Needham.

R. Perry Elrod, baseball and football star at Brown for the last three years, closed his college sports career Wednesday by winning the Yale game with a smashing home run in the tenth inning. It was the second victory over Yale in the Bruins' most successful baseball season of recent years.

Charlie Butler, another Brown senior and also a product of Newton High, drove in the first three runs with hard-hit singles in the first and third, and singled again in the tenth to make ready for Elrod's two-run homer to deep left centre.

WPA Orchestra School Programs

The Works Progress Administration, Federal Music Project—Dr. Nikolai Sekoloff, Director and Louis J. Cornell, assistant director, have designated the week of June 15th to 21st to be devoted entirely to the playing of music by American composers.

The Newton WPA Orchestra was sponsored by Mr. Harold F. Young, city of Newton sponsor's agent and has the endorsement of all city officials, school committee and all civic and military organizations. This Orchestra was one of the first musical units, being organized in September, 1934, and is under the able supervision of Mr. Albert H. Webber, of Newton, former manager of the People's Symphony Orchestra and a professional musician for 35 years, and is conducted by Mr. Herman C. Sulzen, a former member of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, having been brought to this country as a protégé of Dr. Muck, former conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. The personnel of the orchestra is composed of unemployed professional musicians living in Newton and is considered one of the finest musical units of its kind. Many of the members play more than one instrument, thus giving a wider scope to their playing ability. The Orchestra has been playing during the past two years for the Newton Schools, Newton Hospital, Peabody Home for Crippled Children, Stone Institute, women's clubs, churches, and military and civic affairs. The school program consists of high grade music of an instructive nature by great composers, such as Beethoven, Mozart, Haydn, Bach, Brahms, etc. together with some popular selections and ballads which are sung by the children.

During the week of June 15th to 21st programs will be given as follows:

Underwood School, Newton, June 15 at 2:30.
Horace Mann School, Newtonville, June 16th, at 11 a. m.
Bigelow Jr. High School, Newton, June 17th, at 8:30 a. m.
Stearns School, Nonantum, June 17th, at 2:30 p. m.
Clafin School, Newtonville, June 18th, at 11 a. m.
Peabody Home for Crippled Children, Oak Hill, June 20th, at 10 a. m.

Arrangements are being made with the Superintendent of Playgrounds, Mr. Ernest Hermann, for playing in the various Parks throughout the city during the summer. Notice of these concerts will appear in the papers at a later date, about July 1st. The orchestra will also continue to play for the hospitals, homes, etc., during the summer.

THE ONLY SMALL THING ABOUT A BUICK

LOOK high and look low throughout this smart and spirited Buick SPECIAL, and you'll find only one thing about it that's anything but big.

It's big in its inches, length and breadth—big in the ample, stretch-out space it supplies to driver and passengers alike.

It's big in its power—it hasn't found a hill it couldn't easily master, or a driver it couldn't thrill by the fervor of its quick response, the smoothness of its stride.

It's big in the measure of its quality, seen and unseen—every nut and bolt and strut and part is eloquent testimony to Buick's insistence that the best alone will do.

It's big in the pleasure it can bring you—pleasure that comes from handling a sparkling and superior performer—pleasure that's yours from owning a car so obviously better than mere transportation requires.

It's big in the satisfactions it yields—from the smartness of its valid streamline style, from the surety of its comfort, and your knowledge that the family couldn't be safer in a car.

It's big in every way, until you reach for the tag that names the price—then you find that it's only a short step up from the lowest-priced field to the Buick of your dreams. $765* and up, list at Flint, the price tag on the Buick SPECIAL, Series 40, reads, and the terms are within anyone's reach.

You'll be happier in a Buick. You'll get more back for your money. Come see it—drive it—and prove the only small thing about it is its price.

Aldermen Refuse Business Zones On Turnpike

Grant Filling Station Permit at West Newton

The Board of Aldermen held a regular meeting on Monday night and reverted decidedly to the practice which has characterized Boards in the past few years. The meeting, scheduled to start at 7:45, began at 8:18. At 8:26 a recess was taken to allow committees to meet. This recess lasted until 11 o'clock. The regular meeting was then resumed and adjourned about midnight.

The first business before the meeting was a hearing on the proposal to have the Aldermen order or give permission to the Edison Company to place its wires underground in Commonwealth ave. between Walnut st. and the Newton-Boston line. Mr. Johnson of the Edison Company explained that customers of that company would have to pay about 75c per linear foot to have the wires placed underground between the street line and residences, this cost to be paid in advance. He said that some houses along the avenue now have stanchion connections with the electric wires and the owners of these would not have to pay again where the wires are now underground. About 90 residences will be affected.

The petition of James H. Cronin for a gasoline filling station at 1229 Washington st. was granted. The License Committee was divided on this matter. Aldermen Colby, Brocklesby, Akins and Guzzi voted in favor; Inghes, Schipper and Walker opposed. Colby said he favored the granting of the permit because the proposed station will be the only one of several in the neighborhood to have an enclosed lubrication, and the only one to sell Blue Sunoco. Alderman Hutchinson favored the petition on the ground that gasoline stations ought to be clustered together. Alderman Walker opposed the petition because there are now several gasoline stations within a short distance of the proposed station, including one on the next lot and several others within a stone's throw. Walker said he does not want to see Newton cluttered with gas.

John M. Fitzgerald P. O. Supt., Retires

John M. Fitzgerald, superintendent of the Newton postoffice since Nov. 14, 1928, will retire from duty tomorrow because of poor health. Mr. Fitzgerald was born in Marlboro on May 25, 1880. He came to Newton over 40 years ago and was for several years in the employ of the Newton & Boston Street Railway. He was appointed a substitute letter carrier at the Newton Centre Postoffice on Sept. 1, 1904, and two years later was assigned to the Oak Hill route, using a horse and buggy to deliver the mail in that scattered section. In 1917 he was transferred to the Parker st. route at Newton Centre and in 1919 he was transferred to a clerkship and assigned to the Newton postoffice. In 1920 he was transferred to the Newton Centre office and later became a special clerk and acting foreman there. In 1909 Mr. Fitzgerald married Mary C. Doyle of Newton Centre. They have two children—Mary, a teacher in the Watertown schools, and John W., a student at Newton High School.

More Parking Restrictions

Rescue Kitten From Tall Tree

Ladder 3 of the Newton Fire Department was called out at 9:12 Thursday morning to rescue a 6-months-old kitten from a large elm tree opposite 191 Pearl st., Newton. The kitten, owned by Michael Eustis, had been marooned near the top of the tree for three days. Fireman George Monks climbed 63 feet up the aerial ladder to take the kitten from the small limb to which it was clinging.

Bonus Will Not Stop Relief To Newton Veterans

Edmund T. Dungan, Soldiers' Relief Commissioner for Newton, has issued a ruling that the 125 veterans now obtaining soldiers' relief from this city will continue to obtain relief payments provided they do not cash the bonus bonds they have just received. He has further ruled that the bonus bond recipients may cash some of their bonds for such necessities as medical and dental care without their relief payments being affected. They may not cash the bonds for the purchase of automobiles or other non-essentials. Mr. Dungan has instructed those obtaining soldiers' relief from the city, and who have received the bonds, to make new applications for relief so as to give information as to what disposition they intend to make of the bonus bonds.

Beetles Killing Newton Elm Trees

Elm tree beetles which for several years have been devastating New England's most admired shade trees have been raising havoc with the elms along the Charles River in this city, as well as in numerous sections of Newton. So bad has been the attack on the trees this season by the beetles, that George Rogers, head of the Forestry Division, has had to use 31 men from the highway division in addition to his regular force and an additional appropriation of $3000 was made by the Aldermen to combat the pests. The beetles eat the elm leaves and trees which are attacked by them for three successive years die.

Careless Smoking Causes Fire

Another fire in this city was caused early yesterday morning by careless smoking. Engine 2 was called at 3 a. m. to the house at 328 Cherry st., West Newton, to extinguish a fire in the lower apartment occupied by James J. Kelly. The fire was confined to the room in which it started.

Coast-to-Coast Broadcast From Day Jr. High

The climax of the season for broadcasting by the Radio Club at the Frank A. Day Junior High School took place this morning on a coast-to-coast hook up over the Blue network of the NBC. The program was given over Station WBZ from 11:30 to 12 m., and is said to be the first time in history that Newton has thus been featured. Engineers from the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. were present to take the program right from the school.

The program took the form of a "town meeting," with the subject for discussion being "Shall the Length of the School Day Be More Like That of the Business World, with No Home Work?" Robert Oleson was chairman of the discussion. Others participating included Edmund Miller, Jack Hoiter, Nadylis Dalton, Hannah Sherman, Daniel Needham, Ernest Colarullo, Miriam Cronan and Phyllis Petrio. Arguments for and against such a change were made and questions were asked of the Ninth Grade students who met in the assembly hall to hear the program.

Rep. Luitwieler Given Desk Set

At the close of the session of the Mass. House of Representatives on Tuesday afternoon Rep. Clarence S. Luitwieler of Newton Highlands was honored by members of the House in observance of his 75th birthday. Members of the Committee on State Administration of which Mr. Luitwieler has been chairman for the past eight years presented him with a magnificent desk set, suitably engraved. The gift was made for the committee by Rep. Walter Baylies of Taunton. In responding Rep. Luitwieler told his admiration for Speaker Leverett Saltonstall, his colleague from the 5th Middlesex district and of his regard for Rep. Horace Cahill, who preceded him as chairman of the committee on State Administration and who is the prospective Speaker of the House next year. In closing Rep. Luitwieler expressed his intentions of being a candidate for re-election with the desire to "serve under Governor Saltonstall and Speaker Cahill."

Campaign For Newtonville Library Bldg.

Seek $40,000 In Short, Intensive Drive

Newtonville's most pressing community need a building for its branch library—is the objective of the campaign for $40,000 announced yesterday by Albert M. Lyon, chairman of the campaign committee. Plans for a one day campaign to be held late this month under the sponsorship of the Newtonville Library Association Incorporated are rapidly being pushed to completion at the headquarters established in the Orr Building.

For years, the Newtonville Branch Library has been greatly handicapped by utterly inadequate accommodations. Although the circulation of the Newtonville branch is by far the largest of any branch in the city it is without a building to house its activities. A site for the proposed building at the corner of Walnut st. and Highland ave. where the former Newton Club stood has already been secured. This campaign is the next step in meeting Newtonville's needs.

Commenting on the campaign plans Mr. Lyon declared that he believed that Newtonville citizens were ready to respond quickly and generously to the appeal. "This will be the shortest capital fund campaign in the history of Newton or, I am told, of the country," said Mr. Lyon. "We are going to see to it that every resident in Newtonville is called upon in one day. I know that when Newton citizens realize the need for a great civic improvement like this library building they act and act quickly. I am sure that this campaign will add another unique distinction to our city."

In addition to the fact that the Newtonville branch has the largest circulation of any in the city Mr. Lyon pointed out that its location near the Newton Senior High School makes an adequate building even more essential. Many of the 2600 pupils of the Senior High School make use of the present library but under very great handicaps.

About a year and a half ago the Newtonville Improvement Association appointed a Library Committee which has carefully studied the problem. The activities of the committee resulted in the formation of the Newtonville Library Association Incorporated whose officers are Mr. George W. Taylor, President; Miss Margaret McGill, Vice-president; Mr. Adam Haug, Treasurer; and Mrs. Ernest P. Rallsback, Clerk. The Association is sponsoring the present campaign.

The Executive Committee of the campaign are Mr. Albert M. Lyon, General Chairman of the Committee; Mr. Edwin P. Crawe, Associate Chairman; Mr. Frank Richardson, Treasurer; Mr. George W. Taylor, Nominating Chairman; Mr. Charles Raymond Cabot, Chairman of Lists; Mr. Charles R. Lynde, Special Gifts Chairman; Mr. William A. McCormick, Chairman of Speakers Committee; (Continued on Page 10)

Will Stop Use of Newton Streets as Outdoor Stores

The growing practice of the use of public highways by persons selling merchandise of various kinds from automobiles received attention from the Newton Board of Aldermen on Monday night. Alderman George Rawson of Ward 7 informed the Board that the Claims & Rules Committee, of which he is chairman, has requested City Solicitor Bartlett to revise Section 265, Chapter 26, of the City Ordinances so that peddlers, hawkers and other traveling business men will be prohibited from using Newton streets and competing with Newton merchants who pay high rent for stores in this city and pay appreciable taxes to Newton.

Alderman Rawson stated that business men have been complaining that for some weeks past ice cream trucks have been parking in front of stores selling this delicacy and entering into competition. He stated that his committee had corresponded with the Newton Chamber of Commerce to obtain suggestions from that body regarding a restricting ordinance. The proposed ordinance will prohibit the sale of merchandise on streets in the business zones of this city. It will restrict the time that any automobile may stop to sell merchandise on a street in a residence zone to 5 minutes, and that the next stop cannot be made within 200 feet. The ordinance will prohibit the use of a bell, gong, or similar device to attract attention, and peddlers cannot cry their wares in such a manner as to disturb residents of the city.

Alderman Barwise, who brought this matter to the attention of the Claims & Rules Committee, said he had received complaints from business men at Newton Corner that the ice cream trucks had parked in front of stores there for long periods on Memorial Day. Alderman Brocklesby said that the ice cream trucks have been parked across sidewalks, blocking passage by pedestrians. The point was raised that some peddlers park their trucks without permission in private driveways and on private land, thus violating the law by doing business in residence zones.

Hickey Appointed To Police Force

Edward A. Hickey of 168 Nevada st., Newtonville, was appointed a regular member of the Newton police force yesterday to succeed the late William Kiley. Hickey is a life-long resident of Newton. Hickey was first on the reserve list. He served overseas with the 26th Division and for several years has been captain of a National Guard Company at Cambridge. Thomas M. Kiley of 138 Westland avenue, West Newton, son of the late Patrolman Kiley, was appointed a member of the reserve force by Chief Hughes.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION

The opinion of the Supreme Court that the Massachusetts Legislature has the power to call itself together under the proposed plan for biennial sessions should be regarded as a most important decision. Much of the opposition to the biennial session plan for Massachusetts is concerned with the possibility that the affairs of state would suffer tremendously if an administration similar to that which now exists in this state were left to itself for twenty months or more without legislative influence. Heretofore it was believed that the Massachusetts Great and General Court could only be called into session by the Governor except each year upon the first Wednesday of January as prescribed in the State Constitution. The proposed amendment for meeting every second year on the first Wednesday in January carries the clause to the effect that nothing in this section shall prevent the General Court from assembling in the interests of the common welfare. The court opinion further points out that a majority vote of the Legislature may determine when it shall assemble again and it is presumed that in the event special legislation is desired by a majority of the members that the body could legally convene. While the opinion may well be regarded as a setback to the so-called efficiency of the biennial plan it will be more acceptable to those who see in biennial sessions the further encroachment of bureaucracy and autocracy through the delegation of powers to administrative bureaus, commissions and councils.

VETERAN POSTAL EMPLOYEE RETIRES

For nearly thirty-two years John M. Fitzgerald has served the residents of Newton and Newton Centre as a postal carrier, clerk and postmaster. For the past eight years he has been the postmaster at the Newton Corner Office. Tomorrow Mr. Fitzgerald will relinquish the duties of this post because of poor health which confined him to his home for nearly three months this past spring. The postal service in Newton has not been free from complaints and occasional dissatisfaction upon the part of Newton residents. Many of these complaints have been, however, beyond the control of the local office and Mr. Fitzgerald has at all times been co-operative and efficient in improving conditions. The Newton Corner office has handled more mail than any other of the local offices, either before or since the centralization plan was put into effect. The Newton postal service has benefited from the guidance of Mr. Fitzgerald and his many friends wish him years of happiness ahead.

NEWTON ON THE AIR

School radio broadcasts in Newton have been more or less frequent during the school year which closes today. The climax this morning brings nation-wide attention through the coast-to-coast broadcast from the Frank A. Day Jr. High School over the blue network. The topic for discussion as to whether or not the school day shall be made to correspond more closely to the business day and with home study eliminated provokes a trend of thought entirely foreign to the school days of our time. Two decades and more ago it was considered the height of impertinence and presumption to question the decisions of the school committee and the school officials. Their word was law and when they ruled that the hours were from 8:30 to 12 and from 1:30 to 3:30 the school pupils had nothing to say. It would seem that the elder generation now realizes that it can be taught by the younger generation. How times have changed and how much more beneficial it is to have this broader outlook.

Since graduation he has been in the service of the Gamewell Company and has made many friends among the various city officials of the country.

This Week at Your Boys' and Girls' Library

Vernon St., Newton Corner

"BOOKS WE LIKE"

Sixty-two Massachusetts authors answered the question, "Please choose, and give reasons for your choice, ten books, exclusive of the Bible and Shakespeare, dictionaries and encyclopedias, and other ordinary reference books, that you believe should be in every public library." You may find their answers to this question compiled in "Books We Like" which has just been published by the Massachusetts Library Association. Here is a book to which you will want to return again and again for one perusing is insufficient to capture all that the book has to offer you. Not only will you be interested in the lists of books included but also in the thoughtful comments which the authors have given for the reason of their choices.

Among the authors included is one who is a very familiar friend and counselor to all those to whom fine books for boys and girls are of primary importance. We refer to Bertha E. Mahony, Founder of the Bookshop for Boys and Girls, Joint Editor of the Horn Book, Realms of Gold in Children's Books, and Contemporary Illustrators of Children's Books.

Miss Mahony has given us a list of her favorites among the books for boys and girls and we can do no better than quote directly from her.

Johnny Crow's Garden—Leslie Brooke. "Because the pictures are witty and wise; a beloved volume for the child of one and a half to three years, it will never cease to delight."

A B C Book—Falls.

Joan of Arc—Boutet De Monvel. "A picture book to wonder over and grow on—about a saint and the way of the world with a saint, today no less than yesterday."

Poppy Seed Cakes—Clark. "A delightful story about Andrew and his little sister Erminka; written by Presbyterian Americans but gaining by appreciation of the color and tradition of our citizens from Europe."

Floating Island—Parrish. "Because of the sheer delight of this story of shipwreck of the Doll family and their experiences on a desert island. The author's pictures and text vie with each other in their originality and zest."

Rootabaga Stories—Sandburg. "Because they are gay, irresponsible tales of the mixed chaotic life of America, made 'marvellous' and 'ticklish' by a poet."

The Wonderful Adventures of Nils—Lagerlof.

"For the grandeur and beauty of its telling of folk tales and legends of Sweden compounded into a great piece of literature simple enough for reading aloud to an eight-year-old."

Master Simon's Garden—Meigs. "Because without preaching or moralizing it presents the power in everyday life of loving kindness expressed with intelligence and courage."

Boy of the South Seas—Tietjens. "A fine story with a pattern for satisfying living and elements which must go to make it, whatever the time and place."

Hansi—Bemelmans. "A story universal in its theme—a little boy's Christmas visit to his uncle's farm in the elements of the Austrian Tyrol—distinguished in text and illustrations; showing simple living, dignified and beautiful and in harmony with the natural world."

60 YEARS AGO

Newton Republican, June 19, 1874

The graduating exercises of the class of '74, Newton High School, will take place at 8:30 o'clock a. m. on Tuesday next, June 23rd.

Committees are busily engaged examining the classes in the different schools. No set day for public examinations is given. Visitors are always welcome to any session of the schools to witness the exercises.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday afternoon the committee on highways reported in favor of widening Elmwood st. by taking 10 feet from the land of Joseph N. Bacon, amounting to 1330 square feet and paying $4000 for the same. Alderman Pratt submitted a minority report protesting against the widening and the spending of so much money at this time.

Contrary to the city ordinances boys have been swimming in Silver Lake, Nonantum, in spite of remonstrances of people living near. Patrolman Howe, Parker and Gleason of Watertown, with Special Officer Stearns of Newton, bagged about 20 boys Wednesday evening. The officers took their names and then let them go on promise of good behavior.

The dry goods stores did not open on June 17. Business generally was suspended on that day, flags were displayed and the day observed as a holiday. The rain in the morning interfered with some plans.

At the meeting of the School Committee on Wednesday afternoon Mr. Allen asked in regard to the necessity of employing a writing master for our schools. Mr. Worcester thought it a necessity for the present although he hoped that in the near future teachers in the various schools would be able to attend to it without the aid of a special instructor.

Tuesday evening Mr. Williamson and Mr. McNab, the celebrated fencing instructors, gave an entertaining in the rooms of the Newton Caledonian Club. The ability displayed by the pair was marvelous. During the evening the pipers of the club enlivened proceedings by playing some old Scottish airs.

The lecture on Sunday afternoon at Eliot Church by Professor Mather on "A Sabbath in Russia" will be at 5 o'clock to give all an opportunity to attend.

What an improvement it would make in the appearance of the grounds about the High School to keep the lawn shaven and a few flowers in the bare spaces. The janitor could probably find time to go to it without infringing on his other duties.

The fire alarm on Tuesday afternoon was a test alarm. The Hook and Ladder Company responded. By an oversight they had not been notified not to appear.

50 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, June 19, 1886
About the only excitement in Newton on June 17 was the visit of a party of Somerville people in a trolley coach escorted by bicyclists.

The Boston police commissioners have announced that no liquor licenses will be granted this year at Oak square, Brighton. This is good news to Newton residents near the Brighton line.

Arthur W. Porter of this city took part in the bicycle race for boys under 15 at the Brockton races and won the prize, a $10 gold medal. The Boston Herald says he "walked away" from his opponents and promises to be a fine rider.

Kenrick Bridge floated down the Charles from Oak Hill 5 months ago. Residents in the vicinity who used it are asking—"When shall we have another bridge?"

On Friday evening, June 18, persons interested in a "horrible parade" for July 4th morning met in Mason Hall and made plans.

25 YEARS AGO

Newton Graphic, June 23, 1911

The extraordinary growth of Free Masonry in this city for the past few years has given Dalhousie Lodge a very large membership and has caused the Grand Lodge to revive the charter of Fraternity Lodge which was originally granted in 1876 and surrendered in 1888.

Norumbega Park has again demonstrated its popularity as a pleasure resort by starting off with a record-breaking attendance on Decoration Day, followed by the largest attendance last Sunday in the history of the resort. This increase has been largely due to the increased car service from Dudley Street Terminal by way of Roxbury Crossing and Brookline Village.

The committee appointed by the Newton Improvement Association to inspect the Underwood School reports that although the building is old it has a very satisfactory location, the classrooms have plenty of sunlight, and its system of ventilation, which employs a motor to drive air through the building, seems to be satisfactory.

Powers' Paragraphs

We have been asked to comment on the condition of the gas main along Watertown st., Newtonville, from Albernarle rd. westerly toward Wildwood ave. and Kensington st. Leaks have occurred in this main during the past few years and a man and woman nearly asphyxiated when fumes from a broken main entered a house. Instead of repairing the main here and there along the stretch mentioned, residents of the neighborhood contend a new main should be laid for the entire distance.

Mayor Childs has sent a communication to the Board of Aldermen asking that action be taken on the acceptance or rejection of the bequest to the city by the late Miss Elizabeth Spear of her former home at the corner of Washington st. and Walnut pk., Newton. The property includes 14,027 square feet of land and a dwelling.

In making the bequest Miss Spear specified that no buildings shall be erected on the property other than those now there, and if those buildings shall be removed, the place be kept as a green spot to help beautify the city. Public Buildings Commissioner Hageman made an inspection of the property. He reported that "the dwelling there is valueless to the city because of its age and obsolescence; that the land is of no use to the city except for resale to private owners."

Undoubtedly, Mr. Hageman made his report using his best judgment, and many will agree with him. Other residents of Newton, who have lived here all or most of their lives, who are conversant with local affairs and needs, and who have long observed the Spear property, will not agree with Mr. Hageman's report. The dwelling on the property is old and antiquated, and while it might be of no value for any of the city's regular activities, it could be remodeled at no great expense to house some philanthropic or social agency functioning for the benefit of Newton people. For two score years the house was a haven for the poor of Newton and Nonantum who went there to receive aid from Miss Spear.

And even though no use were found for the dwelling and it should be razed, the land would be of some use to the city if converted into a "green spot" as Miss Spear suggested. Green spots in Newton are becoming fewer as the city becomes more urban in character. The large, beautiful estates which were so numerous in this city a generation ago, have nearly all gone. The well kept Soule estate across Walnut Park from the Spear house is now unoccupied and for sale. But, the Walnut Park Country Day School property abuts the Spear estate and includes a large, attractive area. Little people, although small in area, will be assets to Newton in years to come. One example of such a park is the former Wheeler estate at the corner of Centre and Vernon sts., presented to the city several years ago by public spirited citizens of Newton. Elizabeth Spear deserves a memorial for a life devoted to charity. The city should accept her gift.

Boston used to be the literary center of America in the 19th century. It is contended that the former "Athens of America" lost this distinction years ago. But, after reading advertisements of houses for sale in Boston newspapers, we feel convinced that this section promises to regain its lost literary laurels.

We hope that sometime in the not too remote future business people who pay big money for advertising in means of radio broadcasts will realize that the big majority of radio listeners are not primarily interested in baseball scores and race track betting returns. About half of the radio broadcasts between 6 and 7 on Boston stations seem to be on one or the other of these subjects.

Several years ago former Mayor Weeks recommended to the Board of Aldermen that any land owned by the city should be sold, should the city dispose of such land, at open sale to the highest bidder, and not privately to some individual who might offer a specified price to the city. That recommendation of Mayor Weeks was a good one and should be followed in any future sales of city owned land. Because of non-payment of taxes the city has in recent years acquired title to many parcels of real estate. From time to time offers of purchase are made to the city for certain of these parcels of land. Usually the persons desiring to buy such land are looking for bargain prices and a very profitable resale. The taxpayers of Newton are entitled to share in whatever profits are derived from the sale of land owned by the city. Men conversant with municipal affairs believe that such land should be sold at public auction and well advertised; signs being posted on each parcel to be sold so that ample publicity will be given. By such a method no accusations of favoritism or connivance can be made.

Did you ever think you would live to see potatoes more costly than oranges? Twenty-five cents for four pounds of spuds about the size of large chestnuts. Another campaign argument for the Republicans. Many families are being compelled to substitute rice or other foods for potatoes.

Residents of Bacon st., Newton, one of the narrowest highways in this city are being kept awake nights by huge trucks which are being driven over this street instead of through Washington and Centre sts. at Newton Corner. This condition has arisen since Watertown st. has been closed to heavy trucks during night hours.

In the days prior to the World War when monarchies were prevalent in Europe, emperors and kings mutually honored one another by bestowing decorations. With the wiping out of royalties this pleasant custom was largely abolished. But, in this country we have a sort of resemblance in the growing vogue of college presidents and lesser intelligentsia awarding, or influencing the awarding of degrees upon each other. "Doctors" are so on the increase that they have ceased to be a novelty. As late as the latter part of the Victorian era if one were alluded to as a "doctor," it was commonly supposed that the person referred to was a physician. Dentists were accorded that title by a sort of courtesy. Now, when one is called "doctor," he or she may be someone engaged in physiology, psychology, theology, ichthyology, mathematics, politics, finance, clairvoyance or the Lord knows what not.

In the Boston Globe last Sunday was an interview with Governor Landon written by Michael E. Hennessy. The writer quoted the Landon chauffeur as saying—"The Governor likes to drive fast. He likes to go about 60." Like some other politicians, Governor Landon is a big help in the campaign for Highway Safety; in the effort to reduce automobile accidents which caused 36,100 deaths and 895,280 injuries in this country in 1935.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

F. A. DAY SCHOOL WINS TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Paced by its leader, Albert "Sonny" Everts, F. A. Day's tennis team swept the fourth annual junior high school tennis tournament placing three of its players in the semi-finals and amassing an unprecedented total of ten points to Bigelow's three and Warren's two. For the second consecutive year the Weeks team failed to score a point.

Everts was seeded number one and went through the tournament without dropping a set. He disposed of his teammate, Ernie Johnson in the final round by a 6-3, 6-1 score. Johnson was seeded three. Tom Cowan, seeded two, was in trouble from the start and had his hands full, in disposing of Bill Byrne of Bigelow in the first round, only to meet the giant-killer, pint-sized Phil Scanlon of Day who put Cowan out in a marathon match, 1-6, 6-4, 9-7.

Weeks' seeded player, Bob Conlon, met an earlier fate at the hands of Jack Carder of Warren, to the tune of 6-0, 6-4. Leon Kreuger, Bigelow's seeded entry went through two difficult rounds before being ousted by Everts in the semi-final round by 6-3, 6-2 scores.

The summary: First round: Everts (Day) d. John Lynch (Weeks) 6-0, 6-0; Bill Baker (Bigelow) d. Bill Woods (Warren) 6-2, 6-4. Bill Harber (Day) d. Bob Kitchen (Weeks) 6-0, 6-2. Kreuger (Bigelow) d. Bill Barber (Warren) 6-3, 6-0. Johnson (Day) d. John Rich (Bigelow) 6-3, 6-1. Carder (Warren) d. Conlon (Weeks) 6-0, 6-4. Scanlon (Day) d. Jack Gahan (Weeks) 6-0, 6-0. Cowan (Warren) d. Byrne (Bigelow) 3-6, 6-4, 6-4.

Second round: Everts d. Baker 6-0, 6-0. Kreuger d. Harber 6-3, 6-1. Johnson d. Carder 11-9, default. Scanlon d. Cowan 1-6, 6-4, 9-7.

MATERIALS WANTED

No citizen of Newton needs to be told that our playgrounds rank among the finest in the country but many of us may not know that our children have a reputation for making excellent handicraft from discarded materials.

Every year a plea is made asking housewives to save odds and ends gathered during the year, empty spools, stockings, ribbons, tape, pieces of silk or cloth, paper dolls, envelope linings, embroidery materials, wool or articles suitable for prizes. The answer to this plea is always generous and the materials aid in keeping five hundred young children busy and happy during the summer season. If you have a donation, the playground truck will call for it at your house by appointment if you will call the Playground Department—Centre Newton 4700.

NEWTON TWI LEAGUE

The Independents, behind the no-hit pitching of Guido Castoldi, knocked the Giants out of first place and are now in a triple tie for the lead with Y. M. C. A. and Our Lady's Alumni. The Giants handicapped by lack of pitchers dropped farther behind by losing to "Porky" Murphy of Our Lady's Alumni team by a score of 8-2.

Y. M. C. A. defeated the Cubs 1-0 in a well played game to keep pace with Our Lady's and the Independents.

In the Junior Division Cabot continued to lead followed by the Ramblers who were nosed out by the Pals in a last inning rally Tuesday night by a score of 3-2. The Pals with two victories are in third place.

Garden City Club finally managed to win a game defeating Centre A. C. at Victory Field Wednesday night by a score of 5-3.

Beginning next week the Ramblers will play their home games at Cabot rather than Victory. Their home night will be Thursday as formerly.

NEWTON CHAPTER, ORDER OF DEMOLAY

Newton Chapter, Order of DeMolay, took an active part in the Annual State DeMolay Field Day, which was held at the Riverside Recreational Field on Saturday, June 13th. Despite the fact that weather was bad, a good attendance was in force to further the success of the day.

The Field Day Prize, given to the Chapter winning the most points, was awarded to King Arthur Chapter of Norwood. They won the track meet, baseball and swimming meets. Newton Chapter, regained the State Championship in the Patrol contest, by defeating the Patrols of Springfield, Worcester, and Lexington Chapters. This is the fifth year the Newton Patrol has won this honor. Last year was the only time since 1931 when the contests started, that Newton Chapter has not won first place. In 1935 they were awarded second place. The day came to a close with a dance in the boat house.

The event closes the DeMolay season for Newton Chapter till next fall when the first meeting will be held in September. An Alumni Chapter is to be started in the fall for those members who have reached their majority and can no longer be active members of Newton Chapter.

Found Not Guilty Of Drunken Driving

Lawrence Visco of 153 Crescent st., Waltham, was found not guilty of driving a car while under the influence of liquor by Judge Quinn in the Newton court on Monday. Visco was arrested at 12:20 a. m. on June 4 by Patrolman Charles Mague on River st., West Newton. Mague testified in court on Monday that he had observed Visco operating a car with only one headlight and in zig-zag course along River st. According to Mague when he stopped the car, Visco had difficulty in finding the registration and his breath smelled of beer. Patrolman Geegan, who went on the police patrol wagon to bring in Visco after Mague had arrested the defendant, testified that Visco was perfectly sober and there was no odor of liquor from his breath. Patrolman Joseph Kelly who drove the wagon when Visco was brought to police headquarters, and Lieutenant Mahoney, who booked Visco, both agreed with Geegan that Visco was not under the influence of liquor. Judge Quinn found Visco not guilty.

Short Change Men Return Money

Two "short change" crooks were arraigned in the Newton court on last Friday charged with larceny of $10 from Miss Marcel Ponce, a clerk at Brae Burn Country Club, West Newton. The pair, Francis Leo and Thomas Marsh, who gave home addresses as in New York City, were arrested at Lee, Mass., last week by State Police for obtaining money in that town by the "Short Change" racket. They were found guilty in the Lee district court and then brought to Newton by Inspectors Crowley and Burke. Miss Ponce testified that on May 31 Leo entered the Brae Burn Club, bought some cigars, tendered a $20 bill in payment and was given his change. A few minutes later Marsh entered the place, bought some cigars and gave a $10 bill in payment. Marsh then asked Miss Ponce if she could give him a $20 bill. In the money transactions she was victimized of $10. Leo denied he was in West Newton on May 31; he asserted he was in Pennsylvania making out his bonus application. Miss Ponce called the court's attention to the fact that May 31 was a Sunday. Judge Allen told the two defendants they would file the charges against them if they made restitution of the $10. They readily agreed. It is alleged that the pair are wanted in many New York and Pennsylvania places for similar offences.

Weeks Jr. High

On Wednesday, June 10, the Weeks School were hosts to the prospective seventh graders of next fall. The pupils from the several grade schools were accompanied by their principals and teachers. A program was presented including talks by Mr. Blaisdell, principal of the Weeks School; Miss McGrath, assistant principal; Mrs. Blake and Mr. Perrault, advisors to the seventh grade girls and boys respectively; and by Miss Wilder, director of the school clubs. Part II of the program was comprised of the following numbers by pupils of the Weeks School: "March," the Weeks Band; a talk by the president of the Student Council, Tom Burkhardt; Selection, Harmonica Club; a talk by the captain of the boys' Student Patrol, Tersino D'Eugenio; Saxophone Solo, Donald Flinchbaugh; remarks by the president of the Seventh grade, William Cooke; a dance by some seventh grade girls; Selections by the Glee Club; and "Hail Our Junior High School," the Weeks Band. Following the program, the visitors were taken on a conducted tour of the building, with refreshments being served in the cafeteria.

The annual outing of the members of the Student Council was held on Thursday, June 11. Six bus loads were taken from the school to the wharf of the Steel Pier, on which an all-day sail to Provincetown was thoroughly enjoyed.

On Monday, June 15, Mrs. Frances B. Settle, associate director of the American Institute of Normal Methods, spoke to the ninth grade in regard to the demonstration classes in music to be offered at the summer session of the institute to be held at Lasell Junior College from July 8 to 29. Instrumental and vocal ensemble instruction will be provided, and pupils of the ninth grade may take advantage of the classes without incurring any expense other than the music itself.

The girls of the commercial classes have presented to the school library a framed autographed photograph of Helen Keller. Miss Keller very graciously sent this picture to the class in reply to a letter sent to her while the class was studying her autobiography.

Bigelow Junior H. S.

The Ninth Grade Dramatic Club presented a very colorful pageant, "The Summoning of the Nations," at the assembly June 10. Mary Louise Underwood was the Spirit of History; Mary O'Donnell, the Standard Bearer of Italy; Margaret Dwight, the Standard Bearer of France; William Baker, the Standard Bearer of Germany; Burton Thornquist, the Standard Bearer of England; Jack Lowell, the Standard Bearer of the United States; and William Ford, the Standard Bearer of Russia. Pupils of the Seventh, Eighth and Ninth Grade French classes, sang the Roman War Hymn, the Marseillaise, Welcome Sweet Spring, Rule Britannia, the Star Spangled Banner, the Russian Hymn, and the Hymn to the Nations.

About 90 members of the Ninth Grade, plus three faculty members, enjoyed a day's outing to Provincetown, Thursday, June 11.

The finals of the girls' tennis tournament are being held this week. The winner of the Seventh Grade tournament is Patricia Turcheon, of the Eighth Grade Christine MacDonald, and of the Ninth Grade Genevieve Hansen. Girls in the Ninth Grade who were awarded B's for athletic accomplishments are: Virginia Weston, Margaret Dwight, Priscilla Cox, Genevieve Hansen, Frances Carroll, Eleanor Morgan, Alice Denney, Marjorie MacMullen and Lillian Hara.

The Eighth Grade Dramatic Club presented the "Bill of Fare" at the assembly June 17. The story centered around an auction, with Donald Coligan as the auctioneer. Other members of the cast were Stafford Osborn, Beatrice Mandelstam, John Eusden, Herbert Pingree, Ruth Hunter, Elizabeth Feola, Eleanor Luchini, Annetta Yanco, Robert Nardone, Katherine Hogan, Nancy Smith, Robert Gallant, Donald Ferguson, Barnaby Smith, Virginia Wallace and Jane Hearn.

Day Jr. High School

It was especially fitting at this season of the year that Miss Doris Greenwood, of the Massachusetts Safety Council, should address the school on wise summer practices and precautions. At Friday's assembly, Miss Greenwood gave constructive counsel to the school, answering questions placed before her by several ninth graders. They were Beatrice Nelson, Donata Colucci, Robert Woods, and James Martin. Mr. Burkhardt added a brief word of advice, urging all to keep judgment the foe of dare-devilery. Everyone has to demonstrate courage at some time in his life, he explained, so no one has the right to take reckless chances, whether while bicycling on the highway, or swimming in a nearby lake. Elsie Marcell was chairman of the assembly. Ernest Johnson read a paper on the comparative safety of the aeroplane.

One hundred and fifty happy students waved farewell to their student classmates at a quarter of nine last Thursday morning, bound for Rouses Wharf and the "Steel Pier" which was to be their maritime home for the day, with Provincetown their destination.

Not to be outdone by those who had gone "to the sea in ships," the ten winners of the aviation contest gathered at East Boston as guests of "Capt. Bill" Wineapaw for a flight in his "LaTouraine" plane. This proved a never-to-be-forgotten experience for every winner.

On Wednesday, Mr. Merriam took two of his science classes on a boat trip around Boston Harbor to visit interesting points. Mr. Thornton and Miss Johnson accompanied the group. Supper and entertainment were enjoyed on an island.

Aldermen Meet

oline stations as are the approaches to New York and Philadelphia. Alderman Lyon concurred with Mr. Walker. By a rising vote of 12 to 7 the petition was granted.

Alderman Rawson, reporting for the Claims and Rules Committee recommended that the proposed zoning changes for Nonantum which change a large part of that section from manufacturing to business and general residence zone, be passed. Alderman Atkins raised a charter objection which was not allowed by President Floyd because the matter had been discussed at previous meetings. Atkins claimed he had not had sufficient opportunity to study the proposed changes. Alderman Barwise of Ward 1 told Atkins that he has had the same opportunities as have other members of the Board. Alderman McCabe of Ward 1 favored the changes. Atkins had attended several hearings held on this matter before the Claims and Rules Committee, but in deference to his wishes action on the change was postponed until the next meeting.

The Board voted leave to withdraw on the petition of Rose Lehan to change land at Washington st. and Quinobeguin rd., Lower Falls from single residence to business zone. Alderman Cronin argued for the granting of this petition. He contended that the land is not suited for residential purposes and that its owner should be given the right to make beneficial use of her property. Alderman Brocklesby agreed with Cronin. Alderman Rawson said that the land is opposite the Metropolitan Reservation which affords a beautiful view along the Charles River, and it abuts an attractive residential section. Alderman Lyon concurred with Rawson that it would be detrimental both to the attractive public reservation and nearby residential properties to permit business to encroach at this location.

The petition of Mary Belger to have land at 2 Elliot st., Newton Highlands changed from general residence to business zone was also denied by the Board. Alderman Temperley and Cronin argued for the petition. They contended that the Belger land is not on the turnpike, and therefore cannot be opposed because of the desire to keep the pike free from businesses.

Temperley called attention to the nearness of the city incinerator and fire station, and the fact that a business had been conducted on the Belger property for many years. Alderman Rawson, McKay and Walker opposed the petition both because of the policy to keep business off the turnpike and thus keep that big artery free for the purpose for which it was constructed, to permit rapid transit for motor vehicles between Boston, Worcester and intervening places. Several other petitions for changes from residence to business zones along Boylston st. were also refused for the same reason.

Alderman Colby called the attention of the Board to a complaint made by William Hannon of Kensington st. regarding a dangerous condition of the gas main along Watertown st. near Kensington st. and Wildwood ave. Alderman Cuzzi said there is a strong odor of gas there, that the main should be placed lower, and a new main laid instead of being patched at joints.

Newton H. S.

Barbara McCarthy, Doris Marshall, and Eleanor Farnum, graduates of Newton High School this year, have been awarded scholarships at the Chandler School, Boston on basis of competitive examination given by the Chandler School.

Mr. Sterling Williams, faculty advisor for the "Newtonian," the High School yearbook, has announced that the record number of 1470 copies were printed this year, and that the whole edition had been sold a short time after all advance orders had been filled.

William Boyhan, class of 1933, and 1935 winner of the Prix de Rome, was honor guest of the Newton Rotary Club on Monday, June 15. He was introduced by Principal Paul E. Ellicker and received an ovation. On Wednesday, June 17, he was luncheon guest at the school when he had an opportunity to greet some of his former teachers and to receive their congratulations on the signal honor which he has received. Mr. Boyhan sails for Italy at the end of the summer vacation.

Mr. Samuel Thurber, head of the English department at Newton High School, has been appointed to a Visiting Lectureship at Harvard University. Mr. Thurber will teach a Saturday morning course in the Teaching of English, offered by the Harvard Graduate School of Education. In past years this course has been given by Professor Charles Swain Thomas, former head of the English department in Newton High School and for approximately twenty years connected with Harvard. Professor Thomas retires this year.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Is the Universe, including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 21.

The Golden Text is: "The Lord by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens" (Proverbs 3:19). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. . . . All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made" (John 1:1, 3).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The infinite has no beginning. This word beginning is employed to signify the only—that is, the eternal verity and unity of God and man, including the universe. The creative Principle—Life, Truth, and Love—is God. The universe reflects God. There is but one creator and one creation" (p. 502).

How To Decide Your Life's Work

ARTHUR DEAN, Sc. D., advises young people to solve this problem by answering these three questions:

What would I like most to do?
Have I ability to do this thing?
Have I the backbone to stick to it?

After you have made your decision, save regularly for the opportunity and advancement always open to the ambitious and industrious who are financially prepared.

Newton District Nursing Ass'n.

The final and one of the most stimulating meetings of the year of the Board of Directors of the Newton District Nursing Association, was held at the Headquarters, 297 Walnut st., Newtonville, Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Louis Arnold, the president, presided.

Miss Nelson, Executive Director, reported 677 patients in the month of May; of these 159 received bedside care, 87 were expectant mothers and 431 health supervision. A total of 1711 home visits were made by the nurses besides the usual work at the four Well Baby Conferences held each week.

Mrs. Steven B. Wilson gave an excellent review of the committee's work on Child Health in which she stated that the United States was the first nation to create a Government Bureau known as the Children's Bureau devoted entirely to the interests of children. Since then many countries have followed. Its first comprehensive study was Infant Mortality. This means the number of children who die each year under one year of age for every 1000 babies born alive. One of the outstanding conclusions of this analysis of data was that the economic condition of the family is an important factor in the babies' chance of life. The trend of Infant Mortality in United States since 1915 has been downward. A large proportion of deaths occur during the first month of life. Registration of a birth is required in Massachusetts within forty-eight hours. Complete birth registration is a very important state function in order to have correct statistics. However, at present this is not always true. The Children's Bureau is seeking to teach the public that proper care of mothers and babies will save lives and improve health.

The Board was particularly fortunate in having Dr. Harold Chope present. His subject was "An Infant Health Program." He showed interesting graphs and said Newton was proud to report one of the lowest infant mortality rates—it being 34.5 deaths of infants per 1000 live births for 1935. He felt the reasons for this reduced rate over a period of twenty years were due to 1—Increased hospitalization.

2—Decline in infections, diarrhea, bronchitis, pneumonia, whooping cough and other childhood diseases.
3—Improvement in the field of Obstetrics and Pediatrics.
4—Better living conditions.

In closing, Dr. Chope felt that Newton was fairly well equipped in the necessary requirements for an ideal infant hygiene program in that it partly meets the following standards:

1—Continuous, capable medical supervision of the baby.
2—Public Health nursing supervision through home visits at monthly intervals during the first year.
3—A well equipped welfare centre where mothers come for advice concerning infant feeding and food habits of children, mental hygiene, for dental inspection of children over three and to receive protection against smallpox and diphtheria.
4—Adequate facilities in the community for hospitalization for the care of sick children and for the correction of physical defects.

Mrs. Arnold adjourned the meeting until Fall.

Miss Parsons Reports On Welfare Work

More than eight thousand people from all over the country, attending the National Conference of Social Work at Atlantic City, devoted themselves through a full week of discussion to the one central idea of more careful planning of the social service and relief structures in every community. Miss Harriet L. Parsons, General Secretary of the Newton Welfare Bureau, Inc., in reporting about the conference in relation to community needs, at the last meeting of the Board of Directors of the Newton Welfare Bureau, Inc., emphasized the practical value to every city and town of this intense consideration of vital social problems.

"While the government is going ahead with more definite plans as to social security," she said, "the general feeling is that the grant-in-aid to the states is the answer. Frank Bruno of Washington University, St. Louis, emphasized this particularly, saying that economic security is only one feature of security, which is divided into three parts, economic, personal and social. Under social security it is important to remember that social approval and the respect of one's fellow men make social security possible. In all relief planning we must not forget the need of consciousness of one's place in the scheme of things, like the old railroad employee who was always talking about our railroad in discussing his routine job."

"Social security is not ease. It means a chance to struggle and take one's place with one's fellow men, and having a fighting chance of making good. Mr. Bruno called upon social workers to be willing to take a stand on this question, remembering that success in living depends upon a certain amount of insecurity; also that when relief is given in the form of jobs which have no point and no social usefulness, and which do not give the man a feeling of self-respect and standing among his fellows, there is great danger. Such planning degrades the worker and denies our principle in giving relief."

"The social service growth in any city depends upon what the community itself wishes. In any development, the professional social worker or should work along carefully with the community, thinking of the community needs and how the individual in need can best be helped."

Miss Parsons reported that relationships between public and private agencies were frequently discussed and the excellent co-operation of the Newton Public Welfare Department with private agencies was the envy of many other localities. "It was the general feeling," she said, "that the objectives of both public and private welfare organizations are alike, the only difference being due to what the community expects and the form of legal set-up of the public agency."

"Recent trends in social work seem to be toward a much more thoughtful, scientific pulling together of all the resources in the community, and joint community planning. Much work is being done in handling delinquency and the general opinion seems to be that it is not just the court and probation officer which determines success, nor just the school or the home situation, but that attention should be directed to the weak points and strong points in the total community. Psychiatry, with its careful and thoughtful study, is becoming more and more emphasized in court work, with stress on early treatment, prior to the time the child is adjudged delinquent. Court service, school service, and social service are no longer routine procedures, but carefully well-rounded personal and community effort is needed to find why the child is turning toward delinquency rather than judging him by what he does."

"In the family social work field there is an increasing emphasis on, first, the selection of workers best suited to deal with human beings in difficulty, and second, the importance of giving the best of service to the person the first time he applies for assistance. Emphasis should be placed on the importance of work being done within the family group, the major concern of the family social worker being to maintain the highest qualities of family life and to preserve the individuality of the members of the family."

"While the public relief agencies may more and more take over larger social responsibility, both locally and nationally, the demands on a public agency of equality of treatment leave little flexibility in planning, and private agencies must stand on the firing line to fill in the services which help the individuals to get back on their own feet, especially in relation to fitting them into jobs."

"In family agencies boards of directors are becoming much more active in taking stands on community planning. A great need is recognized for further and more honest interpretation both of what the agency has to offer and what the community demands for a use of relief on a positive constructive basis, every dollar spent being spent with a plan for the family, the aim being to use it to strengthen the family in its attempt to get back on its own feet."

"New trends in family work include much more careful thinking about what are the best services that can be offered and a greater willingness to be scientific. Group work with mothers and fathers in an honest discussion of needs is a growing policy throughout the country."

"The practical value of such a massing of expert opinion as the National Conference brings about," Miss Parsons pointed out, "is in their being thoughtfully applied to the situation in every community."

Double Holidays Mean Heavy Road Traffic

Local highways will be heavy with traffic on at least one week-end in the near future, in the opinion of Phillip Bram of Newtonville, local dealer for the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co.

"With Independence Day falling on Saturday this year, many persons ordinarily not so benefited will have a two-day holiday," Mr. Bram said. "This means that drivers can plan trips farther afield than is their usual custom."

"The great majority of motorists in this vicinity are not anticipating inconvenient road delays, if the manner in which they have been buying new tires is any indication. "And motorists who check their tires thoroughly before starting out on a trip in warm summer weather are really showing excellent judgment," he continued. "Old, worn smooth tires are dangerous, because they permit skids at times when quick stops are imperative, and also because they are much more susceptible to blowouts."

"New tires, such as the Goodyear line we sell, with gripping traction in the centre of the tread, give the utmost protection against skids and blowouts. Motorists who start out on trips with poor tires are really asking for trouble, and should not be surprised if they encounter irritating delays along a hot, dusty roadside, at a time when they should be traveling along toward their destinations."

Annual Meeting Of First Church of Christ, Scientist

An appeal to Christian Scientists to work for the demonstrations of World Peace, the reading of reports by church officers on the various activities of the movement throughout the world and sustained demand for the writings of Mary Baker Eddy, Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, marked the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, on Monday, June 8.

Election of Mrs. Elizabeth Cadwell Tomlinson of Boston as President of The Mother Church was announced. She succeeds Dr. Frank C. Colby. Mrs. Tomlinson was born in Byron, Wisconsin. After graduating from St. Helen's Hall, a well-known Episcopalian private school, she received a remarkable healing in Christian Science which brought her into the practice of this religion. She was at one time a delegate appointed by the Governor of Oregon to a conference of women's organizations in Paris. In 1914 she was in London, England, at the outbreak of the World War and did service under Mrs. Herbert Hoover in relief activities.

The addition of 22 new churches and eight new university organizations, making a total of 2751 branches of The Mother Church and 55 college and university organizations, was announced by the Department of Branches and Practitioners.

Approximately 6000 Christian Scientists representing every state in the Union and practically every civilized nation in the world attended the meeting. The main floor and three galleries were filled within a short time after the church doors were opened, the overflow being accommodated in the original Mother Church where amplifiers were installed.

Introducing the theme of World Peace, William P. McKenzie, for the past year chairman of the Board of Directors, told the audience, "There is a rising demand in the hearts of men for freedom and justice. Can it be met by fair dealing? This requires self-government, does it not? Instead of battling with others to set them right, let a man become right himself and influence his neighbor by his good example."

Mr. McKenzie designed the way in which peace can be realized, pointing out that "when in a branch church growth has been made to the point that members respect one another and show deference and courtesy, work is done in friendliness. May not a time be coming," he asked, "when in congresses and parliaments good will of this sort will show like harmonies and results?"

As retiring President, Dr. Frank C.

Colby declared it "encouraging to find that Christian Scientists are realizing more fully and more keenly that Christian Science is something more than a glorified theology; that it is a demonstrable Science; the Science of Being; the Science of true Christianity, that it is theology as well as a Science. It is man's business to be absolutely obedient to divine Principle, God, to express, or exemplify, the nature of God. Thus he is both religious and scientific."

Following which he introduced Mrs. Elizabeth Cadwell Tomlinson as the new President of The Mother Church. In her address, Mrs. Tomlinson spoke in somewhat the same vein as Mr. McKenzie, declaring that "the developments of this hour in world history are not disheartening to the thinker in Christian Science. These developments corroborate and fulfill our Leader's prophecy (Miscellany 281: 28): 'War will end when nations are ripe for progress.' As humanity ripens in courage, in purity of purpose, in increasing virtue, in holiness, this ripening will hasten the day prophesied by our Leader when 'the Christ-spirit will cleanse the earth of human gore' (Miscellany 265: 9). It is the life of men, not the death of men, that determines the peace of nations."

Edward L. Ripley, re-elected Church Treasurer, expressed gratitude that the indebtedness of a year ago, resulting from the remodeling and refurbishing of the former publishing house to serve as the Church Administration Building, had been met in full through the active co-operation of the field together with the earnings of The Christian Science Publishing Society. "There is no debt of any kind on the new Publishing House and other property owned by The Mother Church or its affiliated trusteeships," he said.

Also re-elected was Ezra W. Palmer, Clerk of the Church. One of the principal duties of the Clerk and his co-workers is the handling of applications for membership in The Mother Church. His report included information as well on the relief work done by the church.

William M. Bartlett, Secretary to Trustees under the Will of Mary Baker Eddy, reported expenditure of more than $150,000 during the year just past, "to more effectively extend and promote the religion of Christian Science." This money went to aid churches and societies to erect or purchase their own buildings, for the free distribution of authorized literature, for supplying literature in Braille for the blind, for aiding branches in paying for their first lecture, and in Germany, for assisting Christian Scientists there who would otherwise have been unable to receive authorized literature following certain restrictions made last August by the German Government.

William W. Davis, Executive Supervisor of Christian Science Charitable and Benevolent Institutions, reported increased guests at both the Pacific Coast and Chestnut Hill Sanatoriums as well as loyal support of the Pleasant View Home.

As Manager of Committees on Publication C. Augustus Norwood declared, "We may well rejoice at the continued progress of our religion and the continued growth of our organization."

Mr. Norwood disclosed that through the publication of religious items and the radio-casting of religious programs and news comments from The Christian Science Monitor, friendly relationships have been established with about 2000 newspapers and 300 radio stations. Through these contacts some 150,000 friendly and constructive news items were published, while more than 6000 religious programs and 60,000 radio-casts of Monitor news were put on the air during the year.

chairman of the Board of Lectureship for the past year cited cases of instantaneous healings which had taken place as a result of public lectures on Christian Science.

She disclosed that members of the Board of Lectureship carried Christian Science messages to the four corners of the globe, delivering 3111 lectures with an attendance of approximately three million persons. Ten lectures were given in Africa, 59 in Australasia, 17 in Hawaii, China, Japan, Java, Ceylon and India, one in the City of Mexico, 17 in South America, 9 in Bermuda, Canal Zone and West Indies, 225 in Great Britain and Ireland, 104 in continental Europe and Scandinavia, and 2669 in Canada, the United States and Alaska.

WOMEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES

What They Did And Said At Miami

Continuing a record of reports of interest made by committee chairmen at the Convention of the General Federation held at Miami, Mrs. Sadie Orr Unbar, first vice-president of the Federation, speaking in place of Mrs. George Norman Campbell, of Kalamazoo, Wash., chairman of the committee on Scholarship, said the Federation is forging ahead in the extension of aid to ambitious boys as well as girls. Alabama, Illinois, Kansas, Massachusetts, Oregon and Georgia lead the nation in the breadth and strength of their administration of Scholarship and Fellowship Funds, she stated. The combined loan funds of various State Federations, and the capital value of the educational funds lent and given as gifts by the women's clubs, amount to about $2,000,000.

Mrs. William Brown, of Steubenville, Ohio, chairman of Motion Pictures, said: "The burden of responsibility for selection of suitable pictures for children rests squarely upon the parents. The Federation is doing intensive work in all States in installing audio-visual equipment in public schools."

She further warned that: "High standards for clean pictures have not been won for all time." Mrs. Brown believes one of the most important works of the American clubwoman is to see that the motion-picture standard is kept high.

"The importance of organizing children's movie theatres cannot be too strongly emphasized," she said. "The choice of cinema pictures for children and adolescents lies with the parents. The price of keeping motion pictures to their present high level will be a sustained vigilance."

Mrs. Edward Hammett, of Sheboygan, Wis., chairman of the Safety Department, urged a concerted campaign by women's clubs for observance of traffic laws.

"With deaths numbering 36,400 during the past year as a result of vehicle accidents on streets and highways," said Mrs. Hammett, "the Federation has accepted with profound appreciation an invitation to join with other national organizations in a nationwide campaign to reduce these vast losses of life."

Mrs. Hammett stated also that the total injuries were 1,170,000, of which 4,200 were to children of school age; and that as a result 100,000 persons would go through life permanently crippled or disabled.

Equally appalling, upon another subject, was the statement by Mrs. Norman H. Hastings, of Rosendale, Massachusetts, national chairman of the American Home, that in a recent editorial it was reported that the amazing increase in crime in the United States is staggering; that there are now 160,000 in American prisons and reformatories; that there was a 100 per cent increase in the ten year period 1924-1934; and it is estimated that the nation's annual bill for crime is $14,000,000. Such figures certainly justify the action of the Federation in its Resolutions adopted in regard to Prevention of Crime.

Clubwomen may well scan the Resolutions presented to the General Federation for their consideration. They indicate the interest of the national organization as to type of public questions; and they indicate further the reaction of organizations affiliated throughout the country with the General Federation, to the questions brought to them for consideration, as shown by their unanimous and enthusiastic approval, by their decidedly vehement rejections. For this reason, record of Resolutions and their fate is of importance, to arouse thoughtful pondering on the part of all clubwomen in all the States as to the type of matters brought to them for club activity, and to be informed upon them, so that they can consider them, and work for them intelligently in the future, or question them, as the case may be, as being worthy of support.

The General Federation's 2,000,000 club members, through their representatives assembled at Miami, endorsed legislation now pending before Congress for creation of a National Academy of Public Affairs.

Hailed as a measure which would bring "trained intelligence to our political problems," the Disney Bill was approved by a thundering chorus of "ayes" that swamped 12 dissenting votes. The purpose of the Public Affairs Academy, as outlined in the Bill introduced in the House last February by Congressman Wesley E. Disney, of Oklahoma, is to train men and women for Federal Administrative offices, including the Diplomatic Corps.

Selection of students would conform to the procedure employed in nominating for the Army and Navy Academies, West Point, and Annapolis, with each Congresswoman having the right to name one student each year from his District; each Senator, two annually from his State, and the President, fifty at large.

An Emergency Resolution, which would memorialize Congress to continue Federal aid to college students, was approved unanimously. The Resolution stated that the fund, which has provided part-time employment to students, has been of "great social worth," and it will ask that the fund be continued through 1937.

Admitting that they could not reach a decision regarding the debated Resolution involving membership of the United States in the League of Nations, delegates turned the problem back to the department of International Relations. The department will refer the Resolution back to the States for a fuller study of the principles of world peace involving co-operative action.

The snag was in the rewording or abandonment of a clause declaring that the entry of the United States into the League should not oblige the country "to adopt measures which might involve use of armed forces."

Delegates quickly objected that participation in the League under the stipulation contained in the Resolution hardly would be more than a gesture, for to be of value to the International Body the United States would have to agree to support the League by arms if necessary. Miss Alva Long of St. Louis, chairman of the department of International Relations, speaking in support of the rejected Resolution, said: "If you repudiate the League because it has not prevented war, through what will you work for peace? Christianity does not stop war. Who among us would think of discarding Christianity for that reason?"

The Federation did endorse, however, expressing their belief in a means such as the League has exemplified, the principle of cooperative action among nations as the most effective means of maintaining universal peace.

A dissenting vote was registered on only one Resolution, that regarding the Child Labor Amendment, which, however, was approved by an overwhelming majority.

Unanimously approved and quickly passed were the following Resolutions: One asking for establishment of the merit system in filling appointive positions under the Government.

One calling for conservation of wild life under Federal control. The principle of international reduction of armaments.

Reorganization of penal institutions and agencies, including abolition of the present jail system and the substitution of houses of detention and industrial farms under State control. Study by the 2,000,000 Federation members of community agencies for prevention of crime and united endeavor to overcome inadequacies of present crime detection and prevention agencies.

Interstate compacts for co-operative effort in enforcement of criminal law, pursuit and apprehension of fugitives, and supervision of paroled prisoners. Rehabilitation of prisoners through education and industrial training. Prisoner to receive all profits from his labor, after deduction of cost for his keep. Prison production shall not enter into unfair competition with free industry.

Recommendation to States that they adopt uniform vehicle code and model traffic ordinances, as endorsed by the National Conference on Street and Highway Safety.

Increase in appropriations for the United States Department of State, "sufficiently to enable it to carry on the tremendous task of shaping the foreign policy upon which the peace of this great nation depends."

There were also several interesting Recommendations by chairmen of the Federation departments which were adopted.

One recommended by Mrs. J. D. Atwood, chairman of American Citizenship, and passed by the Council, was to petition Congress to include Susan B. Anthony in the Mount Rushmore National Memorial group as the representative of the women of the United States who lived in the historic period now being immortalized.

One that the division of Child Welfare formulate suggestions to be submitted to the various States to care for the hours freed from employment of young people who will be affected by the legislation which would result from the passage of the Child Labor amendment. Mrs. H. B. Ritchie, director for Georgia, made the motion.

A Recommendation that the Public Safety committee add to its recommendations a study of, and publicity regarding, the effect of alcohol upon automobile drivers; also that clubwomen lend their influence to peace officers in enforcement of the vehicle code with reference to drivers of automobiles while under the influence of alcohol, made by Mrs. Charles Prather, president of the Arizona Federation.

Just as in the State Federation of Women's Clubs, the General Federation offers contests and prizes. While the prizes may not appeal financially, because they are not for large sums, there is an honor in carrying off a General Federation award that should appeal to Newton Juniors, as it is no small or empty honor to be outstanding in the entire United States as having been best in some activity, scholarship, or talent. One such alluring opportunity is called to the attention of Art chairmen and to Juniors. Art chairmen in individual clubs may assist the State Federation to win a prize.

Mrs. Alvoni Allen, chairman of the Penny Art Fund, announced the following prizes, to be awarded at the 1937 Council Meeting in Tulsa:

Fourteen State Art prizes, to be equally divided between States east and west of the Mississippi, will go to Seniors. One State east, and one west, of the Mississippi, will be awarded $25.00 cash for the greatest increase in new Penny Art Fund clubs over 1935.

An Art prize will go to Juniors east and west of the Mississippi. Juniors must send their local Art reports to their own State Junior chairman. She in turn must send the Junior State report to Mrs. Florence Topping Green, 104 Franklin avenue, Long Branch, New Jersey, six weeks before the Council Meeting.

A prize of $20.00 cash will be given a Junior for the best parody to the tune, "There's a Long, Long Trail," which will convey the Penny Art Fund plan. To be eligible for this contest a Junior must be from a State that has (Continued on page 8)

What They Did And Said at Swampscott

Always of interest are the announcements of the awards of the winners in the various contests sponsored by the department of the State Federation; first, because many Newton clubwomen or Juniors may have competed, and they would like to know who won; but second, and of more value from the viewpoint of your Editor, in order that the several opportunities may be known to them, and, perhaps, make them ambitious to compete in the future, giving Newton prominence in the records of the State Federation. Then, too, they may be able to secure helpful information from the winners.

On Wednesday afternoon, May 20th, the following prize winners were reported.

Mrs. Samuel Crowell, Jr., vice-chairman of the Conservation and Garden department, announced the winners of prizes for Forestry Notebooks made by school children. First prize for Girls was won by Marjorie O'Hare, of the Whittemore School of Waltham; and second, by Eileen McParlin, of the Henry Wing School of Sandwich.

First prize for Boys was won by Archie Morrison, of the Penniman School of Braintree; and second, by Jack Healy, of the Bright School of Waltham. The Noah Torrey School of Braintree received first prize, a plaque given by the American Forestry Association, for the best Class Note Book. The Woodland School of West Boylston received second prize.

This is the second time the Noah Torrey School has received the award, a third winning will give them permanent ownership of the plaque. The largest number of good Notebooks were received from the Penniman School, Braintree, which was recipient of $5, the gift of Braintree Woman's Club and awarded by the division of Conservation and Gardens sponsoring the contest. The boys and girls received suitably inscribed medals; other prizes were books.

The Philergians of Braintree received an award of $5 from the Conservation division which sponsored the contest. In the contest for Collecting Caterpillar Nests, Frank Graveland won first prize, and Ruby Butcher, a third grade child, second prize. Both are from Athol. Books were the prizes.

Miss Grace Parker, chairman of Press and Publicity, presented first prize from this department a blue ribbon, to the Arlington Junior Woman's Club for its Scrap Book; and second prize, a red ribbon, to the Junior Ladies' Library Association of Randolph. First prize for a Senior Club Scrap Book went to the Jamaica Plain Tuesday Club, and second to the Philergians of Braintree.

Each group also received a hand-drawn book plate, on which was a replica of the State seal of the Federation.

Mrs. Harold Scheibe, State chairman of Literature, presented the awards in the Writers' contest. Mrs. Alice E. Cate of Belmont, received first prize for Prose, and Mrs. Eleanor Austin, of Ipswich, and Mrs. William R. Cook, of Wellesley Hills, honorable mention. In the Poetry contest, Mrs. Edward K. Gleason, of Amherst, received first; Mrs. Frank H. Lewis, of Canton, and Mrs. Ralph Whipple, of Ipswich, honorable mention.

The Department of Motion Pictures, Mrs. Bernard S. Sabean, of Brockton, chairman, sponsored a contest for Posters made by school children, with money prizes. ## Brodrick-Built Homes Planned By Woman

Newspaper and magazine articles and advertising have played a major role in educating today's women how to "shop" intelligently for a home.

"Mrs. Modern Woman not only appreciates but actually seeks the home which has substantial structural details as well as visual appeal," says Mrs. Maud H. Brodrick, who has planned and supervised the construction of the 70-odd "Brodrick-built" homes in Newton, Weston, Milton and Wellesley.

The newest Brodrick development is on Pelrice and Monandnock rds. in the fashionable Cliff Estates, Wellesley Hills, and to it flock daily and Sunday numbers of men and women, their curiosity and interest aroused in these woman-planned homes.

Mrs. Brodrick said: "Modern women know that proper insulation cuts heating costs; they know the merits and demerits of various types of oil-burning equipment; that concealed radiation marks a home as definitely new; that modern basements and attics can be comfortable rooms when efficiently planned; that ventilating fans are as important to kitchens as the sink or cook stove, and that it is just as easy, far more delightful and superlatively modern to bathe in a neo-angle bathtub than in the older, more elongated variety.

"They appreciate the opportunity to banish little Junior and his pals to the practically sound-proof attic or to let him express himself with his kiddie car or bike in the basement on rainy days.

"Women, too, are responsible for the trend towards larger lots and rustic atmosphere and for getting back, for the safety of their children, away from the beaten path.

"You'll hardly believe it," continued Mrs. Brodrick, "but men seem to appreciate modern kitchens as much as women. I've actually heard them chuckling over the prospect of preparing a Sunday or midnight snack for the boys, some time when the maid and the missus were away."

And so a woman keeps right on planning homes for these modern women who know what they want in a home and will accept no substitute.

Morgan Memorial Issues Significant Report

At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of Morgan Memorial Mr. Percy J. Trevelthan, Director and Supervisor of that organization's industries and stores, indicated in his report that thus far 1936 was shaping up as one of the best in recent years. He pointed out that Production Departments had exceeded their budgets by over 5%, and at the same time had reduced expenses materially. This work is being accomplished by underprivileged workers who use the cut-off materials given to Morgan Memorial by several hundred thousand contributors throughout Greater Boston.

O'Donnell testified that when he went to the wife's grave on June 5 he observed the two women going to several graves and removing geraniums. He questioned the pair and then notified the Waltham police. Serg. Maguire of the Waltham police went to the cemetery and found several plants in the women's possession. Supt. Mulvihill of Calvary cemetery told the judge that there have been many thefts of plants and markers from the cemetery. Counsel for the women asked for leniency because of their ages. Judge Cuniff, instead of being lenient, said he hopes that in the future Waltham police will charge persons stealing plants from cemeteries with larceny, so that type of thieves can be given jail sentences.

Judge Cuniff sent the following letter to Chief of Police Hughes commending Patrolman O'Donnell for his work in apprehending the two women: Chief Michael T. Hughes, Police Headquarters, West Newton. "I wish to call to your attention a notable bit of police work recently performed in Waltham by one of your patrolmen, Officer John F. O'Donnell."

"Lot owners in Calvary Cemetery, Waltham, for several years have been annoyed by frequent thefts of flowers planted by them on the graves of their dead. Although local police and cemetery officials have co-operated in an effort to discover the perpetrators of this particularly mean form of thievery, no one was apprehended until Officer O'Donnell, himself a victim, set himself the task. His efforts were rewarded, after a few nights' vigil, in capturing two offenders in the act of robbing, not only his grave lot, but several others in the cemetery."

"Officer O'Donnell has rendered the community a valuable service and I congratulate him and commend him to your favorable attention."

Suspended Fine for Drunken Driver

Donato Conti of 7 Oak ave., West Newton, was found guilty of driving a car while under the influence of liquor by Judge Allen in the Newton court yesterday. Conti was fined $100, but this fine was suspended when the defendant stated he had no money with which to pay the fine. A charge of drunkenness was placed on file. Conti was arrested on the night of May 18th, by Serg. Bannon and Patrolmen Gaquin and Scott.

The judge imposed fines of $5 on seven motorists for speeding. Berton Woodward, 20, of 125 Highland ave., Newtonville, charged with speeding, was found not guilty.

Members of the Newton Zonta Club, as one of the nine hostess clubs, are serving on the various convention committees. Cora McKenzie of Auburndale is general chairman of the Convention and is a past International President.

Violate Milk Law Fined $100

The United Farmers Co-operative Creamery Association, Charlestown, was fined $100 in the Newton court on Monday by Judge Allen for delivering adulterated milk in this city during the flood period last March. At that time, following complaints that milk of peculiar appearance and taste was being sold at stores in this city, Keble Perine, agent of the Newton Board of Health, obtained milk from several stores in the city and analyses were made by Mr. Ferguson, chemist of the State Board of Health. The tests showed that a foreign substance, hardened casein, was present in the milk. Four charges were made by the Newton Health Department against the milk company. The milk was purchased in four stores on March 21 and March 23. The local health officials delayed making complaints at the request of State officials who had made similar complaints against other milk companies.

A couple of weeks ago the Newton Board of Health requested City Solicitor Bartlett to prosecute the case and William F. Coles, associate of Mr. Bartlett, handled the case. In court on Monday the United Farmers company pleaded not guilty but accepted a finding of guilty on one charge. The other three charges were placed on file.

On March 17 officials of the Whiting Milk Company were arraigned in the Suffolk Superior Court on charges of having distributed adulterated milk during the flood period. The case was prosecuted by the Attorney General's office following complaints by the State Board of Health. The defendants pleaded not guilty and the case was continued. It will probably be tried next month. Other milk companies may also be indicted on similar charges.

Serious Charges In Speed Case

Walter Dolan, 21, of 17 Austin st., Newtonville, was found not guilty of speeding by Judge Frost in the Newton court on Saturday. Patrolman Charles Mague testified that on the night of May 2nd he stopped a car driven by Dolan on Washington st., near Elm st., West Newton. Mague testified that Dolan did not have his license or registration in his possession and that he admitted having drank several glasses of beer. Some days after Mague obtained complaints against Dolan. Thomas Dolan, a Newton policeman, testified that on the night in question his son, the defendant, was not under the influence of liquor as Mague had alleged.

Dolan testified that he was not speeding and he denied admitting to Mague that he had been drinking. Dolan testified that he had been approached by Mague and that the officer had intimidated the case would be fixed by a $5 payment. Ernest Hamilton of 39 Henshaw st., West Newton, a Middlesex & Boston bus driver, testified that he was at the scene and had driven a young woman passenger in Dolan's car to Auburndale after Mague had stopped Dolan. Hamilton testified that Dolan had said he would frame Mague if the policemen made out a complaint against him. Phillip McMullen of 15 Maguire court, Newtonville, also testified that Dolan had stated he would frame Mague.

Judge Frost remarked that there seemed to be considerable feeling in the case, but that the only matter before the court was the charge of speeding against Dolan. He said that there seemed to be a doubt as to whether, or not, Dolan was speeding, and he found the defendant not guilty.

Kiwanis Club

The members of the Brighton-Allston Kiwanis Club were the guests of the Newton Club at its weekly meeting today. Many former members of the club were also on hand, including W. U. Fogwill, Albert T. Stuart, and J. N. Roulstone.

The meeting was scheduled to take place with former president Dr. F. H. Paul presiding, but because of a hurried trip to Worcester by the Doctor, President Ernest Gibson carried on.

The speaker of the day, Mr. C. D. McDevitt, Federal Special Agent, was unavoidably absent and was substituted for by Mr. Paul M. Plunkett who told of the many and varied activities of the celebrated G-Men. The usual flair for excitement as portrayed by the screen of all G-Men was not evident in Mr. Plunkett but it was obvious to all he was well equipped mentally and physically to meet trouble without going out looking for it.

Contrary to present day conception, not all the activities of Federal agents are spent in machine-gun atmosphere but all men are rigidly trained in the proper method of apprehending criminals; applicants must not be less than twenty-five nor more than thirty-five years of age and must either be trained in the law, or as accountants. The speaker personified the alert level-headed type of law enforcement officer which it is a privilege to behold, and all present were impressed by this fact as well as by the interesting story told.

Home Ownership Now Made Easy For Many

Thousands of families who have had visions of eventually owning their own homes are finding an easy, convenient way of realizing their dreams with the aid of the new mortgage plan offered by government chartered and supervised savings and loan associations.

In Greater Boston this new mortgage plan is available to reliable people through the Harvard Federal Savings & Loan Association, 378 Washington st., Dorchester. During the last few months this association has loaned nearly half a million dollars to acceptable applicants who have thus been able to finance the building or buying of a home by low monthly payments over a long term of years. Among these happy borrowers are several who have found it advantageous to refinance previous mortgages through the Harvard Federal Savings & Loan Association plan.

Under this plan, interest at 5½ per cent is charged only on unpaid balances at the end of each month. This rate of interest cannot be increased. Loans of $5000 to $15,000 are available for five to fifteen years, with monthly payments as low as $8.17 for each $1000 loaned. There are no renewal or extra costs.

The officers of the Harvard Federal Savings & Loan Association will be glad to supply complete details about their plan upon request.

To Rebuild Chest. Hill Apt. House

A permit to rebuild the apartment building at 41 Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill, near Lake st., has been issued by the Newton Public Buildings Department following a ruling by City Solicitor Bartlett. This action ends a long controversy between the city and the owners of the property. On October 31, 1934 the apartment building was largely destroyed by fire. Shortly afterward the owners of the property applied for a permit to rebuild it as a four story structure and it was refused. Simultaneously owners of properties nearby in the Waban Hill section petitioned to have the land where the apartment building stood changed from general to private residence zone. They sought to have the rebuilding of an apartment house there prevented. Early in 1935 the Board of Aldermen voted to make the zoning change. A second application for a permit to rebuild the structure was made, and the Building Department again refused to grant it. The Board of Aldermen upheld the refusal on the contention that the proposed rebuilding virtually would be a new structure.

The owners of the property threatened to take the matter to court. The granting of the permit has been made despite the change of zone, on the contention that the apartment building will not be a new structure and can be rebuilt under a non-conforming status.

Fined $25 For Giving Fake Name

Joseph Bova, 10 Bulfinch pl., Boston, was fined $25 in the Newton court last Friday for giving a false name and address to Patrolman James Cummings of the Newton police when the latter stopped Bova for driving a car without proper lights. He told the officer he was Joseph Rossi of 10 Lynde rd., West Newton. Bova also was fined $10 for not having his car's registration in his possession.

Richard Ellis Ends Service As Director of Public Works By Request of Mayor Childs

Mr. Ellis Gives Resume of His Services As Water Commissioner and Public Works Director

Richard H. Ellis, Director of Public Works for the City of Newton will conclude his service in that capacity on June 30. Mr. Ellis was appointed Water Commissioner by Mayor Weeks six years ago, to succeed J. Clifton Whitney. He inaugurated and supervised many changes in the Water Department and because of his work there was appointed Director of Public Works by Mayor Weeks when this new department was instituted on July 27, 1934. In this new office Mr. Ellis had supervision of the Street, Water, Forestry and Engineering Departments of the city.

During the Mayorality campaign last year Mayor Childs made an issue of the new public works department. He claimed the department is unnecessary, duplicates the work of the supervising officials of the several departments affiliated with it, and he contended that the creation of the office of Director of Public Works was illegal as the city charter does not provide for such a department. When Mayor Childs submitted his budget recommendations to the Board of Aldermen early this year he specified an appropriation for the Department of Public Works only sufficient to continue that Department until May 1. The majority of the Board of Aldermen took issue with the Mayor and by a vote of 16 to 5 overrode his recommendation and authorized an appropriation to provide for the continuance of the department and the office of Director of Public Works. City Solicitor Bartlett made a ruling that the department and office have a legal status under the city charter. As the office of Director of Public Works is of an advisory nature and not under civil service, the Mayor has the power to discharge its occupant. Should he appoint a successor to Mr. Ellis, the appointee must be confirmed by the Board of Aldermen.

Prior to coming to Newton Mr. Ellis was Director of Public Works at North Andover, Mass. He is a graduate of Dartmouth. His salary as Director of Public Works was $6000 per year. Mr. Ellis made the following statement relative to his service as Water Commissioner and Director of Public Works:

"At the request of His Honor the Mayor, my active services with the City of Newton will terminate June 30, 1936, on the sixth anniversary of my first connection with the city.

"During the first four years of my service, as Water Commissioner, it was my privilege to completely reorganize the Water Department as to operating methods, and personnel assignments as well as to the physical plant. The introduction of chemical treatment together with the elimination of many 'dead ends' in the distribution system almost completely eliminated the complaints which for

Foster will take the place of Arthur C. Johnson who will be acting assistant principal of the High School the next school year. Johnson will take the place of Raymond A. Green who will be acting principal of the high schools the coming year. Green will substitute for Paul E. Ellicker, regular principal of the high school, who has been granted a year's leave of absence to make a survey of secondary schools in Atlantic coast States under the auspices of the American Council of Education. C. Evan Johnson is a graduate of Norwood High School, of Colby College in 1927. He has been coach of football and hockey teams at Walpole High School. He has also served as an assistant director at Camp Frank A. Day, the Newton Y. M. C. A. camp at Brookfield.

Miss Chellise Cook was appointed director of physical education at Weeks junior high school to succeed Miss Marion Maxim who resigned to continue advanced study at Radcliffe. Miss Cook is a former Newton resident. She is a graduate of Newton High School and graduated from Bouve School in 1931. ## One Day Drive To Raise $40,000 for N'ville Library

Hundreds of Canvassers To Work on June 30

Plans for the unique one-day drive for $40,000 for the Newtonville Branch Library are rapidly being pushed to completion. On June 30, hundreds of canvassers under the leadership of Albert M. Lyons, General Chairman of the committee, will call upon every Newtonville resident to receive their contributions to this great civic enterprise. With the hearty endorsement of Mayor Childs, former Mayor Weeks, Julius E. Warren, Superintendent of Schools; Paul E. Ellicker, Principal of the Newton High School; Julius Lucht, Librarian; Father John A. Sheridan of Our Lady's Parish, and many others, the campaign committee is confident of success.

Stressing the shortness of the campaign, Mr. Lyons has issued a call for workers. "I want," said Mr. Lyons, "to have Newtonville win the distinction of the shortest building fund campaign on record. To win, we must have hundreds of canvassers. When you are asked to give one day to this service say 'Yes' promptly. One word to contributors. When the solicitor calls, remember he is giving both his time and his money to this campaign. Be prompt and generous in your gifts."

To open the campaign, a breakfast for several hundred campaign workers will be served at the Central Congregational Church, when final instructions will be given to canvassers. During the day, solicitors will try to reach every Newtonville resident, reporting back to a supper served at the church in the evening.

On Saturday, June 27, Boy Scouts will distribute to every home in Newtonville an attractive folder, "The First Step," setting forth the need for a branch library building. It is pointed out that the location at the corner of Walnut st. and Highland ave. will enable this branch to serve as a reference library to the High School which at present has inadequate library facilities. The Newton School Committee at a recent meeting gave its hearty endorsement to the campaign.

The first branch library was established in Newtonville just thirty years ago, in 1906. The circulation of the branch was about 22 per cent greater than any other branch last year. Library buildings have been built in recent years at Newton Centre, Waban, Auburndale, and West Newton. In each community, after a fund was raised by volunteer contributions, the city assisted in the project.

The campaign goal of $40,000 was set after a very careful survey of the amounts raised in other villages and after consultation with city officials. The City Government, through its Board of Aldermen, meeting as a committee of the whole, recently approved the program and gave the Campaign Committee assurance of the city's going forward with the building of the

"The Newton Town Crier" Consolidated This Week With "The Newton Graphic"

Newton's Oldest Newspaper Purchases Thirty-Three-Year-Old Contemporary Publication

With this week's issue of the NEWTON GRAPHIC is merged the NEWTON TOWN CRIER which for 33 years has been published at Newton Centre. The TOWN CRIER was started by John Temperley as a house bulletin for free distribution in 1898. In 1903 Mr. Temperley evolved the TOWN CRIER into a regular weekly newspaper with paid circulation. He continued it successfully for 25 years and in January, 1923 sold it to John D. Babbage who sold it in December of that year to Russell A. Hoke. It has since been owned by the Hoke interests.

The TOWN CRIER has had an honorable career a third of a century and merited the support it received, particularly in the South Side of this city. In being merged with the NEWTON GRAPHIC it is absorbed by Newton's oldest newspaper. The GRAPHIC is now the only paid circulation and an exclusively paid circulation and was started on June 13, 1873 as the NEWTON REPUBLICAN. Its name having been changed several years later. It was purchased by John C. Brimblecom 36 years ago and is now conducted by his son, Warren K. Brimblecom.

Both the GRAPHIC and the TOWN CRIER have been published through their long careers on a high basis, both as to news contents, editorial policies and advertising business. They have been operated as legitimate newspapers with paid circulations, not primarily as advertising sheets with second consideration given to news contents. Subscribers of the

TO THE SUBSCRIBERS OF THE TOWN CRIER

I wish to take this opportunity to express publicly my deep appreciation of the loyalty and support of those constant readers who subscribed and re-subscribed many times to The Town Crier.

With this issue the paper goes into the ownership of Mr. Warren K. Brimblecom and becomes merged with The Newton Graphic. I have always shared Mr. Brimblecom's belief in the destiny of a paid-circulation newspaper, and it is a source of satisfaction that The Crier will contribute to a greater, city-wide, paid coverage.

It is my hope that the former readers of The Town Crier will now follow and support The Graphic as loyally in the future as they did The Crier in the past.

RUSSELL A. HOKE.

TOWN CRIER will receive the GRAPHIC through the mail as heretofore. The GRAPHIC will in the future give ample and adequate attention to news of the South Side of the city as it has in past years, and will continue to co-operate in all civic movements in that section of Newton.

TO OUR NEW READERS

With this issue we announce the purchase of The Town Crier and its consolidation with the Newton Graphic. For many years The Town Crier has served the residents of the south side of the city with merit. It has always been a newspaper with high ideals since it was established more than thirty years ago by Mr. John Temperley. The consolidation of the two newspapers brings to the Graphic a larger paid circulation than any other local news medium has ever achieved. In enlarging our field of readers we recognize the privilege and duty created by this greater opportunity to be of service and we shall endeavor to continue our efforts to provide the citizens of Newton with a news medium of high aim and purpose.

We welcome the many new readers of the Graphic and we invite their comments and criticisms on any matter of local interest. We invite them also to become acquainted with our present features and to watch for the return of those regular features which are suspended during the summer months. It is a well-known axiom in newspaper circles that the success of a newspaper is measured by its reader interest. The Graphic, which will observe its 65th anniversary in about two months, has never lacked a substantial reader interest. In our larger field we shall strive to promote that reader interest for the best interests of the city as a whole. The Newton Graphic is your newspaper.

THE NEWTONVILLE LIBRARY

Back in the 1870's residents of the city of Newton desired a new library building. A campaign for funds was inaugurated which raised about $65,000 for the construction of the main building of the library at Newton Corner. The population of the city at that time was slightly more than twelve thousand. Today the population of Newtonville is about eleven thousand and a campaign will be conducted next Tuesday to raise $40,000 for a branch library building in that community. The parallel between today and thirty-five years ago is both interesting and significant. The need in Newtonville today is fully as great as the need of the city at that time. The Newtonville branch library, statistics reveal, distributes nearly twenty-five per cent more volumes than any other branch library in the city. It has inadequate facilities. Located in the same section of the city as the high school it should be equipped to furnish reference facilities for these students. Newtonville residents will respond generously to the appeal for funds and we are confident that the goal will be reached.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET

The Republican delegates met last week in Springfield in the pre-primary convention to endorse Republican candidates for various offices on the state ticket. There was more or less uncertainty prior to the convention as to the choices that were made. Since the convention there has been a growing feeling that the ticket is one of the strongest that the Republican party in Massachusetts has selected for many years. Geographically and racially it is balanced to a most remarkable degree. Defeated candidates have, almost unanimously, accepted the wishes of the delegates and have announced their intentions of working for the success of the party. Former State Treasurer John W. Haigis has many attributes that make for the kind of administration that Massachusetts needs after the experiences we have been going through. As the head of the ticket he promotes harmony that many believe could not otherwise have existed. Speaker Leverett Saltonstall, the candidate for Lieutenant Governor, captured the hearts of the entire convention by his sportsmanship in acclaiming the nomination of his pre-convention rival. The action was characteristic of Mr. Saltonstall and the assurance that he will continue to bear a share of the burden upon the state is one of the chief assets of the coming campaign. The close contest for the nomination for United States Senator was of great interest to Newton because of the candidacy of former Mayor Sinclair Weeks. Our only regret is that the voters do not have the opportunity to vote for two United States Senators. Both Mr. Weeks and his successful rival, Henry Cabot Lodge, 2nd, have immeasurable political strength to give to the Republican party. Mr. Lodge has won the endorsement and Mr. Weeks and all other Republicans will give their best efforts to send him to Washington next winter. As already stated the minor offices on the state ticket provide a racial and geographical balance. Their importance should not be overlooked. With the proposed ticket the Republican party in Massachusetts can now prepare for the campaign with renewed vigor and confidence.

"IT'S NEVER TOO LATE TO LEARN"

The tragic drowning of twelve children at Lubec, Maine, a few days ago brings home the inestimable value of knowing how to take care of one's self while in the water. "It's never too late to learn to swim" says Commodore Longfellow of the American Red Cross. The Newton Red Cross Chapter has been doing excellent work in this respect for a number of years. Our news columns note the schedule of swimming instruction to begin at Crystal Lake next week under the auspices of the local Red Cross organization. Practically all of the boys' and girls' camps require knowledge of the art of swimming before permission is given to go on the water in boats or canoes without adequate supervision. Such accidents as that of last week seem so unnecessary if we but realize how readily they may be minimized through the teaching of young and old to swim.

In a campaign, it often happens that those who come out in favor of a candidate are the candidate's biggest liability and sometimes the very thing that defeats him.

A lot of people wouldn't believe their own eyes even if they could see themselves as others see them.

People go to war to decide what is right, but the only thing they find out is who is left.

And there seems to be reason to wonder how secure is social security?

A fellow says taxes are worse than death—you can only die once.

The Newtonville Branch Library, which for thirty years has occupied rooms in the Masonic Building, will move to temporary quarters on the second floor of the Orr Building formerly known as Dennison Hall, at the corner of Washington and Walnut sts., next week. The library will be open for service in its present quarters for the last time on Monday, June 29th. On Tuesday and Wednesday the branch will be closed while the books are being moved. Books may be returned and borrowed at the new location on Thursday, July 2nd after one o'clock. All books due at the Newtonville library on June 30th may be returned on Thursday, July 2nd, without incurring a fine. Newtonville borrowers wishing library service on the two days when the library will be closed may use their cards at the main library or any other of the branches.

The Newtonville Library was established in 1906 in second floor rooms in the Masonic Temple and after nineteen years was moved to a store on the ground floor. In 1929 a second store was rented and the quarters enlarged to the rooms now being vacated. It is anticipated that the location in the Orr Building will be temporary until the proposed erection of a portable building on the site of the old Newton Club. It is hoped that before many months it will be possible to begin construction of the new building on this same site funds for which are the object of a drive in Newtonville next week.

Another New England college has awarded diplomas and conferred other honors upon a number of Newton youths. Word was received too late for this column last week of commencement exercises at Bowdoin College where six seniors from the Newtons have been prominent. Edward L. Campbell of Beaumont st., Newtonville, who prepared at Newton

High, received a degree of bachelor of arts in psychology. He is a member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity, leader of the Glee Club this past year, a member of the Chapel Choir and of the Gym team. Austin W. Berkeley of Oxford rd., Newton Centre, also a Newton High graduate, received the degree of bachelor of arts in French. He is a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity, on the Dean's list, and a member of the French Club. Thurman E. Philson of Pleasant st., Newton Centre, received his bachelor of arts degree in Classics in which he graduated summa cum laude. He also is a Newton High graduate, received A in all his courses and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa last year. This year he was awarded highest honors in Classics, the Hamblin Hamlin Emery Prize in Latin, the Nathan Gould Greek and Latin Prize, and the Almon Goodwin prize. He was a Rhodes scholarship candidate from Bowdoin and vice-president of the Classical Club. His fraternity is Kappa Sigma. He was also a member of the Political Forum and the Masque and Gown. Robert P. Ashley received his bachelor of arts degree in English in which he was awarded honors and in which he graduated cum laude. He was elected to Phi Beta Kappa last week and is also a member of Zeta Psi fraternity. He was captain of the tennis team, and a three-year participant in the Maine Intercollegiate Tennis tournament, winning the singles and doubles as a junior. He was editor-in-chief of the college weekly newspaper, a member of the Undergraduate Committee to Investigate the Athletic Situation, chairman of the football rally committee and a member of the Student Council. Albert S. Allen of Duffield rd., Auburn, is the fifth of the Newton High graduates. He received his bachelor of science degree in Economics. He was manager of track, on the board of the "Growler" and a member of the nominating committee of the N. E. I. C. A. A. His fraternity is Psi Upsilon. George F. Chisholm of Varick rd., Waban, prepared at Browne and Nichols School. He received his bachelor of arts degree in Biology. A member of Delta Upsilon he was editor of the Handbook, a member of the freshman cross country and track teams, the swimming squad, the varsity cross-country squad and the staffs of the weekly newspaper and the humor magazine.

Policeman Annett's boarding house accommodated 12 lodgers for the week ending Monday. Three arrests in Ward 1 for the same week. John Hughes on the 20th for drunkenness and abusive use of tongue; fined $5 and costs, but having no money, he was sent down to Charlie Adams for 30 days.

The petition of the Newton Free Library for an appropriation of $2500 which was presented to the Board of Aldermen on Monday was in accordance with the vote of the Town of Newton to assist the different libraries within its limits, on condition that an equal amount be raised to purchase new books and repair old ones. The Aetheneum at West Newton has received aid from the town on these conditions.

The new hose carriage for Steamer 1 was received last Friday and the company formed a procession headed by the Newton City Band and marched over some of our streets. A collation was served at the engine house.

Work is being pushed rapidly forward on Ex-Gov. Claflin's new block at Newtonville. What a pity that so large a building should be built of wood rather than brick. The era of wood for stores and public buildings in Newton is past.

Already our citizens are scattering for the summer, leaving this pleasant city for an outlook on fashionable life at the favored resorts, or a camp in the wilderness away from civilized life, anything, anywhere, only to get away from comfortable homes, the better to be appreciated on our return. Such is the mania for change every year.

The Mayor is at the City Hall only Monday and Friday afternoons.

The widening of Elmwood street near Centre street came up before the Board of Aldermen on Monday afternoon. Alderman Pratt opposed the order. He said there are other estates than Mr. Bacon's which would have to be cut off and add to the expense of the widening. By permission of the Board Joseph N. Bacon was given a hearing. He said that if he were compelled to move the foundation wall of the new Eliot Block it will cost him $7900 and he would have to reduce the size of the building unless he bought the adjoining lot, this would cost him $2000, making his whole claim $9900. He could not take damages of $5000. He did not see any need of the widening. Alderman Edmonds thought 3/4 of the people in Ward 1 favor the widening, and $400 damages would be enough. It is cheaper to widen now than wait 5 years and pay $20,000. A ye a and nay vote followed. Alderman Edmonds voted ye; Aldermen Holden, Rice, Pratt, Pulsifer and Pettie voted nay.

Powers' Paragraphs

According to some Republicans, the Democratic party contains many more "rough necks" than does the G. O. P. But, according to the reports of the Republican State convention at Springfield, last week, there was much more rowdiness there than at the Democratic State convention.

Newton has the reputation of being one of the wealthiest communities in this State. This is one reason why it is picked out as a fertile field by racketeers and chisellers from outside this city who obtain easy money by selling tickets and collecting contributions for this or that alleged charity. There are a lot of easy marks in Newton. If they have money to donate for charitable purposes, there are many persons in Newton who need assistance and deserving local philanthropies which should be supported.

Because of the long-time personal and political friendship between Leverett Saltonstall and Sinclair Weeks, it was interesting to read of the alleged alliance between Weeks and Haigis supporters at the recent Springfield convention, and the tie-up between the Saltonstall and Lodge forces. When ambitions conflict, friendships suffer.

The defeat of Mr. Saltonstall for the Republican nomination for Governor may be a blessing in disguise. In our humble opinion Mr. Haigis will have a more difficult task in defeating Mr. Hurley for Governor than Mr. Saltonstall will have in winning over Mr. Philbin for Lieutenant Governor.

In addition to creating unfair competition against Newton storekeepers, the ice cream trucks which park on our highways to retail frozen dainties also cause traffic hazards. Autoists who stop to buy the ice cream stop their cars in the middle of streets, thus forcing other cars to pull out toward oncoming traffic.

The personal selection of candidates for a national political party as exemplified by Father Coughlin in his Union for Social Justice is something new in this country. It was done openly. Heretofore, a few powerful individuals have, more than once, selected the candidates for the Democratic or Republican parties, but they kidded the rank and file into believing that the people were responsible for the choice of those nominated.

When Richard H. Ellis was appointed Water Commissioner in 1920 by Mayor Weeks, only two members of the then Board of Aldermen voted against confirming him. The writer was one of the two. We believed then, as we do now, that public positions in the city of Newton should go to Newton residents; that in this outstanding community of 65,000 persons, competent men and women are available. When Mr. Ellis assumed office, we were introduced to him by the City Street Commissioner, George E. Stuart. We informed the new Water Commissioner that while we did not vote for his confirmation, inasmuch as he had received the position, we the railroad tracks at Washington street, Newton, on Tuesday evening stepped one side to avoid a train and was struck by another train. His right arm was fractured and he was hurt about the head and shoulders. He was taken to the Mass. General Hospital, Boston.

Alderman and Mrs. Samuel L. Powers celebrated the Silver Anniversary of their marriage on Monday night by a piazza party at their home on Waverley avenue. The guests comprised only intimate friends from the neighborhood.

There are now 5 patients at the Cottage Hospital and this is only the third week it has been in operation. This proves how much the hospital was needed.

The city of Newton is the only city of any importance in New England without an electric light of any nature. Many small villages of only 200 population all over the Eastern States have them, the latest being Turner's Falls, a small manufacturing village up in Western Massachusetts.

The annual picnic which the Read Fund provides for school children of Wards 1 and 7 will be held on Saturday, June 26, at Spy Pond Grove, Arlington. Conveyance to the grove will be by horse cars which will leave Nonantum Square at 8.30 a. m. and will bring the children home before 6 p. m. Refreshments will be provided at the grove.

A committee has been formed at Nonantum to conduct a parade of "horribles" and they request all young men and boys over 12 to fix up and report at the corner of California and Chapel streets at 3 a. m. on July 4th.

Newton Graphic, June 30, 1911

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night petitions were received from E. L. Richards representing the firemen, and Bernard F. Burke for the policemen asking for increase of wages of 10% for the firemen and policemen and 15% for the officers. The petitions were referred to the Finance Committee which reported them inexpedient, as well as that of the street department laborers for $2.25 per day. The petitions will be taken up in connection with the 1912 appropriations.

Pontiac's modern plant contains 4,000,000 square feet of floor space. With the new foundry just opened it is said to be the most modern plant in the industry.

would endeavor to give him our cooperation. Since then our relations with Mr. Ellis have been friendly and we always found him courteous. In our opinion he proved himself a competent public official by his work in modernizing Newton's water system. The value to this city of the creation of the office of Director of Public Works of Newton caused a wide difference of views, and it has been a debatable question. We regret that Mr. Ellis is the goat in this matter. We wish him success in the future and we believe his ability will gain this success for him.

Both major political parties are now attempting to outvie the other in blather and blabber. When their racing starts will have petered out, the campaign will settle into the real contest between now and next November. In a two-sided contest between Landon and Roosevelt, we believe the latter would unquestionably win. But, Mr. Lemke is going to get a large number of votes. If this number will be as large as many think, Mr. Landon will win over President Roosevelt.

The Republican State ticket reads somewhat like a League of Nations. Had the G. O. P. in this Commonwealth recognized the newer racial elements years ago its position would be more formidable today.

It is quite evident the relations between the Governor of Massachusetts and the Lieutenant Governor of Massachusetts are not so cordial as they have been the past couple of years. The Hon. Joseph Hurley and his friends are quite convinced that the Hon. James M. Curley walked out on his erstwhile protegee from Fall River.

Some years ago we advocated, while a member of the Public Works Committee of the Newton Aldermen, that no more "grass borders" be laid out when streets in this city were improved and accepted. The "grass" was only on these loan borders only in theory. Automobiles and children effectively prevented the growth of any herbage on these borders and they became unsightly strips of bare ground along our streets. Lately, we have observed sections of these borders being covered with concrete here and there. One such strip is in front of Mayor Childs' property on California st.; although we doubt if the Mayor requested it. The tarred "grass borders" are not attractive. It is about time that this impractical feature of our street construction be abolished except in such residential districts where it is reasonable to expect that grass will have a chance to grow. The space occupied by "grass borders" could well be used to increase the width of traveled roadways.

The manufactured enthusiasm at both Republican and Democratic conventions, both State and National, fools a lot of gullible folks listening in over the radio. But, like the mechanical applause which accompanies regular radio programs, this synthetic convention fervor will eventually lose its effectiveness.

Day Jr. High School

The broadcast last Friday from the auditorium of the F. A. Day was significant for the reason that it marked the first pupil-planned and pupil-written program to be relayed on a coast-to-coast broadcast. Throughout the program the students were expressing opinions which they had maintained in English class discussions, previously. Because of their thought-provoking arguments and the initiative shown in the organization of their facts, the school was happy to receive a telegram from the National Broadcasting Company, congratulating them on their achievement.

The F. A. Day wishes Miss Hickey, Mrs. Holmes, and Mrs. Jordan success and happiness in their work next year. In the fall it will observe the return of Miss Spelman and Miss Doran to their former posts.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Bird of the Latourne Coffee Company, splendid enlargements have been made of a photograph of "Capt. Bill" Wincapaw's plane as it flew over Boston bearing the ten winners of the Day aviation competition. Mr. Hartley of the East Boston Airport is responsible for this unusually fine exhibition of photography. The ninth grade has decided to present framed enlargement of this photograph as its gift to the school. The picture will be called "Wings Over the Day."

PIANOFORTE RECITAL

On Thursday evening, June 18th, in the Central Congregational Church parlors, Newtonville, a pianoforte recital was given by the pupils of Miss Mina Cotton and Miss Mae Cotton.

These pupils have been working in the study of music so as to qualify and be eligible to join a musical club formed by these teachers. The award of pins was made at the recital to those who are members. There were eleven selected from the members of this club for a final competition and the winner was Miss Beverly Munn, with George Roope as honorable mention. The selection was made impartially by three judges.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

By JACK MORRIS

OLYMPIC DASH TRIAL
FOR FORTE TOMORROW

Paul Forte of Waban, who was the sprint sensation of the school track year, will be one of the youngest entries in the eastern Olympic trials tomorrow at the Harvard Stadium. The 16-year old captain-elect of Newton High's outdoor track team has never been defeated in his specialty the century.

Other Newton athletes in the Olympic trials will be Stan Johnson, M. I. T. captain, in the broad jump and hop-step-and-jump, Milton Green, brilliant Harvard leader, who will probably pass up the hurdles in favor of the broad jump, and Al Rogan, veteran hop-step-and-jump artist. Warren Wittens, Newton High's fleet record-smasher in the low hurdles, will not compete.

Forte Wins N. E. A. A. U. Title

Forte and Wittens stepped out into New England A. A. U. open competition last Sunday at Newport, R. I., and more than held their own against club and college athletes. Wittens lowered the record in the 200-metre low hurdles trials, running the distance around one turn in 25 sec. even. The final in this event was called immediately, and Wittens, running in the outside lane, hit the fifth hurdle and was spilled, taking fourth place. A checkup proved that the hurdle had been wrongly placed. The final was won in 25.6 seconds.

Paul Forte won his 100-metre dash final from Walter Nygaard of the Fosse Club by a stride. The time was 11.4 sec., very creditable for the 16-year old Newton High athlete. Stan Johnson, Newton High ace of 1932 and national junior broad jump champion, set a new field record of 46 ft. 1 1/2 in. in winning the hop-step-and-jump, and was second in the broad jump at 22 ft. 7 1/2 in. Al Rogan, wearing the Boston A. A. colors, was second to Johnson in the triple jump at 44 ft. 7 1/2 in. Since the first three in each event qualified for the stadium's miniature Olympic Games of tomorrow, Forte, Johnson and Rogan were bid to the big trial meet. Wittens, who broke the record in the low hurdles, a non-

Olympic event, had planned to enter the gruelling 400-metre hurdles tomorrow, but gave up the idea early this week.

INDEPENDENTS WIN
THREE AND LEAD
COUNTY LEAGUE

The Newton Independents continued their winning habits with three more victories in the Twin-County League last week. They have undisputed claim to the circuit lead at this point, since Wellesley took another defeat during the week. Jeff Jones will take the Independents to Wellesley Tuesday evening for the game that will decide the league leadership for the first half of the schedule.

The Independents took the Natick Cubs into camp last night, 2-1, but the game was declared an exhibition, since there was no official league umpire on the field. Jeff Jones reached first on an error in the second inning. Andres singled, and both rode home on Castoldi's single for the runs that won the game.

Joe Greene's Pitching Feature

In the only bona fide league games of the week, the Independents had the excellent relief pitching of red-headed Joe Greene to thank for pulling the Bemis and Needham games out of the fire. At Needham last Friday, Brad Dyer allowed the Needham 5-0 lead in the first inning, but Joe Greene held them scoreless from that point on. The Independents gradually overhauled the formidable Needham margin with two runs in the fourth and one in the fifth. In the last of the seventh, Greene singled and stole second, Berry singled and stole second, and Ferguson hit safely to bring home Berry with the sixth run, winning the game, 6-5.

At Bemis last Tuesday, in the game the Independents won eventually, 6-4, Walter Cooke yielding three runs in the first inning to the Bemis nine, and the Jases were filled in the fifth when Joe Greene took over the pitching. Joe cut them off without a run in that stanza, and went on to win the game. Newton's first two runs came in the first inning, when Bill Mullen and Phil Greene scored on Pete Morrison's single. In the third, the same combination clicked again as Mullen singled, Phil Greene hit a triple, and Morrison scored him with a single. Mullen led off again in the fifth with a single, advanced on a fielder's choice and scored when he and Morrison pulled a double steal. Mullen was the man of the evening with three hits and a sensational running catch in centerfield, while Pete Morrison hit twice in four trips, knocking in four of the Independents' runs.

Jack Herrick of the Newton Cubs had the bad luck to be beaten by the Independents Wednesday night in a Newton-Twi League game, after he had held them to one hit, a single by Howard Ferguson. The Cubs had a 3-1 lead through their half of the fifth inning, but Herrick walked five consecutive Independents in that inning, then let in the winning run on a wild pitch. The game was played entirely in a misty rain.

NEWTON TWI LEAGUE

Cabot Associates continue to be the only undefeated team in the Newton Twilight League having added three victories to their total in the last week. Two of these games, one with the Ramblers and another with the Boys Club, were won in the final innings through superior hitting.

The feature game in the Senior Circuit was the victory of "Jeff" Jones' Independents over his former pupils—the Cubs. This game was played in a drizzle Wednesday night and because of the condition of the ball all of Independent's runs and two of Cubs were the results of the lack of control of pitchers Castoldi and Herrick.

Cubs took the lead in the first half of the last inning as a result of an error by second baseman, Ferguson, followed by a triple by Leo Geary. With the score 4-1 in his favor pitcher Herrick of the Cubs had only three men to retire to win the game. A combination of wags and an error scored two runs and with two out, the tying run on third and the winning run on second, Coach Jones came to bat. Herrick had previously fanned "Jeff" twice and hoped to end the game in a blaze of glory by fanning his former tutor once more. It was two strikes and two balls and Herrick put everything he had on that last pitch but the wet ball couldn't be controlled and a wild pitch resulted with the two runs scoring and the final score Independents 5, Cubs 4.

Newton Highlights

Jack Skilling, Newton Centre youth who has been athletically and scholastically prominent at Brown University has been elected captain of the varsity tennis team for next year.

Robert Decker of Waban, second ranking New England tennis junior in 1935, won the junior singles championship held over the week-end at the East Side Tennis Club, Providence, routing the defending champion, Sanford Webster of Kingston, R. ## Newton Highlights

Milton Green, Harvard track captain from Newton, was unofficially nominated the university's athlete of the year. He won fifteen times in seventeen starts during his senior year, and was the first athlete ever to win three events for two years running in the Harvard-Yale meets. Green has come close to 25 feet several times in the broad jump this year, and is expected to concentrate on that event in the meet tomorrow.

Paul Forte, who has records of 9.9 for 100 yards and 11.4 for 100 metres, will toe the mark in the metric century tomorrow along with Ben Johnson of Columbia, Eulace Peacock of Temple, Mason of Pitt and Scanlon of Holy Cross, to name only a few of the nationally known athletes in the event. While he has only an outside chance of scoring in such fast company, Paul will at least have a chance to find his limit.

Tony Manero, newly crowned U. S. open golf champion, will be up against a trio of Newton linksmen in his first exhibition in this section a few weeks hence. Nick Gianferante, pro at Westboro, Jerry Gianferante, pro at Minute Man in Lexington, and Charley MacAndrew of Albemarle are scheduled to test the new champion over the Westboro layout. The Gianferantes, Newton High golf stars a decade ago, are among the leading New England playing professionals. Jerry finished fifth in the state open at Fitchburg last month and was ninth in the National Open at Baltusrol when Manero won his title.

The golfing Hunters have deserted Newton for points West. The brother-and-sister team that won the state mixed foursomes title last year did not defend it last week. Bob Hunter, Harvard golf captain and honor graduate, entered the medical school at the University of Chicago this week, and Mrs. Dorothy Hunter Whittemore, fresh from her state championship triumph, has left for Reno, Nevada. The famous team held a reunion with their parents last week in Chicago.

Tom Slattery of Newton Centre, ranked Number 3 on the state championship Newton High tennis team, scored an upset in the men's state singles at Longwood last Saturday when he put out John Ray of Cambridge, seeded player. Slattery, a member of the Longwood junior team, came from behind to outpoint his older adversary 2-6, 8-6, 8-6.

Elena Ciccone of Newton Centre was well on her way to the state championship for junior girls as she defeated Carolyn Everts of Newtonville and Mt. Holyoke in a close match. Ranked No. 2 nationally, Elena was forced to win in extra-game sets, 9-7, 7-5. Elena paired with John Palfrey of Brookline to win her match in the junior mixed doubles from Ruth Cotter and Paul Shonk 6-0, 8-6. Another Newton combination, that of Bob Decker of Belmont and Betty Mannes of Belmont and Newton put out Tom Slattery and partner by 7-5, 6-2.

Kiwanis Club

The annual convention of Kiwanis International being held at Washington, D. C., is attended by four members of the Newton Club: President J. Ernest Gibson, Immediate Past Governor of New England District James P. Gallagher, Dr. F. H. Paul, and Mr. W. S. Wagner.

In the absence of President Gibson, the weekly meeting of the Club was conducted by First Vice President Edward E. Hickey. Program Chairman William F. White introduced the speaker of the day, Mr. Edward Grennan, Director of Library and Advocacy, State Prison Colony at Norfolk. Mr. Grennan told in a very interesting way of the activities and functions of the Colony. That this type of prison is a departure in the handling of criminals Mr. Grennan affirmed and did not deny, and he called attention of his listeners to the fact that during a somewhat similar trend of thought the Concord Reformatory was brought into existence about 1870. The State Prison in Charlestown was built about 1844—the first building of its type in America, and about 1870 the advocates of different handling of prisoners succeeded in having erected the Concord Reformatory, at which time, and for some time thereafter, the State Prison at Charlestown was unoccupied. The Concord Institution gradually came to the handling of youthful offenders only, and the gates of State Prison opened and housed the more hardened type of criminal.

At the close of his talk, Mr. Grennan answered many questions, all of which indicated the exceptional interest aroused by his discussion.

Girl Scouts

Newton Girl Scouts have added another camp to their summer program this summer with the announcement of the opening of the Cedarbrook Day Camp at Cedar Hill, Waltham. Here Scouts from Newton will have an opportunity for a real camping program on two days a week—Mondays and Tuesdays for six weeks. Some of the features of the program as set up at present include pioneering, crafts, swimming, mapmaking, nature, games, dramatics and music.

There will be a staff of one counselor for every eight girls, who are specialists in their various lines. Miss Anna MacPhee of Newton will head up the swimming program, and Diana Cumner of Newton Centre is to be a Pioneering Counselor and Food Lieutenant. Miss Eloise A. Barber, the Newton Field Captain will direct the camp.

Since there are six towns co-operating in the project, there will be an opportunity for Newton girls to get to know girls from the other towns. Camp opens July 6 and closes on August 11.

Registrations for the camp should be in at the local office this week. A bus is to make the trip throughout the villages, picking up all of the girls who are to attend. On the bus will be a member of the committee, Mrs. Arthur T. Soule of Waban is the Chairman of the Newton Day Camp Committee.

IF YOU'VE GOT A SCOTCH STREAK—LISTEN!

WE'RE not one to suggest that you can run a Buick for nothing—we don't subscribe to the school of selling that makes believe even this great car can run on its reputation.

So you'll never hear us talking in terms of how many drums of gas you'll save in a year, because such promises simply don't fit in with every driver and every driving condition.

But we do know, and do not hesitate to say, that on miles-per-gallon this Buick SPECIAL Series 40 will match or beat many a six in your experience.

We can safely promise you fewer fillings per trip—you'll have more uniform gas consumption over the whole range of the speedometer needle, with a mighty thrifty average over any service period you want to name.

And we know, from certified records, that when you count repair bills and overhauling along with the cost of fuel, you'll find you have in Buick a car that's as easy to take from the money angle as it is from the angles of style, comfort, safety and performance.

It's smooth, it's brilliant, it's swift—we're constantly hearing pleasant things about its easy ride and featherweight handling. But page Buick owners generally, and their stand-out comment is surprise at the frugality of its habits.

Price can't be keeping you from enjoying a Buick, since the figures begin at $765* list at the factory. If lack of knowledge about upkeep has been the drawback, come in now and let us show you a few things that will gratify your Scotch streak!

Join the Buick Safety Legion. More than 300,000 safe drivers already enrolled. See your Buick dealer for details.

$765* to $1045 are the list prices of the new Buicks at Flint, Mich., subject to change without notice. Standard and special accessories groups on all models at extra cost. All Buick prices include safety glass throughout as standard equipment. MONTHLY PAYMENTS TO FIT YOUR PURSE! Ask about the General Motors installment plan.

ZONTA CLUB

Members of the Newton Zonta Club are taking part in the International Zonta Convention at New Ocean House, Swampscott, June 25th, 26th and 27th, their unit being one of the nine hostess clubs. The list of committees contains the names of many well known business and professional women. International President Dora E. Neum will preside. Prominent in the organization is Cora E. MacKenzie of Auburn, past president and chairman for this convention. Today the delegates will enjoy a ride around Cape Ann and Gloucester to be followed by a New England shore dinner.

Spark Plugs Keep Motor Cars Fit

The spark plug may seem to be an insignificant bit of equipment, but it plays a mighty important part in making the car run smoothly and economically. As Myron F. Evans, of Newton, Hudson-Terraplane, Inc., Hudson and Terraplane dealer says, "Spark plugs can make an 'old plug' out of your car, or keep it as fit as a race horse."

"If the spark plugs are kept clean, with the points properly adjusted, a sweet-running motor will result, providing the rest of the car is in shape mechanically," said Mr. Evans, "but if they are neglected, then excessive gas consumption and even a 'bucking' motor may be your lot."

"Poor acceleration, misfiring, spark knock or pre-ignition, hard starting and engine overheating are a few of the conditions that may be attributed to neglect in the care of the plugs. 'Spark plugs should be cleaned periodically, for any plug will become at least partially fouled with long service. Fouling consists in coating the firing tip of the porcelain to an extent which makes it easier for the high tension ignition current to pass along the porcelain to the shell than it is to spark across the gap between the electrodes. It may be caused by excessive oil in the combustion chamber or by continuous operation at low speeds or long periods of idling the engine."

Mr. Evans emphasized the importance of using as far as possible the same kind of plug as that used in the original equipment, pointing out that the car manufacturers spend considerable time to determine the proper plug.

Police Halt Truck With Stolen Steel

Patrolmen Elliot and McHugh on Monday night at 11:30 halted a truck at the corner of Washington st. and Jackson rd., Newton, and placed the driver, Richard Powers of Everett, under arrest. The truck was loaded with steel girders which had been taken from a junk yard at Dedham where old freight cars had been burned. Jacob Feinberg of Brookline, owner of the metal, has been missing quantities of the salvaged steel. Monday night he went to the place and observed a crew of men loading the truck. He followed it and when it entered Newton, Feinberg phoned police headquarters here. A radio broadcast was sent out giving a description of the truck. Powers was employed as a chauffeur by a Watertown truckman who is charged with the larceny of the metal and will be tried in the Dedham Court. Powers was arraigned in the Newton court on Tuesday and his case was continued for a week.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Christian Science" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 28.

The Golden Text is: "The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened" (Matthew 13:33).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit; . . . When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him. And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead insomuch that many said, He is dead. But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose" (Mark 9:17, 25-27).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Our system of Mind-healing rests on the apprehension of the nature and essence of all being,—on the divine Mind and Love's essential qualities. Its pharmacy is moral, and its medicine is intellectual and spiritual, though used for physical healing. Yet this most fundamental part of metaphysics is the one most difficult to understand and demonstrate, for to the material thought all is material, till such thought is rectified by Spirit" (p. 460).

WOMEN'S CLUB ACTIVITIES

Edited by EMMA D. COOLIDGE

What They Did
And Said At Miami

Clubwomen who write poetry will be interested in the report of the chairman of this division in the General Federation on plans to aid poets through criticism and encouragement. In time this idea should develop into a decidedly worthwhile establishment of a national Headquarters for such constructive criticism. Also it is leading to a delightful presentation of Poetry that should arouse writers to their best efforts. Mrs. D. A. McDougal of Washington, D. C., and Sapulpa, Okla., chairman of this division of Poetry, calls these headquarters for Poets, "Poetry Clinics." To aid the amateur versifiers, and such Clinics are being established throughout the country under Mrs. McDougal's direction. Already such a "Clinic" has been established in the nation's Capital, which has brought hundreds of inquiries by mail, phone, and wire, from people eager to be accepted as members of the group.

"This venture," Mrs. McDougal says, "has verified my contention that there is, in the heart of every 'mortal that liveth' an urge for self-expression. In other words, an urge to write poetry. Poems have been received from carefree young school-girls, staid business men, busy housewives, society devotees, and men and women trembling in the rays of the western sun. Poems are not criticized when sent by mail, but we intend to establish a Critics Bureau a little later."

A National Poetry Festival to be held in Washington in 1937 is another of Mrs. McDougal's major projects. To this end, she is stimulating a greater poetry-consciousness in clubs. She suggests that at least one club program consist of poetry, not forgetting the local and amateur writers. Programs will be furnished by her division when requested, text books and other aids will be suggested for Clinics, and generous prizes will be offered for original poems. The poetry groups (clubs) will meet with the District and State Federations when desired and, finally, all will unite in a grand Poetry Festival, a three-day gala event.

Although Mrs. McDougal denies that she is a poet, one of her poems is included in the volume of verse, "Wandering Fires," written by her daughters, Violet McDougal and Mary McDougal Axelson. Mrs. McDougal was president of the Indian Territory Federation of Women's Clubs before Oklahoma was granted Statehood. She still maintains a home in Sapulpa, Oklahoma.

A thrilling event of the General Federation meeting was the nationwide radio hook-up, when for an hour on Wednesday morning, April 29th, thousands of clubwomen throughout the United States heard messages from sixteen Federation leaders. The clearest reports there came, through this marvelous invention or device—which would have inspired with awe, even with unbelief in its possibility, our ancestors—news as to what 2,000,000 women are thinking and doing about citizenship, home-life, education, fine arts, international relations, and public welfare. In thanking the company through whose courtesy this miracle was performed, Mrs. Lawson, national president, rightly stated that it was indeed a great opportunity and a rare privilege which the National Broadcasting Company had granted the clubwomen at this time, during the Council Meeting in Miami.

No better way to close the record of the business sessions of the Council Meeting could be chosen than by the fearless statement made by Mrs. Lawson in which every loyal citizen in the United States should heartily concur: "It is a terrible fact that there seems to be a spirit of resentment springing up here and there over our nation towards any demonstration of appreciation and loyalty to the greatest country in the world. Personally, I have absolutely no patience with anyone—man, woman, or child—who refuses to salute the flag of these United States or to take the Oath of Allegiance whenever the privilege is offered. These acts are symbolic of thanksgiving for the privileges in these United States."

The gala Banquet on Thursday evening, April 30th, in honor of Mrs. Lawson, called National President's Night, featured not only a delightful program of music by noted singers, but a Symposium, especially honoring the President, on "What Patriotism Means to Me," conducted by Judge George Elmore Gibson, of Tulsa, Okla., with Miss Marita Stoupe, student at Rollins College, Winter Park, Florida, and Dr. Frank Balyeat, from the University of Oklahoma, taking part.

In a stirring presentation, which stressed once again the danger threatening from within by intellectuals who, whether they seek to do so or not, are actually tearing down our laws and Constitutions, National and State, by their disdain for them, and by their refusal to be obedient to them, Judge Gibson said:

"As probable and as dangerous as is war with a foreign foe, and of much more concern, is the certain and never-ending war with the enemies within our gates. The army of criminals is but the extreme development of neglect for law, shared by many who would class themselves as patriotic."

Social events played no small part in the entertainment offered to these visiting clubwomen to Florida, who declared this State "a glimpse of paradise." Friday, May first, was designated as Play Day. But previous to this, dinners and teas, courtesy luncheons, not only given by the hostess clubs, but by the hotel management, made every day festive with some interesting group gathering. Members of the Miami and Coral Gables Junior Clubs complimented Mrs. Lawson in a delightful Tea, given at the Coral Gables Country Club.

Then on Friday, with sessions and reports and voting over and put behind them, the delegates set forth for a day of friendships and gaiety. Aeroplanes conveyed delegates and visitors to the Roney Plaza Cabana Sun Club, with its private beach and outdoor swimming pool and gardens, where luncheon was served by the Dade County Federation of Women's Clubs. Guests of the Miami Daily News Homemakers had a fish fry at Deauville Casino on Miami Beach when a picnic luncheon was served on the beach and a Fashion Show was presented at the pool.

With this unusual Play Day over, another group of Play Days followed for many clubwomen. That evening, Friday, May first, a party, including Mrs. Lawson, sailed on a Caribbean cruise, about 7 o'clock, on the SS. Peten.

After three full days in exotic Havana, the cruise successfully included visits in 11 foreign cities in 5 foreign countries: Kingston, Jamaica, British West Indies, Colon, Panama City, the Bahamas and ruins of old Panama in Panama-Cristobal, Gatun, Pedro Miguel, Ancon and Balboa in the Canal Zone; the Panama Canal-Port Limon and San Jose in Costa Rica.

In all of these places the clubwomen were entertained royally, not only by member clubs of the General Federation, but by the dignitaries, ambassadors and their wives, consuls, vice-consuls, and presidents. Teas and dinner parties and concerts, sightseeing and moonlight drives; homes of distinguished citizens opened for their recreation and pleasure; description of those days by Mrs. Lawson and others of the party, carries a breeze of reality in the romance and interest of the ports in Havana, Panama, and the West Indies, that is a refreshing whiff of their charm.

Mrs. Lawson wrote ABOARD THE SS. PETEN on May 7th:

"The cordiality accorded us at Havana, Cuba, was a forerunner of the hospitality which has been extended at every port. We were met at the Hotel Plaza by Mrs. J. E. Stuntz, president of the Woman's Club of Havana; Mrs. Ralph Malone, president of the Mothers' Club; Mrs. Miguel C. de Arango, chairman of the Reception committee; Mrs. Thomas Gimpelring, and others. The luncheon at the Havana Yacht Club was most beautifully arranged. Honorable Jefferson Caffery, Ambassador of the United States—an extremely dignified bachelor (though he be—proved his bravery by attending and extending a most cordial greeting. Colonel Gimpelring, United States Military Attache, was also there.

"At 4:30 o'clock the Ambassador, Colonel and Mrs. Gimpelring received our group at a beautifully appointed tea at Colonel and Mrs. Gimpelring's home.

"Sunday was given to rest, church, and sightseeing. The Monday afternoon tea at the Woman's Club was a most interesting occasion, with Senora Bonnet, wife of the Cuban President, also a guest of honor.

"Wednesday, May 6, shortly after noon, we reached Kingston, Jamaica, a very interesting port, where we were met by Mrs. Littell and Mrs. Kelly, wives of the United States Junior Consul and Vice Consul, respectively. After a drive to the scenic highway to Castleton Gardens and other places of interest, a reception was tendered us by our United States Consul, Mr. Armstrong, where we met many gracious persons whose various positions in the life and government of the island gave us an insight into the complete organization of activities on this most interesting spot. Our guide, after being interrogated on the flora, vegetation, fruits, spices, etc., replied, 'Jamaica is a sample island, we grow some of everything,' and so it really seemed as we studied the various products. Although loath to leave this enchanted island, after a moonlight drive along the coast line, twelve o'clock (midnight) found us once more on our 'ship home' bound for Panama, where this note will be posted.

Mrs. Edward Dexter Knight, chairman of Trustees in the General Federation, and Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, a director of the District of Columbia Federation, carry forward these pungent descriptions thus:

Discussing some of the interesting personalities encountered, Mrs. Knight says: "Of all the factors that unite to make a trip interesting and revealing, the human family is at the head of the list and a visit to the West Indies presents a colorful variety. From the time we heard the compelling call of the natives, eager to dive for coins as the boat reached the dock, until we got rid of the last high pressure vendor on the moonlight pier at Kingston, Jamaica, our eyes feasted on a constantly changing panorama of characteristic personalities. "Hand in hand, along the Prado at Havana, white, brown and black mingle their smiles and salutations and in Jamaica young and old carry their basket-laden heads high or walk to market beside their provisioned donkeys—examples of perfect balance.

"There are the dusky traffic officers with the broad red stripes on trousers and coat who flash their signals as your car approaches, by means of colored flashlights, the basket weavers, the women stone crushers, who earn sometimes fifty cents per day government money, the courteous guides and the vendors, always the vendors."

Mrs. Wiley whimsically declared that at Kingston, where they met (Continued on page 8)

Good Opportunities In Scholarships

The State Federation of Women's Clubs, through committee chairmen, made some happy announcements of opportunities in scholarships, as their club season closed.

It was with justifiable pride and pleasure that Mrs. Herbert Stephens, State Art chairman, could give the news that the State Federation Art Scholarship Fund had been accomplished, due to the interest in the Art lectures held at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, and due, too, to the splendid contributions from the Art departments of the various clubs of the State, and from individual gifts. This means that each year forever there will be a Saturday morning Scholarship for some clubwoman's child. The rules are simple; the child's name and address, the Mother's name and Club, and two or three samples of work done entirely by the child, should be sent to the State Art chairman, 15 Carleton road, Wellesley, by September first. The judges include the Supervisor of the Saturday Morning Drawing Classes at the Museum, Mrs. Mary P. Sayward; the Art Supervisor in the Boston Schools, Miss Helen Cleaves; and the State Federation Literature chairman, Mrs. H. M. Schelbe, announced two opportunities, sponsored by the State Federation through her committee, that may appeal to some gifted Newton young woman or young man.

The Bishop-Lee School of Dramatic and Platform Art, 73 Mount Vernon street, Boston, is offering again a three-year free tuition scholarship to the daughter or son of a member of a Federated Club, or to a member of a Junior Federated Club. The candidate must be a graduate of an accredited High School, and only one candidate may be sent from each Club. Candidates will present selections from memory before impartial judges who will award the scholarship. These selections are to be chosen by the candidate, the delivery time not to exceed eight minutes. Names of contestants should reach the School as soon as possible. September first will be the closing date. The final contest will take place at the School on Saturday, September 19th. Further information may be obtained by writing to the Secretary at the Bishop-Lee School.

The second opportunity is offered by The Curry School of Expression, 251 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, and is, strictly speaking, two opportunities. One is for a three-year free tuition scholarship to a Junior Federated Club member, or to a son or daughter of a member of a Senior Federated Club. Contestants must have completed a High School course or its equivalent. The other is a one-year scholarship in the Evening School to a member of any Federated Club, Junior or Senior, who is not free to compete for the three-year scholarship. Only one contest from each Club for each scholarship is permitted. Applicants for either should communicate with the president of the Club through which she becomes eligible, and obtain permission to appear as the representative of that Club. If there is more than one applicant in any one Club, the choice of the contestant shall rest with the officers of that Club.

Contestants will be required to present selections of their own choice, from memory. They should register intention of entering the contest, on or before August first. Information regarding the final contests will be sent to applicants not later than August 15th. Further information will be supplied at the Curry School.

A scholarship is offered by the American Home committee, Mrs. Schuyler W. VanNess, chairman, in the Danforth-Dunbar School. Any Club daughter or member of a Junior Club who may be interested and eligible, should send for the School Catalogue, 2 Harvard st., Worcester.

This might be called a School for Home-Making, since it places emphasis on the management of the home and family, the art of hospitality and on dietetics. For example, one of its courses is called The Art of Living, and thus builds a background, where-in students learn to discuss intelligently concerts, plays, and topics of national and international importance. They review many of the latest books and acquire discrimination in choice of reading. They learn to cook and to run a home easily. A study of home decoration, of buying a wardrobe, of motherhood and of care of children are given serious consideration under the guidance of specialists in every branch. A new course is one in Food Specialization, with study of diets and of tea-room management for those who wish a career. This includes practice teaching, buying, preparation of menus and research study of foods and their uses. The importance of diet in the treatment of disease will be a part of the training. Students receive lectures by specialists on the advances in nutritional biochemistry. The time and conditions for the proper assimilation of food is studied under differing circumstances and with various types of people. A small practice tea-room will be conducted by the advanced students.

This is a sample of the study to be presented in this School.

The scholarship is open to the daughter of a present member of a Federated Woman's Club. The applicant should write a letter to the School telling why she wishes to attend. To do this she should, if possible, personally visit the School, and in any event should obtain and carefully read the literature. The director will be glad to give an appointment. The winner will be chosen for out-

others of their own party, their groupers, who guessed them to be all the way from a "Ladies Aid Society" to the "Women's Labor Party."

Mrs. Wiley, speaking especially on her impressions of Cuban women, was an enigma to their fellow-cruisers:

"I was delighted and charmed by the Cuban women. They are so sparkling, so well dressed, and so executive."

"We went to a concert at the 'Sociedad Pro-Arte Musical,' a musical organization composed entirely of women, now in its eighteenth year of existence. It owns a splendid club house, costing half a million dollars and gives Havana the best in music during the season, including even John Charles Thomas' Membership in the 'Pro-Arte Musical' includes not only these concerts but classes in music, singing and dancing. There are 1,600 members and the theatre seats 2,000 people."

"We also visited the 'Lyceum,' another excellent club managed by women, where art exhibitions, concerts and lectures are given, and classes in language, the arts and typewriting afforded."

"One of the greatest treats I had was to be invited to the home of La Marquesa de Tiedra, to meet five of the newly-elected Congresswomen in the new Cuban Congress. The Cuban Constitution Law of 1934, which revoked the Cuban Constitution of 1901, gave women the right to vote in elections. Cuban women, led by the Alianza Nacional Feminista, helped elect seven Congresswomen of which five hold Ph.D. degrees. La Marquesa de Tiedra was president of the Alianza Feminista during the six-year campaign for woman suffrage. We also met two distinguished women lawyers and one woman alderman from Havana."

Which accounts, quoted in part, give clubwomen some idea of the experiences of many of their leaders during these interesting days.

And so, leaving the world of Club affairs until fall, there is only left for your Editor to record for the information of Newton clubwomen that the General Federation of Women's Clubs, which met at the Hotel Hamilton in Kansas City, Mo., and selected Tulsa, Okla., the home of its president, Mrs. Roberta Campbell Lawson, for the Council's 1937 Conference. Convening in executive session, the clubwomen received invitations for the General Convention from Kansas City and Chicago. The only other city bidding for the next Council Conference was Washington.

standing ability, willingness to help herself, adaptability, and responsibility. Her letter also is vitally important. Four references are required. With the scholarship is given opportunity to work either a small or large part of remaining expenses.

While on the subject of scholarships, it is interesting to note that Mrs. Honorary E. Blair, of Newtonville, State chairman of Education, had this to say in her report in May Federation Topics: "The United States Office of Education implies that 5,000,000 of the 20,000,000 persons between 16 and 26 are neither in school nor employed. The best way to remove young people from the ranks of the unemployed is to extend the period of their education. This is a task that laws must be enacted requiring a longer period of schooling. "Is the youth of today bound by fetters of inertia, despondency, fear and discouragement? If so, our money should be used in keeping our young people in school for a longer time. We should continue to give them every aid that we can in their desire to further their education. This is done by scholarships—either all loans or gifts—whichever the Club considers wisest in that community."

And she went on to report that the State Federation records show the total amount of Reserve Scholarship Funds in the State to be over $150,000.00, with the amount lent each year between $19,000.00 and $20,000.00.

School Committee Endorses N'ville Branch Library

The Newton School Committee at its regular meeting on Monday night endorsed the campaign to raise $40,000 for the branch library at Newtonville. Chairman Fernald stated that the proposed library building, because of its proximity to Newton High School will be of great assistance to many of the 2600 pupils attending the school. The school library can only accommodate 500 pupils a day and the proposed branch library can be used both for reference purposes as well as for the circulation of books. C. Raymond Cabot, representing the Newtonville Library Association was present at the meeting and told of the drive which will be conducted to raise the fund for the new library on June 30. Mr. Cabot said that in addition to providing needed library facilities, the new building will save the residential character of Walnut st. by acting as a bulwark against further business development on that street southerly toward the high school buildings.

The Newtonville branch library will be open at its quarters in the Masonic Building on Walnut st. for the last day on June 29. It has been 30 years in this building. On Tuesday, June 30, and Wednesday, July 1st the branch will be closed while the books and furnishings are being moved to the new temporary quarters in Denison Hall on the second floor of the Orr Building, 259 Walnut st. corner of Washington st.

Fined $50 For Drunken Driving

Fred L. Matthews of 29 Putnam st., West Newton, was found guilty by Judge Allen in the Newton court on Wednesday of driving a car while under the influence of liquor. He was fined $50. A charge of drunkenness was placed on file. Matthews had the misfortune to run into a tree at West Newton on the night of June 13 when Patrolman Ray Taffe, who was off duty, happened to be nearby. His attorney produced a number of witnesses to prove that the defendant was not drunk, but Taffe's testimony was corroborated by that of other police officers and by Dr. Fred Lowe, who although called as a witness by the defense, stated that the defendant appeared to be somewhat under the influence of liquor.

Buckley Wheeler of Winthrop st., Marblehead, was arrested early yesterday morning for driving a car while under the influence of liquor. He was arraigned in the Newton court yesterday and his case was continued until July 2.

Newton Ctr. Market Man Gashes Hand

Richard Ellis To End Service As Public Works Head

erly arose from taste and appearance of the water. The development of the source of supply and the reconstruction of the Pumping Station provided additional water at a material saving to the department. The introduction of a Public Utility system of billing simplified the office routine and provided a basis of billing which has resulted in less dissatisfaction on the part of the public and an increased efficiency in the collection of delinquent accounts. The construction of a modern shop provided adequate storage, working quarters, meter repair facilities, and the subsequent reconditioning and inspection of 15,500 water meters assured the proper registration of water sold, on an equitable basis to all takers, and has been a material factor in bringing about a reduction of 28% in the water rate. The development in co-operation with the Board of Health, or a bacteriological laboratory has resulted in the analysis of samples of water collected on the source as well as throughout the distribution system. Such analyses are valuable in the control and operation of the source and tend to assure the public of distribution of water which is safe for domestic consumption.

"Upon assuming the duties of Director of Public Works, I proceeded to study the Street and Engineering Department organizations and made recommendations which were designed to increase the efficiency of these departments.

"The three highway divisions, previously organized on a territorial basis, were reorganized on the basis of management of work; that is, (1) maintenance and construction, (2) sanitation. This was done on the theory that it would induce the development of crews who would become highly skilled at doing the various kinds of work encountered by the Street Department. The closing of one of the stables under such a scheme resulted in reallocating the help to other useful work and in a saving to the maintenance account. The introduction of snow removal equipment as used successfully in Brookline, Detroit, and by many industrial plants was also considered a step forward.

"The Street Department garage which, as a result of my studies, is now being enlarged, will provide adequate and modern quarters for storage and for proper servicing of the city's equipment. This should result in reduced cost of the upkeep of equipment.

"I have been pleased to be of service to the city in the development of such projects as the Albarre Sewer outlet, Beacon st. reconstruction, both of which projects provided the Street Department with a large portion of their 1935 work, as well as the development of the PWA program which has provided the city with the new road surfaces on Adams st., Lowell ave., Auburndale ave., Ward st., Waverley ave., Beacon st., Centre st., Commonwealth ave., Walnut st., and with all other construction during 1935 and 1936 including the WPA sidewalk work which has permitted the reconstruction of many miles of tar side walk.

"Believing that the Engineering Department was not personelled so as to enable it to properly carry out the requirements of the City Ordinances, certain changes in responsibility have been made therein. These changes, if carried on, should result in proper technical supervision of construction.

"In my connection with the City Government, it has been my desire to remain impersonal, to be fair both with the employees of the city and with the citizens themselves, to both of whom as well as to the City Government of 1930-1936, I extend my thanks for their co-operation and interest."

Luce To Run For Congress

Robert Luce of Waltham who represented Newton in Congress for many years as Representative from the 13th and 9th Districts, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for this office. He was defeated in 1934 by Mayor Russell of Cambridge. Russell is again a candidate for the Democratic nomination. Luce, because of his length of service was one of the most influential members of Congress. He was an outstanding foe of the Roosevelt administration.

BROOKLINE DAY CAMP

The spacious grounds of the school consisting of 11 acres includes several athletic fields, tennis courts, archery grounds, crafts shops and club room. Marshall Leydon, three-letter man at Rivers School, Miss Harriet Hyde, graduate of the Wheelock School, who has had experience in camp work and will have charge of the younger children, as well as several other young men who have real interest in boys. ## Swimming Instruction At Crystal Lake

"It's never too late to learn to swim" according to Commodore Longfellow of the American Red Cross, the founder and promoter of life saving in the United States under the Red Cross, who spoke strongly at the National Aquatic School at South Hanson, Massachusetts about the need of instruction for adult nonswimmers. That is why he is delighted at the report of the Newton Red Cross Chapter on their adult swimming class, which is to be continued this year.

Last summer an evening class for instruction in swimming for adult nonswimmers was started by the Newton Red Cross at the municipal beach at Crystal Lake, Newton.

The class was a success having a total attendance, at the peak, of forty adult pupils, ages ranging from eighteen to sixty or sixty-five.

It is free to adult residents who cannot swim and all such nonswimmers are urged to join. The Newton Playground Department's co-operation has allowed the class to be segregated at one end of the beach, which is kept clear of other bathers and swimmers, contributing a great deal to the success of the class.

The Red Cross Schedule at Crystal Lake, starting Monday, June 29, is:

9:00-10:00 A. M.—Nonswimmers instruction.

10:00-11:00 A. M.—Beginners and swimmers tests and instruction.

11:00-12:00 Noon—Junior and Senior life saving.

2:00-3:00 P. M.—Beginners diving stunts.

3:00-4:00 P. M.—Beginners and swimmers tests and stunts.

4:00-5:00 P. M.—Junior and Senior life saving.

Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings from 7:30 to 8:30 P. M. Class instruction for nonswimmers.

RED CROSS ASKS FOR A SAFE AND SANE FOURTH OF JULY

The American Red Cross seeks your co-operation in the keeping down of accidental deaths and injuries by remembering these three things:

One: Remember how dangerous firecrackers and fireworks are and use them accordingly. Get the safest kinds and have all parents supervise the use of them.

Two: Remember the number of deaths from drownings each year. Observe these rules:

Don't swim alone.
Don't swim sooner than two hours after meals.
Don't use canoes or small boats unless you can swim.
Don't overcrowd boats. Remember the recent tragedy at Lubec, Maine, where 12 children were drowned because of this.

Three: Remember that no matter how hurried you are or how jubilant you feel you should drive carefully and observe all traffic rules.
